CAMBRIDGE:

MONDAY, JANUARY 29, 1838.

NAVY ISLAND.—From the last accounts of the Canada border war, it appears that Van Rensealaer at the head of the Patriots, who had lodged themselves on this Island, has quit the place, and all who were banded together there have dispersed and returned to their homes.

CONGRESS.—The House has been for several days past, engaged in discussing the merits of the Mississippi Election. There appears to be but little doubt that the sitting members (Messrs. Claiborne and Gholson,) will be re-declared to be entitled to their places.

Senator Black, of Mississippi, a whig Senator in Congress, has resigned his seat, and it is highly probable a Van Buren man will be selected to supply his place.

REFORM.—The whig members of the Legislature shew by their course that they are at heart opposed to Reform, and yet will be compelled to vote for it. They endeavor to procrastinate the day, like sinners persisting in their downward career, but the voice of the people sounds in their ears and they dare not obey. The Bill upon the subject of Reform will pass towards the close of the session.

GEN. HARRISON, DANIEL WEBSTER AND HENRY CLAY ESQRS.—The Whigs are much at loggerheads between the above candidates for the next Presidency. One portion, running one, another a second, and another a third. The fact is the whigs are a quarrelsome set of fellows. They all want to have their own way. Some of them think Webster is the greatest man in the world. Others that Clay is, and scores that Harrison is a perpect prodigy. They never will be able to settle their disputes. And Mr. Van Buren can beat any one of them, or the whole together. You will see, that this is the case Messrs. Whigs.

We see it stated that several banks, to the North have failed. How can a bank fail, when it refuses to pay specie? It seems to us, rather paradoxical. If Banks cannot go on, after suspending specie payments it must be about the last of peatime, with them.

The papers are roasting Gov. Veazy, for giving up the four citizens of our Sate, who were demanded by Pennsylvania. The authorities of that state, wish to try them as Kidnappers, when in fact our own tribunals, have decided that the negroes they seised were slaves. Under the Constitution of the U. States, full faith is to be given, by one State to the judicial proceedings of another What right then has Pennsylvania to try those men as Kidnappers?

A RUMOR.—A rumer reached this city by a gentleman from Washington la t night (the 23d) that Gholson and Wise had a rencontre in the street yesterday afternoon, in which Gholson drew a pistol and shot Wise, who fell dead on the spot. We give no credit to this rumor. Neither our correspondent at Washington, nor any of the papers of that city make any mention of such an occurrence. It is, undoubtedly, a fabrication.—Balt. Transcript.

SUB-TREASURY BILL.—In the Senate yesterday a bill was reported by the Committee of Finance, embracing the plan of the Administration for the collection, keeping, &c. of the public treasure. It varies considerably from the Sub-Treasury scheme as brought forward at the late session, as will be seen by the following summary of its principal provisions, which we copy from the National Intelligencer.

First. Certain rooms in the new Treasury Building, with safes and vaults, are to constitute the Treasury of the United States.

Second. The Mint and the Branch Mints are also to be public depositories of the public moneys.

Third. Certain special depositories are to be created, viz. in Charleston, New York, and Boston, and officers to be appointed therefore, to be called Receivers-General, with salaries, &c.

Fourth. In certain cases, collectors of public moneys may make special deposites in banks, the key upon such depositories to be retained by the depositing officer

Fyth. Many provisions are proposed, by bond and otherwise, for the security of money in the hands of those officers.

Sixth. Exclusive specie payments, for all dues and debts to Government, to be required after a certain time, say, four or six years hence.

Another feature, if we understand aright, annuls the requisition of specie payments at the land officers, permitting the alternative of paying the money into the Treasury at Washington, certificates of such payment to be received as cash at the land offices.

BY REQUEST.

An act to divorce Mary Ann Bayly of Dorchester county, from her husband, Josiah Bayly, Jr.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Mary Ann Bayly, of Dorchester county be, and she is hereby declared to be divorced from her husband Josiah Bayly Jr. a vinculo matrimonii, with the privilege allowed the petitioner to resume her maiden name.

We certify the foregoing to be a true copy, from the original Bill, which passed both branches of the Legislature of Maryland, at December Session, 1837.

In testimony whereof, we have hereunto subscribed our names, at the City of Annapolis, this twelth day of January Anno Domini, 1838.

GEORGE G. BREWER, Clerk of the House of Del. Md.

JOS H. NICHOLSON, Clerk of the Senate of Md.

The following resolutions relative to the Sub-Treasury System, were brought forward in the House of Assembly of Pennsylvania on Friday by Mr. Ryan, of Philadelphia county:

Whereas, great inconvenience and embarrassment has been experienced by the General Government, and in all the States of the American Union, by the deranged state of the currency which we believe has been brought about by the indulgence of that reckless spirit of speculation and over-trading so common in this country since the perversion of 'Banking facilities' from their original and legitimate purposes;

And whereas, late events have shown that the present State Banks are not the proper depositories of the public funds, and believing that under a well regulated and properly guarded Sub-Treasury system, the public treasure may be more safely and faithfully kept than heretofore under the direction of the State Banks; Therefore,

Resolved, That we highly approve of the plan submitted by the President of the United States at the late special session of Congress, believing it to be in strict accordance with the constitution, and eminently calculated, if properly carried out, to simplify the financial operations of the Government, to advance the public interest, to confine the revenue to the purpose contemplated in the constitution, and to bring about uniform and sound currency.

Resolved, That copies of these resolutions be forwarded to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress, and to the President of the United States.

MARRIED,

On Thursday evening last, by the Rev. Mr. Lambdin, Mr. William Kirby, to Miss Rebecca Jane Stewart, both of this place.

IN ALL ITS DIFFERENT BRANCHES,

At his old stand, in Cambridge.

He has lately procured A NEW SYSTEM OF CUTTING OUT GARMENTS, which has never been used before in this part of the State. It is adjusted upon a mathematical principle, and cannot fail to succeed in all cases. Upon this plan, the science of cutting clothes is no longer uncertain, and dependent upon the eye and accident, for a good fit. It is as unerring as the truths of geometry. He congratulates himself and his friends upon the possession of this long sought desideratum. He is prepared to make up clothes for his patrons in the neatest and most fashionable style, having made an arrangement to procure the
