The "Pace-Maker In Vaudeville" For Baltimore Is The VICTORIA

PLAYING A LARGE NUMBER OF SULLIVAN-CONSIDINE ATTRACTIONS, WHICH NO OTHER POPULAR PRICED HOUSE IN BALTIMORE IS IN A POSITION TO COMMAND. THE SAME ACTS THAT PLAY IN HIGH-PRICED HOUSES THROUGHOUT THE WEST—YOU'RE SEEING THEM HERE—SEEING THEM FIRST!—AND PAYING ONLY A POPULAR ADMISSION. HOW'S THAT FOR A WINNER? IT'S PEARCE AND SCHECK'S WAY!—AND—THERE YOU ARE!

The 4 Melody Monarchs! Handling tuneful, pleasing harmony in a way perhaps new to you!—but say!—mighty good!

Petite Sisters! Cleverest sister team in Vaudeville. They've gowns, good looks and ability—and that's enough for one sister team.

Hal Stevens & Co. In "Famous Scenes from Famous Plays." A bit of education, this! Some a trifle heavy—then something light—well balanced, and nicely varied—flavored just to suit YOUR taste!

Thos. Vinton & Co. In that one-long-laugh! "Erin Gabraugh." Surely you've never laughed yet as you will while this is on the boards! It's the funniest ever!—and that's saying something!

Fred Elliott! A character comedian; wonderfully versatile; clever; a trained and thorough entertainer. One of those mighty clever stunts you're always glad to have seen.

Van Cleve Denton & Pete! A rip-roaring comedy feature—with a mule in it! And it's some mule! Laughs—as much as you usually use for a whole show will be required for this one feature! It's a hit!—a funny, laughing hit!

The Whirling Wheelers! Riskiest, swiftest feature of its kind to be bought for money! A sensation, and a new one!—but it's a thriller, and you'll say it's great.

Mable Murdon! A vocalist of rare ability, with a collection of the latest melodies, backed up with a pleasing personality, and some gowns that catch the eye.

The Pathe Weekly! Throwing the light onto only those parts of the world worthy of special attention right now! A real education! How in the world can you keep posted if you don't see the Pathe Weekly?

WORLD'S NEWS IN BRIEF

BALTIMORE CITY.

Fair today and tomorrow.

Dr. William Garth Clopton, of the faculty of the University of Maryland, and his brother, W. Clopton, of British Columbia, began action in New York to break the will of their grandfather, David J. Garth, who died last July.

R. Lancaster Williams, the newly elected president of the Georgia and Florida Railroad, accompanied by C. T. Ernest, the new secretary-treasurer of the road, returned to Baltimore after a trip of inspection over the road.

John F. Weyler, former warden-emeritus of the Maryland Penitentiary, who was scored in the report of the Penitentiary Probing Committee, will not let the attack upon his good name go unanswered.

Rev. Frederick A. Murphy, missionary apostolic of the Vicarite of Northwest Hupeh, and one of the most prominent members of the Franciscan Order, will lecture at the Maryland Theater next Sunday.

Joseph C. Smith, the man who made the turkey trot famous, and who played the past week with The Girl from Montmartre, will leave the stage and devote his time to teaching society folk how to dance.

Tunis F. Dean, manager of the New Academy of Music, was presented a silver pitcher, tray and cup, by Richard Carle, Hattie Williams and members of The Girl from Montmartre Company.

It was anounced in financial circles that arrangements are progressing well for the acquisition of the Eutaw House property, with the object in view of erecting on its site a handsome hotel structure.

Articles of incorporation were filed at Dover, Del., for the Baltimore and Underfield Stoker Company of Baltimore, to manufacture and to sell and deal in automatic stokers and like devices.

The fourth week of the trial of the suit to have set aside the sale of the Mount Washington sewerage plant to the Baltimore County Commissioners was concluded in the Circuit Court.

Cardinal Gibbons, in discussing the news of the elimination of Reno as a divorce center, stated that he was delighted to learn of the passing of the Barnes amendment in Nevada.

Marshal Mahle, of the Baltimore County Police, celebrated his forty-second birthday and was presented a leather Morris chair by members of the Twelfth district of the department.

Dr. S. C. Mitchell, president of the University of South Carolina, will speak at the annual commemoration day exercises of the Johns Hopkins University, on February 22.

MARITIME.

