M. E. MINISTERS READY FOR WORK

BALTIMORE CONFERENCE BEGINS SESSIONS NEXT WEEK

IN EUTAW STREET CHURCH

Bishop Cranston, of Washington, Will Preside—Lecture by Rev. W. R. Wedderspoon Will Be First Thing on Program for Tuesday Night, to Be Followed by Reception—Important Questions to Be Discussed and Acted Upon.

All plans have now been completed and everything is in readiness for the one hundred and twenty-ninth session of the Baltimore Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, which will convene in Eutaw Street Methodist Episcopal Church next Tuesday evening and continue for one week. The opening feature on Tuesday night will be a lecture by Dr. W. R. Wedderspoon, of Foundry Methodist Episcopal Church, Washington, D. C., and as this eminent divine is considered one of the ablest orators of the day and pastor of one of the most important churches in the Conference, the lecture will be a fitting preface to the Conference sessions. The subject of the lecture will be Beside the Bonnie Briar Bush.

Immediately after the lecture Rev. Dr. E. L. Hubbard, pastor of the church, will invite the entire Conference and audience into the church parlors, where an informal reception will be held and refreshments served. Wednesday afternoon there will be an evangelistic meeting, conducted by C. K. Jenness, author of The Pilot Flame. On Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock the Epworth League of the Conference will hold an anniversary meeting, which will be presided over by Rev. Dr. W. F. Sheridan, a former pastor of Mount Vernon Place Church.

Bishop Earl Cranston, who will preside over the Conference sessions, is expected to come from his home, in Washington, on Monday afternoon and during the week will be the guest of Dr. G. Lane Taneyhill, of 1103 Madison street, a son of Dr. Taneyhill having married a daughter of Bishop Cranston.

Col. Hook at Seashore.

Col. Jacob W. Hook, city collector, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Edna Hook Green, left Baltimore yesterday afternoon for Atlantic City, where he will remain until next Monday. The Colonel said yesterday that he had not missed an Easter parade for many years and will officially represent the city and the Old Town Merchants' Association on the Boardwalk.

Another City Hall official who has made it a custom to visit the seashore every Easter is W. Harry Lalb, secretary to the Health Department. He left for Atlantic City last night.

GRATEFUL PRAISE BY LOVING MOTHER

Tells How Father John's Medicine Brought Health to Her Little Boy.

"I am grateful for Father John's Medicine," says Mrs. Margarette Murphy, of Chicago, in a recent letter. "My little boy was two years old when he was first taken sick and I took him to many doctors, but not one did him any good. He is past five years old now.

He is all better now, thanks to Father John's Medicine. He had pneumonia twice and whooping cough. Soon after he began to take Father John's Medicine I knew he was mending. I am very thankful for Father John's Medicine. We all take it now. It is a blessing in my home. I will never be without it." (Signed) MRS. MARGARETTE MURPHY, 3010 Quinn St., Chicago, Ill.

Careful mothers have no fear in using Father John's Medicine, because it is safe for the little ones as well as the older members of the family, and because it is free from alcohol or dangerous drugs in any form. It cures colds by building up the body and giving new strength to ward off the disease. Get a bottle today.
