VAN BUREN'S ELECTORAL MAJORITIES.

Over Harrison,	94
Over White,	141
Over Webster	153
Over the whole strength of the threo federal candidates, taken together,	54

*South Carolina votes for none of the above candidates.

From the above statement, it seems Mr. Van Buren has received 167 of the electoral votes, being 21 more than is necessary to elect him. The vote of Michigan was also given to him, which if received, will make his electoral strength 170. Fourteen states out of the 25 have voted for him, which is one more than a majority of the states. Harrison has got but 73 electoral votes, comprising but seven states. Van Buren has beaten him, therefore, two to for one, and leaving 21 to spare.

The Hero of Tippecanoe has just obtained half enough to elect him. it requiring 146—White has got but two states, or 26 electoral votes. Van Buren beats him more than six for one. Webster has but one state, giving him 14 electoral votes—Van Buren beats him more than 11 for one. The whole batch of them, Harrison, White and Webster, received but 113 votes—Van Buren, therefore, beats the entire kit of them, adding the votes of the three redoubtable Whig candidates together, 54 votes. They are thus, beaten singly and beaten altogether; notwithstanding Webster was kept in the field, with the sole view of preventing Mr. Van Buren from obtaining the vote of Massachusetts—White, to strike in with Southern prejudices, coming from a slave holding State, and thus, by attempting to array the South against the North, induce that section of the Union to go against Mr. Van Buren because he is a Northern man. Harrison was brought out to catch gudgeons in the shape of hurra boys, the league hoping that the glare of his military exploits, maugre his total unfitness for the station, would attract that class of voters to his support.—But they are all gloriously defeated, jointly and severally. The people have been true to themselves and the great republican party, has elected their candidate by a most decisive majority. Mr. Van Buren coming into power, under such circumstances, sustained by the vote of the North, by the vote of the South and south west, having a majority of the states, embracing a majority of the old thirteen, and a commanding popular majority, might reasonably expect a candid and impartial trial of the merits of his administration; leaving the prejudices, the animosities and ill-feelings, engendered by the recent campaign, to be utterley forgotten, as passions improper to be retained by patriotic republicans, anxious to judge their public servants by their acts. Will the opposition?—Will the coalition of discordant materials come up, in this spirit, to the examination of Mr. Van Buren's policy, when he shall have been inducted into official station?—Or will they from the abyss in which they have been precipitated, start forth, and like vampyres issuing from their sepulchres, hover around Mr. Van. Buren's administration, as the furies pursued the footsteps of Orestes? We trust they may adopt the first course. Nous verrons.

QUERE.—Was not Governor Veazy's proclamation written by a lawyer and seen in his possession, in Baltimore four weeks before it was issued? And quere did not the same lawyer write his message.—

DR. WILLIAMS, the celebrated Oculist has been held to bail at Washington in the sum of $700, on the following charges preferred by the medical faculty of that city—viz:—practising medicine without a certificate, and obtaining money under the false pretences.

Extensive puffing.—It is computed, from the best data, that there were smoked in the United States, in 1835, seventy-six millions seven hundred and sixty-one thousand cigars. If all these tobacco tubes, aided by the hundred millions of pipes now in use, had been in operation at one time, the whole United States would have been converted into one vast smoke house, and the inhabitants, by the delightful process of fugimation, have been as completely bronzed as so many pieces of smoked beef.

A CURE FOR THE GOUT.—"Well done, father," said Sam, "take care, old fellow, or you'll have a touch of your old complaint, the gout." "I've found a sovrin cure for that, Sammy," replied Mr. Weller, setting down the glass. "A sovereign cure for the gout," said Mr. Pickwick, hastily producing his notebook, "what is it?" "The gout, sir," replied Mr. Weller, "the gout is a complaint as arises from too much ease and comfort. If ever you're attacked with the gout, sir, jist you marry a widow as has got a good loud voice, with a decent notion of usin' it, and you'll never have the gout again. It's a capital prescription, sir. I take it reg'lar, and I can warrant it to drive away any illness as is caused by too much jollity." Having imparted this valuable secret, Mr. Weller drained his glass once more, produced a labored wink, sighed deeply, and slowly retired. "Well, what do you think of what your father says, Sam?" inquired Mr. Pickwick with a smile. "Think, Sir," replied Mr. Weller, "why, I think he is the wictim o' connubiality, as Blue Beard's domestic chaplain said, with a tear of pity, ven he buried him."—Pickwick Papers.

To take off, instantly a copy from a print or Picture—Make a water of soap and alum, with which wet a cloth or paper; lay it either on a print or picture, and pass it once under a rolling press, then going round the other side to take it up, you will have a very fine copy of whatever you shall have laid it upon.