Masters of steamers arriving from abroad report strong head gales and heavy seas in making the westward passage. Captain Timmis, of the British steamship Janeta, which arrived from Vizagapatam, India, with manganese ore, told of heavy gales and great seas sweeping the decks of his ship.

As a result of the continuous low tides the steamer Anne Arundel, previously reported aground in the Patuxent River, remains hard and fast. The revenue cutter Apache is still standing by the vessel to give it a pull on the return of a full tide.

Five steamships, laden with ore, arrived with aggregate cargoes amounting to 29,800 tons. Two ships came from Cuba, one from Bombay, one from Vizagapatam, India, and one from Beira, Portuguese East Africa.

THE STATE OF MARYLAND.

Thirty-nine midshipmen will be requested to resign from the Naval Academy because they failed in the semi-annual examinations.

Mrs. Arabella C. W. Forsythe, mother of Judge William H. Forsythe, of Howard county, is dead.

Professor Ernest M. Corey's bungalow at College Park was destroyed by fire.

The People's Bank, of Libertytown, was incorporated.

VIRGINIA AND WEST VIRGINIA.

As the West Virginia senatorial deadlock promises to continue indefinitely, it is probable that the question may be solved by a statewide primary, the candidate to be elected at an extraordinary session of the legislature.

Six companies of state militia have been assembled at Charleston to be in readiness to proceed at a moment's notice to the Kanawha strike zone, where rioting has been resumed.

The Virginia debt suit, the initiative and referendum and the Kanawha strike situation claimed the attention of the West Virginia legislature.

James Edward Porter, clerk of Louisa county, fell down stairs in a Richmond house and was killed.

Fire destroyed the plant of the Henrico Whisky Distilling Company, in Henrico county, Va.

WASHINGTON.

A bill transferring control of the Pacific branch of the National Volunteer Soldiers' Home at Santa Monica, Cal., to the War Department was passed by the Senate.

SPORTS.

Speaker William McKinley, of the lower House of the Illinois legislature, has indicated his willingness to help pass a sane boxing bill. McKinley said he would support a bill favored by Lieutenant Governor O'Hara.

After 10 minutes of hard struggling in the first period the midshipmen got the jump on the Swarthmore basketballers and won out by 31 to 12.

J. R. Fel's High Bridge was second in the Prince of Wales' steeplechase at Sandown Park, England. He was the only American horse entered, and ran close to the favorite, Glen Heston.

Winners on the Charleston track were Ruby Hyamz, Samuel R. Meyer, Chilton King, Charlton G., Bat Masterson and Spellbound.

Stops Tobacco Habit.

Elders' Sanitarium, located at 671 Main St., St. Joseph, Mo., has published a book showing the deadly effect of the tobacco habit, and how it can be stopped in three to five days.

As they are distributing this book free, anyone wanting a copy should send their name and address at once.—Advertisement.

THE COUNTRY AT LARGE.

John George Brown, a painter, internationally famous as a portrayer of newsboy and street gamin life, is dead in New York in his eighty-second year. He was an Englishman, but had lived in this country for many years.

Charles E. Merriam, widely known in life insurance circles, is dead in Schenectady, (N. Y.) of pneumonia. Mr. Merriam was at one time president of the national organization of managers.

An unofficial announcement reveals that the strike vote taken by the 30,000 firemen on roads east of Chicago and north of the Potomac, is overwhelmingly in favor of a strike.

Colonel Louis F. Heublein, a widely known hotel proprietor, was found dead in his apartments at Hartford, (Ct.) of heart disease.

FOREIGN.

Olympia Basdan, a Greek girl by birth, but whose home has been in Boston, writes from the Balkans that the Turkish soldiers are committing terrible atrocities upon Christians.

In an action for damages against an English steamship company a remarkable story was told of how explosions of metallic sodium set afire and sank the vessel.

Thirteen men were killed and a number hurt in a colliery near Mansfield, Eng., by the snapping of a chain holding a bucket containing 800 gallons of water.

King Nicholas of Montenegro directed a combined attack of the Montenegrins and Servian forces on the Turkish fortress of Scutari. Two Turkish ships were sunk.

BALKAN WAR.

Attempts on the part of the Turks to assume the offensive at the Tchatalja lines have been repulsed. One column of Turks was routed with great slaughter by bayonet charges.

FINANCIAL.

Business on the New York stock market was tame, but price changes were mostly upward. The money situation, as reflected in a poor bank statement, overshadowed other developments.

GRAIN MARKET.

Spot wheat closed at 107½ on the local market. Spot corn closed at 55⅞.
