IN MEMORIAM.

GASSAWAY.—In sad but loving remembrance of my mother, ANGELINE GASSAWAY, who departed this life March 15, 1910.

Three mournful years have passed,
Think I, while teardrops start;
The memory of my mother
Is fresh within my mind.
Death has robbed me of my mother,
Whom I loved and cherished dear;
It was mother, yes, dear mother,
Can I help but shed a tear?
Mother, I am sad and lonely
Since you have gone from me;
Seems that there is no pleasure
In this dreary world for me.
Since that day my life is saddened,
Since that day my hopes were slain,
But her voice seems sweetly saying
"Courage, we shall meet again."
Rest on, dear mother, thy work is o'er,
Thy willing hands will toil no more;
A faithful mother, both true and kind,
A truer mother you could not find.
You ask me why I'm cast down,
Why I whisper of her sweet name;
Only those that have lost a mother
Know the sorrow of my heart.
Can it be that she is dead?
Has that patient spirit fled?
Shall I never hear her voice no more,
Never see her as of old?
God help me this grief to bear,
Time to comfort, thine to share.

1 BY HER DEVOTED DAUGHTER, TILLIE.

STROH.—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear brother, GEORGE R. STROH, who departed this life fourteen years ago—March 15, 1899.

Fourteen years have passed, our hearts still bleed,
As time flies on we miss him more;
He sleeps, we leave him in peace to rest,
The parting was painful, but God knoweth best.
