CAMBRIDGE:

MONDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1836.

FOR PRESIDENT,

MARTIN VAN BUREN,

OF NEW-YORK.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

RICH'D. M. JOHNSON,

OF KENTUCKY.

ELECTORS.

WILLIAM A. SPENCER.
HUGH ELY.
JAMES A. STEWART.
EDWARD LLOYD.
J. T. H WORTHINGTON.
WM. FRICK.
ALLEN THOMAS.
JOSEPH HOLLMAN.
WASHINGTON DUVALL.
JOHN B. BROOKE.

The Presidential Election in this State, takes place on the 1st Monday in November, according to an act passed by the Legislature of Maryland, on the 15th March 1834.

THE PEOPLE'S PRESS.

We have received the first number of a new paper, started in Somerset, with the republican flag of Van Buren and Johnson at the head. Mr. Zieber, a genuine son of Republicanism, and a worthy and clever fellow, is the Editor and proprietor. We hail this new establishment, as an able and efficient auxiliary, in the propagation of correct principles in that quarter. The first number comes to us, in a handsome dress, and is couched in a spirited and energetic style, which, we have no doubt, from the character of the editor, will be continued with the same vigor. We wish our friend Mr. Zieber, abundant sucess, in his laudable undertaking.

THE FORK DISTRICT.

Too much credit cannot be given to the staunch Democrats in the Fork District, who have in the recent election, given their adversaries a real Waterloo defeat. They have routed the followers of General Harrison, horse, foot and dragoons, rowed them up Salt River, almost out out of hearing. Great efforts, no doubt, will be made to overthrow them in the next election, and turn the current the other way, but we trust, the noble fellows, who have achieved the present victory, will keep wide awake for their opponents, so as in the next election to use them up entirely.

The address of the 19 Van Buren electors, is such an important state paper, that we have concluded to give it a second insertion. Their proposals to the 21 Harrisonites are now published with the address. Every man should carefully read this important document, with the accompanying correspondence.

Some inaccuracy having occurred, in hastily publishing the returns of the election in this county, we insert the following corrected statement.

ELECTION RETURNS FOR 1836.

☞ Those names marked thus [*] are the Harrison Candidates.

GENERAL HARRISON.—Will the editor of the Chronicle, be so good as to inform his patrons, what are the political views of General Harrison, and what will be the measures and policy he will adopt, in case of his election? Will he go for a revival of the Alien and Sedition Laws? a resuscitation of the dark days of blue light and black cockade federalism? Will he not go for a Bank of the U. States? Will he not go for a Tariff for protection? Will he not go for the system of Internal Improvement? Will he not go for an appropriation of the surplus in the National Treasury, for the purpose of buying up the slaves in the south and leaving the free negroes to remain, and commit their depredations upon the public? Will he not go for breaking up the Masonic and Odd Fellow's societies, and all other secret associations?—In a word, will he not suuport all the ultra measures of national policy, contended for by the ultra Federalists of the north? Missions to a congress of nations? Light houses in the skies? Splendid rail roads and canals, at the expense of the general government. Heaven forefend us, from the heresies and imbecilities of such a weak and incompetent candidate for the illustrious office of President of the U. States.

The Editor of the Chronicle is out in his last paper with a long, windy, and far-fetched triade against Mr. Van Buren, in regard to the missions of Panama & Turkey. In the one case Mr. Adams was for sending a minister or ministers to Panama to meet a congress of Nations, which might have connected us, in tangling aliances, with foreign Nations and would, if it had assembled, probably involved us in war. Whereas in relation to the embassy to Turkey. no such consequence could be anticipated, because it was merely for the purpose of negotiating a treaty of commerce. Opening the seas in that quarter to our enterprising Seamen. But Mr. Adams went upon the big figure, for a Congress of Nations—Light Houses in the skies &c. Does the Editor of the Chronicle approve of such visionary schemes?

Why did the framers of the Constitution, when they constructed the 15th Article, leave out the word "shall" before the word "meet," and at the same time, require at least 24 electors, to constitute a quorum? Did they not contemplate the existence of a majority party and a respectacle minority party, in the state? And was it not left discretionary, with the electors to attend or not as they conceived the permanent interests of the State required? And if the majority party was not strong enough to command 24 electors that there should be a compromise, by which the rights of the minority, would be protected? A minority amounting to 17 electors, can thus check an overbearing and haughty majority and bring them to terms. If this is not the true construction of the Constitution, it is strange the word "shall" is left out. We might supply the word "may," with as much propriety, as our opponents insert the word "shall." Why did they require the presence of 24, if 21 as contended for, are able to elect, upon their principle of interpretation. The fact seems indisputable, that 24 was not put in by accident, nor was the word "shall" left out by accident, but the whole spirit of the phraseology of the 15th article, seems designed to meet such a case as the present, when their is a conflict between a respectable electoral minority and an uncompromising majority. Such is now the operation of the Machine of the government, superinduced by time, that a minority of the people of the state, have secured a simple, not constitutional majority, in the electoral college, and the minority of electors in the college, have the power to defeat the wishes of this majority. Under such circumstances ought not something to be conceded, to the electoral minority? Ought not the Senate to be mixed up? The minority, have the right, upon general and Constitutional grounds, we maintain to demand this, and upon refusal, to decline serving as electors, which they have done. Nous verrons.

