We have often heard of intense anxiety being generally manifested by every class of Society, to witness public executions, but never have heard of any real advantages resulting from such a mode of punishment. Instead of having the effect intended, it too frequently has a contrary one, and but serves to blunt the feelings of the soul and to habituate it to scenes of death. Public executions have but little effect upon the many, who crowd to witness them merely to gratify an idle curiosity, and the hardened manner in which many a criminal meets his fate thwarts the object in view, and rather strengthens than decreases the sordid passions of the soul.

It appears that Heller, who murdered his wife and children, a full account of which we published a short time since, has been executed in Indiana. A band of music attended the miserable culprit to the scaffold, and we presume, though it is not stated, he was launched into eternity to the patriotic tune of Yankee Doodle!

PUBLIC MEETING.

The Citizens of Talbot County are earnestly invited to assemble at the Court House, in Easton on Tuesday next, the 24th inst. at 2 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of deliberation, and an expression of their views on the imminent and important question of Internal Improvement, to be agitated and decided at the approaching adjourned session.

May 21

Apprehensions have been all along entertained that the occurrence of the hostile collisions which have taken place between the Seminole Indians of Florida and our own citizens, would lead to troubles with other tribes on our borders; and we regret to add that the recent indications which have reached us from the Creek nation in Alabama and Georgia, are of a character which show that those apprehensions are not without foundation. It will be seen by the following official communication to the War Department that a regular and active communication is kept up between the hostile Florida Indians and the discontented members of the Creek tribe, and that the report of the late ineffectual operations of our forces in Florida has already emboldened the Creeks to the commission of acts of bloodshed:

Copy of a letter to the Adjutant General, dated

FORT MITCHELL, ALABAMA, May 7th, 1836.

SIR: It has just been reported to me that Colonel Flournay was shot dead by Indians the day before yesterday, about fifteen miles below this post. I am also informed that a report is currently circulating among the Creeks, that the Seminole Indians have defeated the whites in their operations in Florida. This report will no doubt embolden them to many acts of hostility which they would not otherwise dare commit.

A constant communication must be kept up between them, as the Creeks are conversant with every transaction that occurs in Florida. Marshal, the half breed, says he is apprehensive mischief will be done by the Indians he [illegible] opinion. Opothleyohola, principal of the upper Creeks, says he cannot keep his people together, or restrain them.

A runner has this instant arrived and informed me that another white man was shot in his bed last night by Indians—that many guns were heard in the neighborhood during the night, and other whites are supposed to have fallen victims.

I am sir,
Your obedient servant,
(Signed) J. S. McINTOSH,
Bvt. Maj. 4th Infantry.

Gen. R. JONES,
Adjt. Gen. U. S. Army.

☞ Since the above was put in type, we have understood that ten companies of U. S. troops have been ordered to repair forthwith to the scene of apprehended trouble in Alabama.

Extract of a letter dated

COLUMBUS, Georgia, May 7th, 1836.

We expect an Indian war—nearly all the whites are leaving the nation. Colonel Flournay was killed day before yesterday by the Indians. Columbus is crowded with persons flying for safety—(from the Creeks and Euchyes.)

The Post Master General has directed a Mail to be carried daily between Baltimore and Annapolis, throughout the year—and directions have been given to the Post Master in Washington to send invariably the Annapolis and Eastern-Shore Mails by way of Baltimore. By this arrangement we will have the advantage of a daily Mail from Washington and Baltimore, to arrive by mid-day.—Annaps. Gaz.

The following extract is from the proceedings of the Democratic Republican Party of Allegany County, adopted at a numerous meeting in that county, which was convened for the purpose of sending delegates to the Electoral Convention.

We have seen, with feelings of astonishment and regret, a party of men distinguished for talents and personal respectability, waging an unceasing war against every prominent act of the present Administration—an Administration distinguished for the benefits it has conferred upon the people, and the unexampled degree of prosperity which manifests itself in every nook and corner of the country. At the time it came into power, the country was saddled with a heavy National Debt—now she is entirely rescued form this debt, and presents to an astonished and admiring world, the rare, but pleasing spectacle of a powerful and flourishing country, entirely clear of debt, not owing one dollar and a treasury groaning beneath the weight of its surplus treasure;—her Commerce in a flourishing and prosperous condition, unexampled in the annals of the country; her Flag—the soul thrilling, Star Spangled Banner, triumphantly waves over every sea, in every port, feared and respected by the most powerful nations upon the earth.

A powerful monied Monster, which had reared its Hydra head, ready to crush the weak, influence the timid and bribe the corrupt, and hold in awe the vassalating, has been prostrated by the wisdom, the firmness and foresight of this administration.

And now, when an administration, according to precedents set by the good and wise men of the republic, is about to cast aside its robes of honor and distinction, it becomes the imperative duty of every man, who loves his country, and whose heart cannot fail to beat high in witnessing her present state of unexampled prosperity, and in contemplating the magnificence of her future destiny, should the principles of the present Administration be acted upon, by that which may succeed it, to look around her and select those for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, who, by their acts and written pledges, will be most likely, should they be selected, to carry out the distinguishing principles of the Administration of Andrew Jackson.

