Oh, how hard we tried to save him,
But our cares were all in vain;
Angels came and took him from us—
He is with the Saviour free from pain.
BY HIS LOVING WIFE AND CHILDREN.

Can it be that he is dead?
Has his patient spirit fled?
Shall I never hear his voice no more,
Never see him as of old?
God help me this grief to bear,
There to comfort thine to share.
BY HIS LOVING BROTHER.

IN MEMORIAM.

ANTONE.—In sad but loving remembrance of my beloved husband and father, GEORGE H. ANTONE, who departed this life two years ago—March 18, 1911.
Alone in the silent graveyard,
Beneath the sod and the dew;
Never for one moment forgotten,
In sorrow we think of you.
BY HIS WIFE.

'Twas the first time death came near us,
And the blow was hard to bear;
Only those who've lost a father
Can our lifelong sorrow share.
BY HIS CHILDREN.

Anniversary high mass Tuesday, March 18, at 6:30, St. James' Church, to which relatives and friends are invited. 1

COURTICE.—In loving remembrance of our dear son, FREDERICK WILLIAM COURTICE, who died 8th of March, 1905.
Gone, but not forgotten.
BY HIS MOTHER AND FATHER.

IN MEMORIAM.

CHILDRESS.—In loving remembrance of my dear father, CHARLES H. CHILDRESS, who departed this life three years ago—March 16th, 1910.
Why should we call it death,
This calm, sweet sleep of peace,
When the tired head in slumber rests
And all life's sorrows cease.
It is sweet to be remembered
For the good that we have done,
And the pleasant words he uttered
With each bright succeeding sun.
1 BY HIS CHILDREN, HELEN AND ADA.

CHILDRESS.—In sad but loving remembrance of my brother-in-law, CHARLES H. CHILDRESS, departed this life March 15, 1910.
One less at home. The charmed circle broken;
A dear face missed day by day from its usual place.
But cleansed, saved, perfected by grace;
One more in Heaven, one less on earth.

Its pain, its sorrow and its toil to share,
One less the pilgrim's daily cross to bear,
One more the crown of the blest to wear;
At home in Heaven.
BY HIS WIFE, CATHERINE.

Three years have passed, our hearts still sore;
As time flies on we miss him more;
He sleeps—we leave him in peace to rest;
The parting was painful, but God knoweth best.
BY HIS SISTERS.

ROLLMAN.—In memory of our beloved son and our dear brother, GEORGE H., who departed this life one year ago today—March 16th, 1912.
Although our son is absent from us
And one weary year has fled
Since we stood by his bed in sorrow
And knew our son was dead.

He left a memory fair and sweet,
Its fragrance can never die;
His life was brief, his work complete,
When he was called on high.

No more his cheerful smile we see,
No more his welcome voice
That always in our troubled hours
Would make our hearts rejoice.
BY HIS MOTHER AND FATHER.

Dear papa, thou art at rest,
And shall forever be;
You could not stay on earth with me,
But I can come to thee.
BY HIS LITTLE DAUGHTER, MILDRED.

You have gone from us, dear brother,
To your Saviour, good and true;
You have won the heavenly glory,
Which is for us to do.
BY HIS SISTER, EVA, AND HUSBAND.

Brother, dear, you were called away so sudden
Without time to say good-by;
But we know your thoughts were with us
When you were asked to die.
BY HIS SISTER, MAGGIE, AND HUSBAND.

'Tis hard to break the tender cord
When brotherly love has wound the heart;
'Tis hard, so hard, to speak the words,
"Must we forever part."

We cannot tell who next may fall
Beneath Thy chastening rod;
One must be first, but let us all
Prepare to meet our God.
1 BY HIS BROTHERS, JOHN AND CHRIS.

ROTH (nee Hasse).—In loving remembrance of my beloved mother and our beloved daughter, who departed this life five years ago—March 14th, 1908.
You are not forgotten, mother, dear,
Nor ever will you be;
For as long as life and memory last
I will remember thee.
BY HER SON.

There is grief that cannot find comfort,
There are wounds that cannot be healed,
There is sorrow too deep for the human heart
Which cannot hide be revealed.

Farewell, dear Mary, may you
Be as peaceful as your love,
And when God shall call us homeward,
May we meet in Heaven above.
1 BY THE FAMILY.

ROTHE.—In loving remembrance of our dear mother, MARGARET M., who departed this life fourteen years ago today—March 16, 1899.
Gone, but not forgotten.
1 BY HER HUSBAND AND CHILDREN.

SMITH.—In loving remembrance of our daughter, CATHERINE SMITH, who died one year ago today—March 16th, 1912.
The little crib is empty now,
The little clothes laid by,
A mother's hope, a father's joy,
In death's cold arm doth lie.

Go, little pilgrim, to thy home,
On yonder blissful shore;
We miss thee here, but still we'll come
Where thou hast gone before.

May the flowers grow around this grave
And the birds make music there;
For no one knows as we do
What it means for our Catherine to be there.
BY HER MOTHER AND FATHER.

I often sit and think of her
When I am alone;
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own.

Oft we wander to the graveyard,
Flowers we strew with tender care,
On the grave of our loved Catherine
Darkness finds her resting there.
1 BY HER GRANDMOTHER.

STAUFF.—In loving remembrance of our dear son, JOHN, who departed this life one year ago—13th March.
Oh, the sorrow of the morning,
As I stood with aching heart
Seeing one I loved so dearly,
Pierced by death's evil dart.

A tear within a mother's eye,
A mother's breaking heart,
Can only tell the story
Of how hard it is to part.
BY HIS PARENTS, E. C. AND MARY GONTRUM.

STEVENSON.—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear daughter, MARGARET M. STEVENSON, who departed this life one year ago—March 19, 1912.
Into sweet rest she has entered,
No more to wake or to weep;
She is smiling upon us from Heaven—
Our loved one has fallen asleep.

Sleep on, dear daughter, and take your rest;
God took you home—He thought it best;
In silence you suffered, in patience you bore;
The sweetest peace of God is yours evermore.

There's no toil in Paradise,
Far up beyond the deep blue sky;
Her toil is over, her crown is won;
God's holy will at ours, was done.

I often sit and think of you
When I am all alone;
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own.
BY HER PARENTS, MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM STEVENSON, AND SISTERS AND BROTHERS. 1

WILLIAMS.—In loving but sad remembrance of my dear son and brother, JOHN V. WILLIAMS, who departed this life ten years ago—March 17th, 1903.
I walk alone through this dreary world,
All alone, my heart and I;
But behind the veil is from land of light,
Where I'm going by and by.

I shall find my treasures one by one,
Lost links from love's broken chain,
And the tender touch of the pierced hands
Will clasp me over again.
1 BY HIS MOTHER AND SISTERS.

WOLF.—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear son and husband, CHARLES F. WOLF, who departed this life seven years ago—March 14, 1906.
There's a sacred grave that is dear to us,
Though over it no willow weeps;
For underneath this ivy mound
Our dear son sleeps.

He is gone, but, oh, so young and fair;
He sweetly sleeps and knows no care;
His heart was true, his life was young;
Yet not our will, but God's be done.
BY HIS PARENTS.

Just seven years ago March 14,
When all the world was bright,
My dear husband was called away,
Out of mortal sight.

I did not want to part with him,
But God knew what was best;
Some day I hope to meet again
In that sweet land of rest.
1 BY HIS WIFE AND SON.
