IN MEMORIAM.

BOOM.—In loving remembrance of my dearly beloved husband and our loving father, JAMES MATHEW BOOM, who died one month ago today—February 11, 1913.

Affliction sore
Long time he bore,
Physicians were in vain,
Till Christ, the Chief,
Came to his relief
And eased him of all pain.

May his memory be ever green
In the hearts of those that loved him.

BY HIS WIFE, MARGARET BOOM, AND CHILDREN.
Residence of the family 2109 North Smallwood street, city. 1

BROOKS.—In sad but loving remembrance of our darling daughter and niece, ELIZABETH BROOKS, who died two years ago today—March 11, 1911.

Gone, but not forgotten.

How I watch to see her coming,
How I wait to hear her call,
Calling me, oh, ma, where are you?
Now I hear her call no more.

Some may think I have forgotten you,
And my broken heart has healed;
Little do they know the sorrow
That is in my heart concealed.

BY HER LOVING MOTHER, ELLA BROOKS.

Dear Elizabeth, I miss you so,
All through the day, wherever I go;
I miss you all through the weary hours,
I miss you as birds do sunshine and flowers,
Daytime or nighttime, wherever I go,
My darling Elizabeth, I miss you so.

Dear little hands, I miss them so,
All through the day, wherever I go,
Only at night, how happy I seem,
For then you are with me in my dream.

BY HER LOVING AUNT, LIZZIE JARVIS. 1

CHAFFMAN.—In loving remembrance of my dear wife, FLORENCE MAY CHAFFMAN, who departed this life one year ago today—March 11, 1912.

How long she struggled against disease
That baffled skill and care;
How long she lingered, racked with pain,
And suffering hard to bear.

She is sleeping in the graveyard,
There beneath the silent clay,
And her husband's heart is longing
For the one he laid away.

BY HER HUSBAND, ALBERT M. CHAFFMAN, AND LITTLE SON, JOHN. 1

DUCKETT.—In sad but loving remembrance of my dear husband, JAMES J. DUCKETT, who departed this life one year ago today—March 11, 1912.

Sleep on, sleep on and rest
At the close of earth's weary day:
Oh, call it not death, but life,
This beautiful passing away.

BY HIS LOVING WIFE.

It has been one sad and dreary year
Since I lost my father dear;
God called him from us—He knows best;
Saying, Toiling is over, come and rest.

Oh, how I loved my father dear
No tongue on earth can tell;
But Jesus loved him better,
And called him home to dwell.

BY HIS LOVING DAUGHTER, LILLIE.

Could the sightless, sunken eyes,
Closed beneath the soft gray hair;
Could the mute and stiffened lips
Move again in pleading prayer,
Still, how still the words would be,
Let me hide myself in Thee.

BY HIS LOVING SON, ROBERT L., AND WIFE.

Father has crossed the shining river
And has gained that radiant shore,
Where no heaven will allow of can quiver
And all parting scenes are o'er.

BY HIS LOVING DAUGHTERS, STELLA AND EVE. 1

DUCKETT.—In sad but loving remembrance of JAMES J. DUCKETT, who died one year ago—March 11, 1912.

Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord.

A FRIEND, KATHERINE SMITH. 1

HODGES.—In loving remembrance of our dear grandma, MARY T. HODGES, wife of John T. Hodges, Sr., who passed away March 11th, 1908—five years ago today.

Grandma loved us so dearly
And we loved her with all our hearts,
And there never was a day so sad
As the day that grandma and we had to part.

We often sit and think of her
When we are all alone,
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own.

BY HER GRANDSON, WILLIAM A. V. HODGES. 1

LINS.—In sad and loving remembrance of our beloved and only son, HERMAN JOHN CHRISTIAN LINS, who departed this life four years ago, in his fifteenth year—March 11th, 1909.

While our lonely hearts are aching
For a smile, a word of greeting,
While our homeward steps we're taking,
Brings us nearer to that heavenly meeting.

Yes, through faith we see our darling's
Sweet beckoning hands; they hold our gaze,
Until each broken cord is mended,
And dear ones gone shall meet again.

Meet again, to part, no never;
Our son was sent to draw us hither
To the heavenly home, so fair,
And goes before to call us there.

Let us then be always steadfast
In our earnest Christian faith,
That our Hermie's guiding spirit
May lead us through the heavenly gate.

BY HIS DEVOTED PARENTS. 1

OSTENDORF.—In sad and loving remembrance of my wife, IDA ELIZABETH, who departed this life two years ago—March 11, 1911.

I often sit and think of you
When I am all alone,
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own.

BY HER HUSBAND AND SON. 1*
