$25 to $35 Spring Suits, $19.75

for Women, Misses, Small Women

Fully 500 on sale. - - - - Three great purchases.

Illustrating a half dozen of twenty attractive styles.

EASTER comes EARLY this year—and many makers wondered whether this would be enough incentive for a woman to get her spring suit much sooner than usual. Anyhow, we ran across three makers who were willing to allow liberal concessions if we would allow them to ship our ENTIRE orders NOW. They said they could use the money to good advantage. A little dickering—and they were on the way.

This season's best styles—faithful copies of expensive imported models, in serges, Bedford cords, diagonals, whipcords, worsteds in broken checks, Eponge and broadcloths; in black, navy blue, brown, tan, Copenhagen blue and gray; the styles vary, but all the very newest ideas are embodied in these smart Suits; some are strictly plain tailored, others in Norfolk effect; still others more elaborately trimmed and some with long satin revers in Tuxedo fashion; there are short-waisted effects, fancy backs, chic trimming touches of lace, satin, braid and buttons; then, too, there's the new Bulgarian Blouse Suit, which is so smart this season and so becoming to small figures; all sizes for women, misses and small women. These $25 to $35 brand-new Spring Suits go on sale Monday morning at $19.75.

—Second Floor.

Another great sale of Spring Dresses at . . . $5.00

300 of Serge, 150 of Silk, 50 of Ramie Linen.

Recall that great $5 dress sale of last week—and what enthusiasm it created? Well, this is fully as great an opportunity. Two New York makers heard of our purchase and wrote, "We can do as well." We investigated—and found that they didn't pad the story.

We will let you judge the superior quality and workmanship when you see them. Splendid serges predominate—in black, blue, brown, cream and copenhagen; ramie linens in white, light blue and tan; other splendid materials. A wide variety of charming styles—and all sizes for women and misses in the lot. Any of them at $5.

—Second Floor.

Women's & Misses' $25 Plush Coats . . $13.95
