OFFICE OF THE CITY REGISTER.
BALTIMORE, February 14th, 1913.

The Commissioners for Opening Streets in the City of Baltimore having deposited with me in the manner required by law the final and corrected statement assessing the damages, expenses and benefits in the matter of CONDEMNING AND CLOSING PORTIONS OF OTHO WINDSOR HILL ROAD LYING BETWEEN THE WEST SIDE OF PAYSON STREET AND THE EAST SIDE OF BLOOMINGDALE ROAD, with the final and corrected explanatory map relating thereto, in accordance with the provisions of the Baltimore City Charter and Ordinance No. 558 of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, approved June 6, 1910.

Notice is hereby given that said statement and map have been so deposited in this office and are now filed and open to the inspection of any person or persons, corporation or corporations, who may be dissatisfied with the award of damages or benefits assessed as hereinbefore mentioned, may, within thirty (30) days from the 15TH DAY OF FEBRUARY, IN THE YEAR 1913, being the date of the first publication of this notice by me, appeal therefrom by petition in writing to the Baltimore City Court, praying the said court to review the same.

RICHARD GWINN,
Register of the City of Baltimore.
