Among those present were Misses May Machat, Margaret Todd, Mr. Thompson and Marion Foy, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Brenton are now living on Walnut avenue in this town. Miss Bessie Bradley, of Ohio avenue, took a prominent part in the play entitled The Merchant of Venice given by the Catonsville High School, where she attends, on Friday evening.

Canton.

Canton, March 1.—In honor of her thirteenth birthday anniversary, Miss Myrtle Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Miller, was tendered a reception on Tuesday evening at her home, 3317 Eastern avenue, Highlandtown. The evening was spent in playing games, and selections in vocal and instrumental music were rendered. The rooms of the home were tastefully decorated with ferns and cut flowers. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Miller, Mr. and Mrs. C. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jacoby, Mr. and Mrs. George Kramer, Mr. and Mrs. John Boehnlein, Mr. and Mrs. George Hudnet, Mrs. Louisa Bullock, Misses Ethel Bentrup, Myrtle Miller, Agnes Bullock, Elizabeth Bullock, Mary McClelland, Katherine McClelland, Sarah Meade, Helen Garrison, Anna Kramer, Mamie Kramer, Marie Miller, Minnie Miller, Sarah Weir, Viola Leonard and Loretta Leonard, and Messrs. John Leonard, John Ruppert, Charles Bullock, William Bullock, Charles Auld and Frederick Leonard. Miss Miller received many handsome presents. A birthday party was tendered Master Andrew Sanders on Sunday by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Sanders, at their home, 406 South Highland avenue. The little fellow was five years old. The home was tastefully decorated for the occasion. Miss Margaret Goetz, of Foster avenue, and Mr. William Hohenstein, of 404 South Highlandtown avenue, will go to Washington on Tuesday to witness the inauguration of President-elect Wilson. They will also visit Mrs. John Hohenstein, who resides at Roslyn, Va., a suburb of Washington. Mr. John Kegel, of 3726 Foster avenue, returned to his home on Monday, after an absence of six months. Mr. Kegel has been in New Orleans on a business trip. Mr. Edward Mahoney, aged 38 years, a well-known baseball player, is confined to his home suffering with typhoid fever. He is under the care of Drs. Horace B. Titlow and A. J. McAvoy. Mr. Mahoney played on the Cleveland team in 1906 as third baseman. Miss Elpie M. Petty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Petty, of 628 South East avenue, and Mr. Edward Seibert, of 627 South Fifth street, were united in matrimony on Wednesday afternoon at the parsonage of Zion German Evangelical Church, Canton. Rev. William Batz, pastor of the church, officiated. Miss Catherine Slocum was bridesmaid and Mr. Raymond Starkey acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Seibert will reside at 627 South Fifth street. A very pretty wedding was performed on Sunday afternoon at the home of the groom, when Miss Jennie Fowler became the bride of Mr. Henry Knobel, of 704 South Seventh street. Miss Fowler resides at 706 South Seventh street, and is the daughter of Mrs. John Fowler, of 3404 Fait avenue. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. William Batz, pastor of Zion German Evangelical Church, East avenue and Dillon street. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Seibert officially witnessed the ceremony. The young couple will reside at 3814 Fait avenue. The Young People's Society of the Franklin Street Epworth League will give an entertainment in the lecture-room of Highland M. E. Church on Friday evening of next week. Highland Church is located at the corner of Highland avenue and Pratt street. The entertainment is entitled Ye Deestrick Skule.

Overlea.

Overlea, Md., March 1.—A surprise party was given Miss Margarite Easter last Thursday by her brother and sister, John and Carrie Easter, in honor of her nineteenth birthday. The party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Easter, Belair road, near Poplar avenue. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Easter, Mr. and Mrs. George Charles Easter, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Reinig, Misses Grace Madden, Ada Madden, Ruth Easter, Florence Easter, Carrie Easter, Helen Easter and Margaret Easter, Messrs. Henry Schmidt, Frederick Kurrle, Frederick Koerner and John Easte, and Masters Johnson Easter, Henry Easter and Lawrence Easter. The Tom Thumb Wedding, which proved so popular last week at Overlea Methodist Episcopal Church, Overlea avenue, was repeated last Monday night by request. The children were coached by Mrs. J. G. Crawford. Mrs. Crawford was ably assisted by Mrs. Ada Balls, who is a survivor of the Titanic disaster, and Mrs. Andrew Weinkam. Most of the children taking part were members of Mrs. Weinkam's Sunday school class, known as the Upstreamers. Polk Miller and his minstrels will give an entertainment at the Maryland School for the Blind tomorrow. The performance is to be for the benefit of the school.

