CAMBRIDGE:

MONDAY, JUNE 12, 1837

CONGRESSIONAL ELECTION.—We understand the Executive of this State, which met in Annapolis, on Tuesday last, fixed upon the 26th day of July next, as the time for holding the election for members of Congress from this state. As the special session of Congress called by the President, will not take place until the 1st Monday in September, we do not perceive the necessity of such haste, on the part of the Governor and Council of Maryland, in appointing the period of election, to meet such an event. We think the proper course would have been to have deferred the time, to as late a day as possible, merely giving the members chosen a sufficient opportunity to get from their homes to the seat of Government at Washington. The necessary returns of the polls might readily have been made out, and the candidates for Congress and the voters would have had a more ample occasion, to have tested the questions, interests and merits, involved in the ensuing election. But as the ruling authorities in the state, have named their day, the candidates and voters, must prepare for it, as well as they may. They have but a short time to reflect upon the subject. The Campaign will be brief and hurried. Our opponents have now four candidates in the field, pawing the ground and champing the bit like war horses ready for battle. They have but a very short time to call a convention of their leading spirits, to decide between these candidates, by the nomination of any one of them. Unless this is done, in all probability we shall have a scrub race, in which, although the fastest horse may not win, yet from the number and character of the contending Steeds, much amusement may be anticipated, by the orthodox Van Buren men, who if they offer no candidate representing their views, may look on the scramblings of their adversaries, with perfect composure. There is an abiding consolation to us mixed up in the approaching election, that let it terminate as it may, we have no won laurels to lose, but every thing to gain, by the feuds and rivalries of our opponents, who are not at all anxious for the spoils of victory.

CANDIDATES FOR CONGRESS.—In addition to Ex-Governor Carroll, and Messrs. Dennis and Donoho of Somerset, who have for some time past been before the people as candidates for Congress in this District, we see that THOMAS I. H. ECCLESTON Esq of this county, is also announced as a candidate. We have also heard that there was a candidate from Worcester, but as we have seen no regular annunciation of the fact, we have treated it as a mere rumor, without attaching much importance to the report. These candidates will be kept pretty well employed between this and the day of election, as they have three counties with considerable territorial extent to peregrinate. Besides the many wry as well as smiling faces they will encounter, the season of the year will amply supply them with wholesome hot weather, and in some places they will be numerously escorted by noisy swarms of musquitoes, and troublesome horse-flies. We hope, however, the health and strength of all may enable them to go through the fatigues as well as the pleasures of the campaign, without suffering much personal inconvenience, and that they may have occasion to look back hereafter upon the circumstance of their being candidates, as quite a fruitful and amusing incident in the history of their lives. Spurs to your nags and go it with head and tail up, and the d—l take the hindmost.

The Queen of England.—The Queen that is to be we mean, if she lives long enough, and no revolution shall deprive her of the sceptre which of right is hers. Princess Victoria, of whom we are writing, is at present in her 18th year; she is in the bud of womanhood, and as beautiful to the eye as the full blown rose; and the beauty of her person, we are told, is only excelled by the brilliancy of her mind, which she is ambitious still further to improve. The King, her uncle, is so far advanced in years that it is more than probable the Princess will soon become the Queen of England, and wield the destinies of the triple thrones of England, Scotland, and Ireland. Be it so—for if all is true that is said, she has, as Napoleon said of one dear to him, "the head of a man upon the shoulders of a woman." The mother of the Princess is the Duchess of Kent, and sister of Leopold King of Belgium. Princess Victoria upon the throne of England, Donna Maria upon the throne of Portugal, and Isabella of Naples, would form a new and brilliant era in the Courts of Europe, reminding us of the by-gone days when the Catharines and Elizabeths, and the daughters of Napoleon ruled the destinies of the proudest kingdoms of the old world—governing the people of their charge as well and as wisely as the oldest monarchs of the world.—N. Y. Star.

SPECIE FOR DUTY BONDS.

It seems that the Merchants can get abundance of specie to ship to England, to pay debts there, which Mr. Biddle says they ought to pay, at all events!

We give the following extracts to show it, from the very last paper.

'The Evening Post says $500,000 were to go Europe in the Havre and Liverpool packets, which were to sail to day.'—Nat. Intelligencer.

'SPECIE.—Merchants have to pay from seven to ten per cent. premium on specie to send to England to maintain their credit, as the means of supporting their families Who receives that premium?'—Evening Star.

But when the Government asks for specie due on bonds, and which is quite as legally and equitably due as the debts to foreigners, the whole whig posse cry out against the hardship imposed on them by the Treasury, and declare it impossible to get specie.

MARRIED,

On Tuesday night last, by the Rev. Mr. Judd, Mr. William W. Laird, to Miss Wilhilmina Goldsborough, both of this county.

On the 18th May, by the Rev. Mr. Courtney, Mr. Edward Redhead, of Baltimore, to Miss Elizabeth A. Martin, of Richmond Va.

He has lately procured A NEW SYSTEM OF CUTTING OUT GARMENTS, which has never been used before in this part of the State. Upon this plan, the science of cutting clothes is no longer uncertain, and dependent upon the eye and accident, for a good fit. It is as unerring as the truths of geometry He congratulates himself and his friends upon the possession of this long-sought desideratum. He is prepared to make up clothes for his patrons in the neatest and most fashionable style, having made an arrangement to procure the VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers for sale all his land lying and being in Somerset county, on Barron Creek, near the "Spring." It comprises several tracts or parcels of land, contiguous to each other, containing in the whole more or less. The improvements upon the same are a two story Dwelling House, near the water, at which there is a first rate landing place—a new store house, considered to be a good stand for business.—also an orchard, affording most excellent fruit. There is another dwelling tenement upon the property, immediately adjacent to the water, with a very thriving orchard of young apple trees annexed. About 70 or 80 acres of this land is cleared, the greater part of which is good for a corn crop—the residue of the property is covered with oak, chesnut, hickory, pine, and gum timber, suitable for vessels, cord wood, &c. The title is in fee simple, and clear of all disputes and incumbrances.—The property being in a county in which I do not reside, induces me to dispose of it, provided I can get something like the value of it. I will sell it, if applied to, on reasonable terms, and if not sold at private sale by Friday the 28st of April next, I will offer it on that day at public sale on the premises, at the hour of 12 o'clock.