To change hair to a deep Brown.—A solution of the silver caustic in water is the foundation of all the nostrums for this purpose. It must be well diluted before used.

A Paradox—"Waiter," said a young fellow going into a coffee house one rainy day, have you have got a good fire, for I am confoundly WET, and let me have something to drink directly, for I am confoundly DRY also.

SANTA ANNA RELEASED.—A Philadelphia paper says that a letter was received in that city on Wednesday, stating that Santa Anna had been liberated on the condition of paying $800,000 out of his private fortune to the Government of Texas, conducting the Mexican trooops out of the New Republic, and acknowledging her independence. The letter further remarks, that Santa Anna had placed bonds in the hands of General Houston, to the above amount.

A lady of acknowledged prudence once remarked that she could remember many instances of regret at her speaking, but none of her holding her tongue.

MARYLAND:

Dorchester County Orphans' Court,
6th day of December, 1836.

On Application of JOHN B. ROBINSON Adm'r. of Lake Robinson, late of Dorchester County, deceased—it is ordered, that he give the notice required by law for all creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased's estate, and that he cause the same to be published once in each week, for the space of three successive weeks, in the Dorchester Aurora, a paper selected by him.

In testimony That the foregoing is truly copied from the minutes of the proceedings of Dorchester County Orphans' Court, I have hereunto set my name, and the seal of my office affixed, this 6th day of December, in the year of our Lord, 1836.

L.S.

CURE FOR BOWEL COMPLAINTS.

DR. D. JAYNES' Carminative Balsam. A safe and effectual remedy for most diseases of the Stomach and Bowels, such as Diarrhœa or Looseness, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus, Cramp, Colic, Vomiting, Sick or Nervous Headache, Sickness at the Stomach, &c. and that frequent and fatal malady among children termed Cholera Infantum or Summer Complaint. It is very pleasant to the taste, and will readily be taken by children Its success has been unrivalled, and it is now used in the practice of a great number of physicians, many of whom have forwarded certificates detailing cures of great importance.—Hundreds of certificates have been received from physicians, clergymen, and families of the first respectability, who have used it, and have testified to its great utility, may be seen by calling on any of the agents for the sale of this medicine. The following from Dr. M. L. Knapp, late physician to the Baltimore Dispensary, and agent of the Maryland Vaccine Institution, is deemed sufficient:

Baltimore, March 27th, 1836.

Dr. Jayne: Dear Sir—You ask me what proofs I meet with of the efficacy of your medicine. I can safely say that I never prescribed a medicine for bowel complaints that has given me so much satisfaction, and my patients so speedy and perfect relief as this. Whenever introduced into a family, it becomes a standing remedy for those ailments, and is called for again and again, which I think a pretty good proof of its usefulness and efficacy. In the Summer Complaint of children, it has frequently appeared to snatch the little victims, as it were, from the grave. "It saved the life of my child, and of such and such a child," I have repeatedly heard said. In dysenteric affections of adults, I have time and again seen it act like a charm, and give permanent relief in a few hours, I may say in a few minutes. In fine it is valuable medicine and no family should be without it.

Respectfully, M. L. KNAPP, M. D.

It is hoped that all will perceive the true value of this medicine, and by resorting to an early use of it prevent many attacks of dangerous illness, and preserve many valuable lives. For sale by Dr. D. Jayne, Salem, N Jersey.; at wholesale and retail, by A. B. & D. Sands, druggists, 100 Fulton, corner William St. New York, only wholesale agent for the State; and by Mess. R. TO THE PUBLIC.

THE subscriber has been informed that there is a report in circulation stating that he has disposed of his possessions on the Choptank, and ceased to keep the Cambridge Ferry. This report was undoubtedly gotten up by some malicious individual with a view of injuring the subscriber, and, if suffered to remain uncontroverted, the aim of its originator would certainly be attained. The subscriber, therefore, takes this method of informing his friends and the public, that there is not the slighest foundation in truth for the above mentioned report; but that, on the contrary, he still keeps the Cambridge Ferry, and expects so to do the remainder of his days. His Boats are substantial, safe and in good order, and are under the management of as prompt, active, trusty and experienced hands as those belonging to any boat that has hitherto been, or may hereafter be, stationed on the above named ferry; while he keeps, as usual, good Horses and Carriages for the accommodation of travellers. He has signals on both sides of the river, which his boat will always answer with the utmost despatch, so that no one shall be kept waiting longer than shall be absolutely necessary.

The subscriber returns his thanks to his friends and the public for the very liberal patronage which he has heretofore received from them; and, as his long experience in the business, and his determinatian to use his best efforts to please, induce him to hope that he will give general satisfaction, he respectfully solicits a continuance of their favor.
