MINES BLOW UP TWO REGIMENTS

An Enormous Sacrifice of Life at Adrianople.

GEN. IVANOFF ENTERS CITY

A FEAR THAT ATROCITIES MAY BE COMMITTED.

The Allies Criticised for Storming the Besieged City When Such a Move Was Not Necessary to End the War—Rejoicing in All Slav Capitals Over the Fall of the Ancient City—An Enthusiastic Scene in the Russian Duma—The War to Soon End.

London, March 27.—In diplomatic circles it is believed that the fall of Adrianople will result in the speedy termination of the war between the Balkan allies and Turkey.

The town of Tchatalja has also been taken by the allies.

Shunkri Pasha, the defender of Adrianople, handed his sword yesterday afternoon to General Savoff, the Bulgarian generalissimo; not, however, before carrying out his threat to destroy the town rather than let it fall into the hands of the Bulgarians.

The arsenals, stores and much of the town was burned. It was reported that Shukri Pasha had taken his own life, but this proved untrue, as after deciding resistance was no longer possible, he sent word to General Savoff that he was burning the city.

General Savoff has appointed a commandant of the city to maintain order. The Bulgarian and Servian cavalry will be utilized for this purpose.

GEN. IVANOFF ENTERS.

General Ivanoff, who commanded the forces around Adrianople, entered the city today, while King Ferdinand will follow shortly.

The battle which preceded the surrender began Sunday night with a three-hour bombardment. Later the besieging troops in the east advanced at double under the glare of searchlight to attack the advanced works at Maslak. After a fierce defense, lasting throughout Monday, the Turks retired from the forward forts.

After moving forward to the chief fortress the Bulgarians rested. It was then observed that although great progress had been made in the east, in the other sections enormous losses had resulted to the Bulgarians, with small gain.

Nevertheless the attack was renewed, and Tuesday and Wednesday the important inner forts were taken after hard fighting.

Accounts of the battle, which come from Bulgarian sources, make no mention of the Servians, of whom there seems to have been a good deal of jealousy.

The Servians, on the other hand, who have only issued a brief report of the capture, divide credit with their allies.

THE LOSSES HEAVY.

According to a dispatch received at Belgrade, from Mustapha Pasha, the sacrifices were very heavy. The Servian Thirteenth and Bulgarian Eighteenth Regiments were blown up by mines and other regiments sustained great losses. The reserve hospitals have prepared to receive thousands of wounded.

In Adrianople itself there is also much work for doctors and nurses.

The garrison, which was estimated at from 40,000 to 60,000, probably will be found to have been considerably reduced.

Europe, from the history of previous wars, fears the occupation may be accompanied by indiscriminate slaughter.

THE ALLIES CRITICISED.

Diplomats continue to criticise the action of the allies in carrying the siege to the end, when it was known that the capture of Adrianople was not necessary to end the war or secure anything not already theirs.

The capture of Adrianople has caused rejoicing at all the Slav capitals. At St. Petersburg the news was received while the Duma was in session, with Dr. Daneff, head of the Bulgarian peace delegation in London, and the Bulgarian minister, M. Bobtcheff, as guests. The deputies rose and cheered. Dr. Daneff and his companion were carried shoulder high to Cathrine Hall, where the Russian and Bulgarian anthems were sung.

King Nicholas, of Montenegro, has decided to wait until Saturday to allow non-combatants to leave Scutari. Essad Pasha, the Turkish commander, declares they must remain in the town.

DEAD KING IN ATHENS

A Service at the Cathedral and the Body Lying in State.

Athens, March 27.—Escorted by foreign warships, the royal yacht Amphitrite, bearing the body of King George arrived at Piraeus shortly before noon today. The coffin was carried ashore by the princes and placed on a gun carriage, which was drawn by 44 sailors to the railway station. Dense crowds, displaying emblems of mourning, lined the route.