Hamilton.

In honor of the thirty-first anniversary of their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Campeggi, Glenmore avenue, were given a surprise party by their relatives and friends on last Sunday evening.

The house was beautifully decorated with flowers and potted plants, and a stringed orchestra rendered music during the evening. A buffet luncheon was served, after which the happy couple held an informal reception. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Emory Ehrhardt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Kenney, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. John Maddox, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Gibson, Misses Blanche Uzmed, Edna Lambert, Lillian Wheeler, Mollie Brinda, Ada Bennett, Amelia Campeggi, Elizabeth Campeggi, Irene F. Gibson, May Ehrhardt, Nellie Dunn, Messrs. Jerome Violi, Howard Schnelein, Mack Phillips, Biggs Miles, John Campeggi, Anthony Campeggi, Romeo Campeggi, Frank Campeggi, Jr., Louis Campeggi, William Campeggi, William W. Gibson. Miss Methodist Episcopal Church will witness on March 13 an interesting mock trial to be given by members of the Epworth League at that church. After the trial is held at Hiss Church it will be repeated by the same persons taking part at Armolia Methodist Episcopal Church at Baynesville. Rev. H. E. R. Reck, of Parkville, is pastor of both churches. Louis Cousins, 1617 Bolton avenue, and Emory Rupp, 1721 W. North avenue, Baltimore, have bought residences on George avenue, Hamilton, and with their families moved into their new homes last week.

Northern Suburbs.

H. H. Matthews, for more than 10 years quartermaster at the Maryland Line Confederate Soldiers' Home, Pikesville, will celebrate his sixty-ninth birthday March 24. Mr. Matthews is one of the oldest members of the Knights of Pythias Lodge and is well posted on the work of the order. He was a member of Stauart's famous horse artillery and served with distinguished honors with the Army of Northern Virginia during the Civil War. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Buttner, with Mr. and Mrs. William Buttner, will occupy their country residence at Mount Washington next week after spending the winter in the city. A valentine party was given last week by Richard Fisher at his home in Mount Washington Heights. Junior Order United American Mechanics of Pikesville will give a bus party to Mechanicsville, Carroll county, March 22, when a fraternal visit will be tendered Mechanicsville Council of the same order. Lester Wheeler, of Glyndon, is spending the winter in Florida. Miss Florence Pfeffer, of Glyndon, is spending some time in Baltimore. Mrs. A. J. Rich, of this city, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. William Wyatt, of Glyndon. Sidney Reese, of Washington, D. C., was a week-end guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reese, of Glyndon. John Stocksdale, of Baltimore, has returned after a visit at the home of his mother, Mrs. George Stocksdale, of Glyndon. The conferring of the degrees upon the several candidates of the Mount Carmel Grange was held last evening (Saturday). Dr. and Mrs. Hugh R. Spencer have been the guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. Mary B. Ellott, of Mount Carmel. Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Fletcher, of Reisterstown, are motoring through France and Italy as the guests of their old friend, Mr. Browning, of Tenafly, N. J.

Lauraville.

A pleasant evening was spent February 20, by the Laurel Social Club, of Lauraville, when the club celebrated the birthday of three members at the home of Capt. and Mrs. James D. Robb, Grindon avenue, Lauraville. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. William Gonce, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. T. MacDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Treadwell, Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Jones, William Lower, Capt. and Mrs. James D. Robb, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DeFontis, Mr. and Mrs. M. Englemeyer, Mr. and Mrs. George Rogan, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Knorr, Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. CLEANS THE HAIR AND MAKES IT BEAUTIFUL---25 CENT "DANDERINE"

In a few moments your hair looks soft, fluffy, lustrous and abundant—No falling hair or dandruff.

Surely try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil—In a few moments you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of Dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, soft lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.
