...rought upon thousands ... has likewise seduced ... paths of honest living into the bewildering mazes of wild and extravagant "fortune hunting."

PUBLIC MEETING.

Pursuant to public notice, a public meeting of the friends of the National Administration was held on Tuesday last at the Tavern of E. McDowell, and duly organized by calling Dr. J. A. Clough to the chair, and appointing of Geo. W. Sherwood Secretary.

The object of the meeting was briefly stated by F. Thomas, Esq.

On motion, a nominating Committee of one from each election district of the County was appointed, consisting of Messrs. Nicholas Martin, Wm. Rose, John W. Battis, and J. B. Firbanks, to recommend to the meeting a delegation of gentlemen to meet the Convention in Centreville on Tuesday the 20th inst. on behalf of the Democrats of Talbot, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for this Congressional District.

The Committee returned the following list of delegates which was unanimously adopted by the meeting.

DELEGATES TO THE CONVENTION.

EASTON DISTRICT.

P. F. Thomas, Edward Lloyd, William Arringdale, and Peregrine Groome, Esqrs.

ST. MICHAELS.

A. B. Harrison, Morris O. Colston, John Kemp, and Joseph Caulk, Esqrs.

TRAPPE.

Samuel Stevens, J. A. Clough, Wm. B. Willis, and Peter Webb, Esqrs.

CHAPPLE.

Daniel Lloyd, Charles Jump, John S. Blake, and P. Horney, Esqrs.

On motion it was

Resolved, That the proceedings of the meeting be signed by the Chairman and Secretary and published in the Eastern Shore Whig.

On motion the meeting adjourned

J. A. CLOUGH, Chairman.

GEO. W. SHERWOOD, Secretary.

ACQUITTAL OF GEORGE E. STEWART.

In this case, the Jury on Sunday afternoon, about two o'clock rendered a verdict of NOT GUILTY, on the indictment for manslaughter.—The arguments were concluded and the jury retired to their room on Saturday at half past 3 o'clock. The question of the assault and battery was submitted to the Court without argument. The judgment of the Court upon this indictment will probably be rendered to day.—Bal Chron.

TRENTON RACES—Last Day.—Purse $700, four mile heats.

General Irvine's Mingo,	1	1
Col W R Johnson's Lady Clifden	2	2
J B Kendall's Camsidel,	3	dis.

Time—7 51 ½, 8 50. Track heavy.

Mingo led off at a racing pace from the score—was never headed, and won easily hard in hand. Previous to the start the odds were 100 to 75 on Lady Clifden against the field.

The second heat he won like open and shut, distancing Camsidel, while Lady Clifden only saved hers by a few lengths. He never had the kink out of his neck in any part of the race. The track was a little heavy from the rain of yesterday. An immense crowd were in attendance to grace Mingo's triumph; when he came in 2d heat the cheers were enthusiastic.

A FACT TO PONDER UPON

When Gen. Jackson came into office there were three hundred and twenty banks in the United States. Since he has been in office, three hundred and fifty seven new banks were created. The 320 banks were the product of about 40 years—the 357 were made in less than eight years. These 357 new banks were made at the same time that the people were humbugged with the promise of gold currency.

The above article we have noticed for sometime taking the rounds of the 'Whig' Presses—presuming it has nearly completed its revolution, we venture to give it a place in another Whig paper—not a mushroom Whig press, however, but one of the old staunch Revolutionary stamp. Now we will not attempt to contradict a single sentence in the above article. We will, however, ask a question or two:

1st. Was any of the 357 new banks established by the National Government?

2d. Did Gen. Jackson recommend the establishment of a single one of them?

3d. Is there any one of the 357 new banks a Democratic bank?

4th. Were they not every one of them got up on Whig recommendations?

5th are not every one of them in the hands of the Whigs, directed and controlled by Whigs?

6th Did not General Jackson, during his whole administration, recommend, and advocate, and urge the establishment of a specie currency, and do all in his power to awaken the people to the importance of guarding their interests and protecting themselves against the bank power of the country?

Would not the 1st, 2d, and 3d questions above, be correctly answered with the little word NO following them. Would not the 4th, 5th and 6th questions be properly answered with the word YES? Then, if we are right in our view of the matter, who is to blame for the rag currency with which we have been visited—Gen. Jackson or the Whigs. Will any honest candid Whig answer the above questions.