An escort of troops accompanied the gun carriage, which was followed by cabinet members and court officials. The body was taken, by special train, to Athens and was transferred to the Cathedral, where the foreign diplomats assembled.

Prayers for the dead were recited and a brief service was conducted. Dowager Queen Olga was overwhelmed with grief.

The body of the murdered king will lie in state beginning tomorrow and the funeral will take place April 2.

King Alfonso Hurt at Golf.

Madrid, March 27.—King Alfonso, of Spain, was seriously hurt while playing golf today, according to the local newspapers. The nature of the king's injuries has not been made public.

The Pope's Condition.

Rome, March 27.—A rumor that the Pope had had a relapse was in circulation here today, but the authorities denied the report, adding that his progress toward recovery continues.

IN WASHINGTON SOCIETY

President's Wife Gives Reception to Newspaper Women.

Bureau of The Baltimore American, 1410 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, March 27.

A large and brilliant reception was given in honor of the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall this afternoon by Mrs. Burton Harrison. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. James Pinchot, Mrs. John B. Henderson, Mrs. Gouverneur Morris, Mrs. Stephen Bonsal, Mrs. Horrigan and Mrs. Francis Burton Harrison.

Among the number of guests who gathered at the handsome home of Mrs. Harrison were the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels, Justice and Mrs. Lamar, the Speaker of the House and Mrs. Champ Clark, the Postmaster General and Mrs. Burleson, Senator and Mrs. Hoke Smith, Mrs. Julian James, Mrs. Arthur Lee, Mrs. Thomas F. Bayard, Mrs. Henry F. Dimock, Mr. and Mrs. MacVeagh, former Ambassador to France and Mrs. White, Colonel and Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Marshall Field and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Francis Adams.

Mrs. Wilson was hostess this afternoon at one of her little afternoon teas, at which the guests were the social representatives of the various newspapers represented in Washington. Mrs. Wilson welcomed the newspaper women in the Red Room, being assisted by her daughters, Miss Wilson and Miss Eleanor Wilson, and her social secretary, Miss Belle Hagner, poured tea.

Mrs. Garrison, wife of the new Secretary of War, was entertained at a tea this afternoon given in her honor by Mrs. Robert Shaw Oliver, wife of the Assistant Secretary of War, and her daughter, Miss Marion Oliver. Assisting the hostess and her daughter were Mrs. Leonard Wood, wife of the chief of staff of the Army; Mrs. Aleshire and Mrs. Wotherspoon, of the army circle. The guests were recruited from official and residential coteries, with a strong leaning toward the army and navy sets.

The Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Lane were dinner guests of the Swiss Minister and Madame Ritter, who invited to meet them Signor Catalini, counselor of the Italian Embassy; the Second Secretary of the French Embassy and Mme. de la Boulaye; Dr. and Mrs. Fremont Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George Howland Chase, Mrs. Richard Reid Rogers, the Swiss Consul General at New York and Mme. Gounod, Miss Sophie Johnston, and M. Baumann, of the Swiss Legation.

Father Kept Busy.

The daughters of the President may learn to steer a motor car if they will; steering the ship of state keeps father sufficiently busy.—Chicago Record-Herald.

HOW TO SUCCEED

During the last few years, conditions in all lines of business, even professional life, have changed so completely that every man is waking up to the fact that in order to win success he must specialize and learn to do some one thing and do it well.

So it is with every article that is sold to the people. It must have genuine merit or no amount of advertising will maintain the demand for the article.

For many years we have watched with much interest the remarkable record maintained by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy. From the very beginning the proprietors had so much confidence in it that they invited aevery onne to test it, free of cost before purchasing.

It is a physician's prescription.

They have on file thousands of letters received from former sufferers who are now enjoying good health as a result of its use.

However, if you wish first to try a sample bottle, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and mention this paper. They will gladly forward you a sample bottle by mail, absolutely free.

Regular sizes for sale at all druggists—fifty-cents and one-dollar.
