IN MEMORIAM.

DURKEE.—In loving remembrance of our brother, WILLIAM DURKEE, who died one year ago (March 10, 1912) and our sister, AMANDA, who died March 13, 1911.

He has crossed the shining river
And has gained that radiant shore
Where no heart with grief can quiver
And all parting scenes are o'er.
She has met the dear departed
And has heard the welcome home
By the true and tender-hearted,
That before her hence have flown.
BY THEIR SISTERS, MOLLIE AND KATE.

FREEBURGER.—In loving but sad remembrance of our dearly beloved daughter, IDA V. FREEBURGER, who died March 8th, 1913.

Oh, how hard we tried to save her,
Prayers and tears were all in vain,
Happy angels came and took her
From this world of grief and pain.
How long she struggled against disease
That baffled skill and care;
How long she lingered, crushed with pain,
And suffering hard to bear.
What grief and pain she suffered here
None of us will ever know;
For Jesus took her home with Him,
Where no tears will ever flow.
BY HER FATHER, SISTER AND BROTHERS. 1

KOERBER.—In loving remembrance of Mrs. CAROLINE KOERBER, who departed this life six years ago—March 10, 1907.

Home is sad, home is dreary,
Lonesome, lonesome every spot;
Listening for her voice till weary,
Weary, for we hear it not.
Six years have passed, my heart is sore,
As time flies on we miss her more;
She sleeps—I leave her in peace to rest;
The parting was painful, but God knows best.
BY HER SON AND DAUGHTER. 1

MILLER.—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear daughter and sister, GEORGIA V. MILLER, who died March 10th, 1910.

Oh, how hard we tried to save her,
Prayers and tears were all in vain,
Happy angels came and took her
From this world of toil and pain.
BY HER MOTHER AND BROTHER. 1