Is not Gen. Harrison's present mode of electioneering by traversing the country, a most disgraceful one? Is it not unbecoming in a man who aspires to the Presidency, to resort to such an unusual method of personally soliciting the suffrages of a free, unbought and unbuyable people. It must be about the last of pea time with him, when it becomes necessary for him to traverse Virginia, pass through Maryland, Pennsylvania, &c. with a view of making proselytes. In Philadelphia it is said, he was dragged through the streets, in a carriage drawn by human beings. The horses (cream colored as they were,) unharnessed from the car, and men hitched on to drag the imperial Bank candidate, military chieftain, and anti-masonic hero, General Harrison. Oh Tempora! oh Mores! Talk about wearing the collar! Is this not wearing and pulling in the collar with a vengeance. Were the men who thus pulled General Harrison, indomitable whigs, or were they mere surfs of the Bank? And what must be thought of Harrison, an imbecile old man in the language of Gov. Lucas of Ohio, when he suffers such a disreputable proceeding to take place. Intelligent and independent men, must be disgusted with such an outrage upon all the decencies of republicanism.

The 15th Section of the Constitution, is in the following words. "That the said electors of the Senate meet at the City of Annapolis or such other place, as shall be appointed for convening the Legislature, on the third Monday in September 1781, and on the same day in every fifth year forever thereafter; and they or any twenty four of them, so met shall proceed to elect by ballot, either out of their own body, or the people at large, fifteen Senators (nine of whom to be residents on the Western, and six on the Eastern Shore,) men of the most wisdom, experience and virtue, above twenty-five years of age, residents of the State above three whole years, next preceding the election." What will be thought then of a party, who for the purpose of deceiving the people, in their publications engraft upon the above article, a word, which is not in it? Such has been the case with the Harrison party. Before the word "meet," they seruptitiously insert the word "shall," which is not in the Constitution. This is done for the purpose of making it appear, that the Constitution uses imperative language, positively requiring and saying that the electors of Senate "shall" meet. When the word "may" might with the same propriety, be interpolated, shewing that it is discretionary with the electors to go or not, according to circumstances. This false word "shall" too, they have put in italics, by way of emphasising it, which clearly demonstrates, that they were aware of the erroneous addition. In the Cambridge Chronicle, before the last, an article appeared, signed "Jefferson," making this unauthorized insertion of the word "shall" in attempting to quote the above article in the Constitution. The Cambridge Chronicle, in the true spirit of a jesuistical pharisee, allows this false and garbled extract to appear in its columns, yet attempts to comment, with a good deal of severity, upon an accidental omission in our paper, in publishing the extract from the proceedings of the Ohio Legislature in 1820, in regard to Gen. Harrison's vote, in favor of White Slavery. Recollect the inaccuracy on our part occurred, in attempting to give a transcript from the record of another state, in the West, but the Chronicle, its disciples and Satellites, publish a false extract, from the Constitution of our own state, where the means of correct information were convenient, and under such circumstances, as to render the garbled interpolation, a wilful and deliberate proceeding to delude the people. It is an old saying that men who live in glass houses should not throw stones. The Chronicle should pay attention to this wise maxim, and should be careful to take the beam out of its own eye, before it attempts to work upon its neighbors. Any man who knows the Editor of the Aurora, will believe that the Editor of the Chronicle, would as soon publish a wilful and deliberate misstatement, as the Editor of the Aurora; we think we can hazard this assertion, without vanity or self-esteem. Let him keep his own columns pure and without reproach, before he attempts to charge us, (rather uncivilly too, we think,) with palpable misrepresentation. Upon the whole, we merely look upon the attempt, to make a false issue, with us, upon an incidental point, as a disingeneous effort, to parry the charge against Harrison in regard to his White Slavery vote. The Editor of the Chronicle shall not start us upon a false trail. We charge Gen. Harrison with making the vote, to sell white men, for fines & costs—the costs being the officer's fees. If the 37th section of a previous law alluded to, exonerates the General, let his friends shew that it does. We give his vote, let his advocates relieve him, if they can, by reference to any other Legislative proceeding. A splendid candidate, to be voted for by republicans, when he has deliberately supported a bill, to make sale of white men, for officer's fees. Gen. Harrison tries to explain it, but like the poisoned shirt of Nessus, it will stick to him, as death to a dead negro. Does the Editor of the Chronicle approve of the vote?

Gen. Harrison says that the plan of selling white men out of jail was the "most mild and and humane mode of dealing with offenders.', Good Lord deliver us from his humanity, if that is a specimen of it;—what a President he would make. For instance here is something like the advertisement which the Sheriff would paste up on the sign posts of the county town.

PUBLIC SALE OF A WHITE MAN.

Notice is hereby given, that on Monday, October 1st, at 10 o'clock, A. M.. I will proceed to sell A. B. a white man, to satisfy costs and fines amounting to $20, for an assault and battery committed on the body of C. D

W. H. H., Sheriff.

In Maryland we do things differently. When a poor man can't pay his fine and cost, he is released by the Governor, and not sold as a vassal or slave. Elect the Whig ticket and we may be saddled with such a law; be warned fellow countrymen and freemen.—Hagerstown Cour. & Enq.

HONESTY.—The Monumenta Square Anti-Reform address follows the 21 in regard to the 15th section of the constitution. It asserts that the constitution "expressly says that the Electors shall meet, &c. The constitution expressly says no such thing. These exquisite constitutional lawyers should exercise a little more "scrupulous fidelity" in their quotations. It is a poor trick, this kind of verbal misrepresentation.—Balt. Rep.

A HARD CASE.—Lablache, a foreign musician, now travelling in England, is so stout that he is always obliged to pay for two seats in a coach. Lately sending a person to engage two places inside for him, he found that they had taken one on each side, and as the passengers would not accommodate him, he was left behind, because he could not sit on a back and front seat at the same time!—This unfortunate man's voice is said to be so loud that it can be heard above an accompaniment of 100 instruments.—N. Y. Sun.