Indian Marriage Promise.—A young Indian lately failed in his attention to a young squaw. She made complaint to an old chief, who appointed a hearing of trial. She lay the case before the Judge and explained the nature of the promise made to her. It consisted of many visits to her wigwam, many little valuable attentions and presents, a bunch of feathers and some yards of red flannel. This was the charge. The faithless swain denied the indefinable attentions, in toto.—He had visited her father's wigwam for the purpose of passing away time when it was not convenient to hunt and had given the feathers and flannel from friendly motives and nothing further During the latter part of the defence the young squaw fainted. The plea was considered invalid, and the offended sentences to give the lady a yellow feather, a broach that was then dangling from his nose, and a kiss of consolation. The sentence was no sooner concluded than the squaw sprung upon her feet, and throwing her blanket, exclaimed with joy, "now me ready to be courted again."—Wakyla Bison.

From the National Laborer.

"You cut off the hand of the mechanic when you bankrupt the merchant."

"Where there are rich people, poor people may obtain employment and bread, but when the people are all poor, how are they to help each other?"

The above nonsensical assertions are from the New York Star, and are specimens of the sophistry of the pensioned presses of the aristocracy. If the first insertion be reversed, it will be strictly true. You bankrupt the merchant when you throw the mechanic out of employment. It is from the labor of the mechanic that the merchant amasses his wealth; and without the products of labor to buy and sell, he would be forced to go to work himself. This is clear to any thinking man.

The second remark is an absurdity, and we are constrained to write the author down as a fool or knave, unless he means that the rich people labor for the poor, but this is not his meaning. Suppose neither the rich nor the poor labored, where would the bread come from. If the rich man gives the poor man an equivalent for his labor, they are mutually benefitted, how then can it be said that the rich man benefits the poor man? The rich do not furnish the poor with bread, but on the contrary, they are furnished with it by the laborer. "When the people are all poor how are they to help each other?" This is a very silly question. "If the mountains were gold and the valleys of silver," we would not be a whit richer than we are, but poorer. These metals do not sustain life, nor clothe us, nor shelter us from the storm. Our food, our raiment and our shelter are all the results of labor. If all people were poor, they would all be compelled to work, and there would consequently be less labor to be done than there is now when one half are constantly toiling to support the other in idleness. If the mechanic would establish co operative societies, and take the distribution of their labor into their own hands, they would find a material improvement in their condition. They would soon discover that they would become wealthy on about half the amount of labor they now perform: and the aristocracy would soon dwindle away, as they could not maintain persons to write such sophisms as those which head these remarks.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.

The members of the next Congress—the Congress which is to convene on the first of September—so far as sixteen States are concerned, are already elected. In ten States the elections are yet to be held. The following will show the strength of parties thus far:

	Van Buren.	Whig.
Maine	6	2
New Hampshire	5	0
Verimont	1	4
Massachusetts	1	11
Connecticut	6	0
New York	30	10
New Jersey	0	6
Pennsylvania	17	11
Delaware	0	1
Virginia	15	6
Ohio	8	11
Georgia	6	3
Louisiana	1	2
Illinois	3	0
Missouri	2	0
South Carolina	1	8
	102	75

The States which are yet to elect members of Congress are

Rhode Island, in August		2
Maryland		8
North Carolina	do	13
Tennessee	do	13
Kentucky	do	13
Alabama	do	5
Indiana	do	7
Mississippi, in November		2
Arkansas		1
Michigan		1
		65

The present method of argument among the whigs, the latest mode, the whig fashion for the month of May, is to maintain that the destruction of the national bank was the cause of the springing up of a multitude of petty monopolies which have vitiated the circulation by their issues and expanded credit to a fatal extent by their discounts. But who have created this brood of little monopolies? Was it the administration? On the contrary, again and again did the venerable, honorable, and sagacious chief, who has just passed into retirement, raise his voice to warn the nation against this folly. Was it the democratic party? On the contrary, it was a combination of selfish and interested, or weak and pliant representatives of both parties in the several State Legislatures. Bank whig and bank democrat plunged into this madness with equal precipitation; Massachusetts vied with New York and Louisiana with Pennsylvania. One of the most stupendous acts of folly committed in this way, was the granting a charter to Mr. Biddle's bank, which was any thing but a democratic measure.