We have, with an eye single to the accomplishment of this most desirable object, examined the acts and pretentions of the many aspirants to the offices of President and Vice President of the United States, and we trust we will not lay ourselves liable to the charge of selfishness or prejudice, when we declare, most emphatically, that MARTIN VAN BUREN, of New York, and Col RICHARD M. JOHNSON, of Kentucky, combine, in a more eminent degree than any of the rivals, the qualifications and acquirements which we believe essentially necessary for the President and Vice President of the United States, to possess.

Mr. Van Buren, from his youth upwards—has always been an active and zealous member of the Republican party—distinguised for his profound knowledge, his extensive and varied acquirements as a jurist and statesman, his unbending integrity, his devoted patriotism, and unflinching adherence and advocacy of the leading principles of the Republican party—unaided by family influence or any other fictitious circumstances, Mr. Van Buren has risen from comparative obscurity to honors and distinction, are of the most enviable character—carving for himself, in the temple of power, enduring evidences of his power, the intellectual endowments and his devoted patriotism. It is not expected that even a bird's eye glance could be afforded of the life of this distinguished individual, associated, as his name is with almost every important act connected with our political history for the las' thirty years.

Of Col. Richard M. Johnson, it is not necessary for us to say one word, on this occasion,—his history is familiar to every one of his countrymen who has paid the least attention to passing events. He shed his youthful blood in defence of our rights and liberties, combatting, with undaunted bravery, with the veteran troops of Europe and with the wild Savages of our own hemisphere, and by his bravery and intrepidity incircling himself with a wreath of glory and with unfading laurels. Nor has his conduct in the Councils of the Nation been of a less endearing and useful character—his name is associated with every prominent act of Congress for thirty years past.—He is emphatically a man of the People, and his virtues are written in the hearts of his countrymen.

For the Whig.

MR. EDITOR—The following Enigma may afford a little gratification to some of your fair readers.

I am a word of six letters, and what every person in the world more or less desires. I am the thought of young girls by day and night, and am the cause of much happiness as well as of great misery. My 2, 3, and 5 is what every one likes to do particularly three times a day. Man nor beast could not do without it. My 1, 3 and 6 is the name of a large space of water. My 1, 2 and 3 many persons do, some advantageously and others to their injury. My 3, 6 and 2 is what girls love to say when they are asked to wed. My 4, 2 and 3 is what most people love in the evening, and was great promoter of liberty. My 1, 2, 3 and 4 is what ladies like, and most [illegible] like to be. In fact intelligence and virtue [illegible] the word would win the heart of a stone, and get every young lady in the county a husband. Then what am I? TOM.

GRAIN—Wheat. Small sales of Maryland reds have been made throughout the week at prices ranging for strictly prime red $1,40, good to prime $1,25a1,38—other kinds as in quality $1,33a1,35. Corn—Sales of Maryland White at 75 cents and Yellow 80 cents. Rye—Sales of Maryland at 82a83 cents.

FOR SALE

I have for sale a mare of fine blood now with foal by Maryland Eclipse. This mare's speed has been tried and she has proved a successful racer. She was raised by Mr. Elisha Wilson of this county, who has raised some of the best blooded horses on this shore—Col Emory's Betsy Wilson, Quaker, and others.

I have also a mare colt out of this mare by John Richards, three years old this spring, which I will sell at fair price, on 3 and 6 months credit. A good work horse would be taken in part pay. The mare will be sold on the same terms as the colt. Sportsmen if you want good blooded horses attend to this.

TH SALMAGUNDI,
AND NEWS OF THE DAY.

EMBELLISHED WITH A MULTITUDE OF

COMIC ENGRAVINGS

A new periodical, of a novel character, bearing the above appellation, will be commenced on the beginning of January, 1836—While it will furnish its patrons with the leading features of the news of the day, its principal objects will be to serve up a humorous compilation of the numerous lively and pungent sallies which are daily floating along the tide of Literature, and which, for the want of a proper channel for their preservation, are positively lost to the reading world. Original wits and humorists of our time will here have a medium devoted to the faithful record of the scintillations of their genius. It is not necessary to detail the many attractions which this journal will possess, as the publisher will furnish a specimen number to every person who desire it—(those out of the city will forward their orders, postage paid)—☞ and he pledges himself that no exertions on his part shall be wanting to make each succeding number superior in every respect to the preceding ones.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be printed on large imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is at present used for the Gentlemen's Vade Mecum. It is calculated that more than will be furnished to the patrons of this Journal in one year—these, in addition to an extensive and choice selection of Satire, Criticism, Humor and Wit, to be circulated through its columns, will form a Literary Banquet of a superor and attractive order; and the publisher relies with perfect confidence on the liberality of the American public, and the spirit and tact with which this expensive undertaking will be prosecuted, to bear him successfully and profitably along with it.

The terms of the Salmagundi will be TWO DOLLARS per annum, payably invariably in advance. No paper will be furnished unless this stipulation is strictly adhered to.

☞ Clubs of three will be supplied with the paper for one year, by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid. Clubs of seven will be supplied for the same term, by forwarding a ten dollar note. ☞ The papers that are sent out of the city will be carefully packed in strong envelopes, to prevent their rubbing in mail.

☞ THE SALMAGUNDI will be publisin no alternate weeks—otherwise it would be impossible to procure the numerous embellishments which each number will contain—and the general interest it will afford must be enhanced by this arrangement.

☞ All orders must come postage paid.

☞ Address, CHARLES ALEXANDER, Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia.
