THE SANTA FE TRADE—By Frederic Remington

THE pioneer life that Frederic Remington painted is no more, but the thrill in it persists, and one of these great pictures stirs the blood and sets the nerves a-tingling. "The Buffalo Runners" and "The Santa Fe Trade" illustrate two phases of the conquest of the west as they were never shown before. The artist has passed on, but the pictures will be his message to Americans of today and of the future.