The administration and its friends have extricated the nation from one folly; the States have plunged into another; that is the true state of the question.—N. Y. Evening Post.

From the Globe.

BANK HONESTY.

Mr. Biddle denies that his United States Bank stopped payment, because it was OBLIGED to stop. He insists, that he could have continued to pay his notes, if he had chosen to do so!

AN HONEST bankrupt is to be pitied, a WILFUL bankrupt ought to be punished.

Mr. Biddle had piles of gold and silver upon his counter, and says he was able to pay all his debts. The people came with his notes to ask payment, he sends his piles of gold and silver back into his vaults, and tells them "I COULD PAY IF I WOULD, BUT I WONT."

This is BANK HONESTY.

What would be thought of the honesty of a farmer, who, when his neighbor calls on him for payment of his note for ten dollars, should tell him "I have a thousand dollars in my desk, but not a cent will I pay you."

The bank presses insist that the present state of things proves the unsoundness of Gen. Jackson's views in reference to the currency.

Is this true?

General Jackson is in favor of a specie currency.

The pseudo Whigs are in favor of a paper currency.

Now, which has failed—the specie currency or the paper currency?

Which is "the better currency," specie or paper?

Which do the people prefer?

The millions who compose the American people will tell the bank gentry, that the present state of things most signally confirms the soundness of the views entertained by that hero, patriot and statesman who will revere more than ever.—Globe.

OLD BACHELORS SOCIETY.

The Poughkeepsie Telegraph announces the existence of a "wear your old breeches society," at that place. The smallest favors are thankfully received, and large ones in prospection. They intend to apply to the Legislature for a charter of $10 to invest in a Scouring machine.

PRICE CURRENT.

Baltimore, June

Wheat,	$1
Corn white
" Yellow
Rye
Oats

The following "obituary as it appeared in the last Whig was not strictly "according to copy." We now, by request, re-publish it entire.

OBITUARY.

The final blow has at last been stricken, our much beloved young friend, Miss MARY RINGGOLD, daughter of John S. and Caroline M. Blake, departed this life at the residence of her father in this county, on the 5th day of June 1837, aged twenty four years, two months and two days.

In recording the death of this accomplished young lady, the heart is filled with sorrow that one so endeared to her friends by all the ties of amiability and love, should be taken from them, after so short a pilgrimage. She was a most affectionate daughter, a firm and immutable friend, and an interesting, and endearing companion, to all who knew her. She associated herself by the frankness of her manners, the urbanity of her demeanor, the unaffected simplicity of her heart, in terms of affectionate esteem. The cold and relenting rest, his youth[illegible] mental rested the proportions of the straight virtues still stronger. "She is the bride of Ellationa and I. Henry Carroll. If you will father, her amiable. But let [illegible] you, kind and affec[illegible] has fallen [illegible] our a gl[illegible] that she was [illegible] her religious [illegible] faith [illegible] she was a [illegible] girl looked at Harry, disease, [illegible] brow an[illegible] body, she [illegible] the new competitor [illegible] faith to [illegible] her Redeemer in the hands of one of the [illegible] lation, [illegible] a sash he wore beneath [illegible]

At a very [illegible] waist, and taking the ap[illegible] hand, made, apparently without effort, [illegible] and that was to decide the happiness or [illegible] of Henry and Annette.

[illegible] full of [illegible] two feet one inch! shouted the [illegible] tians, [illegible] announcement was repeated with [illegible] whether [illegible] stators, who crowded [illegible] was doubtful, filling the air with congratulations. Chris[illegible] mingled, however, with loud [illegible] Chief Co[illegible] those who were more nearly [illegible] her creed, [illegible] happiness of the lovers.

She became approached, and grasping his [illegible] pulmonary [illegible] called him his son, and said [illegible] hath continued him than if he were a prince [illegible] till at length and strength were the old [illegible] dear sister [illegible] ents of nobility.

[illegible] drop a real tear, the victor sought with [illegible] ture, even [illegible] he had, although name[illegible] listens to thy so fairly won. She leaned [illegible] of the Lambarm, pale and distressed. [illegible] anna to the [illegible] aloof, gloomy and mortified [illegible] superiority of the stranger [illegible]

In this [illegible] which he prided himself [illegible] while he hated him for his su[illegible]

[illegible] pretty prize said the victor, [illegible] passive hand—"I have won, you [illegible] [illegible]'s cheek became paler than [illegible] [illegible] like an aspen leaf, and [illegible] father, while the drooping [illegible] of her lover. His brow [illegible]

AT a meet[illegible] stranger's language [illegible] the May my pretty flower, to speak the Eastern [illegible] not so violently, [illegible] motion of [illegible] proud I might be [illegible] resolved, [illegible] try, "to wear so fair a [illegible] Fair at Easter perhaps." and he cast his [illegible] of November, while the current [illegible] be offered to her brow, and a murmur of Stocks. In through the crowd—"[illegible] tures. [illegible] vored youth am[illegible] has a higher claim [illegible] he continued, turning to the [illegible] Edenry 'methinks you were victor in [illegible] prome fore me.—I strove not for the mai[illegible] publish one could not well strive for a [illegible] from love for the manly sport in [illegible] aw you engaged. You are the [illegible] such, with the permission of this [illegible] ly, receive from my hand the [illegible] e so well and honorably won.'

HE sprung forward and grasped his [illegible] titude; and the next moment, [illegible] eping from pure joy upon his [illegible]

J. D. [illegible] he welkin rung with the acclamations of the delighted villagers, and amid [illegible] cinity, [illegible] ry excitement produced by this occup[illegible] strangers withdrew from the crowd, [illegible] street, his he[illegible] spurred at a brisk trot [illegible] adjoining the Shop [illegible] & Co. where Henry and Annette were mar[illegible]

FU[illegible] lth of the mysterious and [illegible] er, was drunk in over flowing [illegible] tic beverage.

[illegible] of time, there were born unto the [illegible] pair, sons & daughters and Harry Carroll became Colonel Henry Carroll, of the [illegible] army.

WHITE AND BLACK HAT[illegible]

SIA DITTO

of the best quality and most approved fashion.

They solicit a share of public patronage and from their experience in the business flatter themselves they can give general satisfaction, and furnish work not inferior to that done in the cities and equal to any on the peninsula.

J D. Duncan (lately in the employ of Mr. Ennals Roezel) having executed work in the best establishments in the city of Baltimore, will give his personal attention to the manufacture of Hats for the establishment which he guarantees for duability and neatness of manufacture.

June 20th

For Sale.

THE Dwelling and Store opposite the Court House in Easton at present occupied by Wm. C. Ridgaway, is now offered for sale, if not sold before the 11th of July, it will be set up at auction and sold to the highest bidder. There is a ground rent on the lot $26 66cts.

The terms are one third cash, one third in three months and the balance in six months. For further particulars apply to

JAS. C. WHEELER.

Easton Point, June 20 1837. ts

JOB PRINTING

Neatly executed at this Office.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY,

THOMAS W. VEAZY,

Governor of Maryland.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, by an act of the General Assembly of this State, entitled, "an additional supplement to an act entitled, an act to reduce into one, the several acts of Assembly respecting elections, and to regulate said elections," passed at December session, 1832, it is provided "that the election of Representatives from this State, to serve in the Congress of the United States, shall be held on the first Monday of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty six, and on the same day in every second year thereafter forever, and that if any special or extra session of Congress should be called, to commence at such period as to make it necessary, in the opinion of the Governor and Council, that the Representatives in Congress from this State should be chosen before the time fixed by law for such election, then it shall be the duty of the Governor and Council, by Proclamation, to be published in the newspapers throughout the state, and otherwise, at least thirty days before the time to be appointed for the election by said Proclamation, to appoint a day for the election as aforesaid, of the said Representatives to Congress, &c. And whereas, the President of the United States has, by Proclamation, [illegible] special or extra session of Congress [illegible] on the first Monday of September, in which, in the opinion of the Governor, most efficient [illegible], makes it necessary that the rounds of the [illegible] Congress from this State shows up this publ[illegible] before the time fixed [illegible]

[illegible] want of [illegible] to grat[illegible] W. Veazey, [illegible] against Mr Kendall, has [illegible] and, do by this [illegible] abusive letter against him, which [illegible] the fourth [illegible] the rounds of the whig papers. Whi[illegible] the 26th day [illegible] model was confined to Kentucky, it was a [illegible] election of [illegible] hood. Although Mr Wickliffe belongs to [illegible] whig school, not an individual even of [illegible] rve in the party will believe any thing he says, w[illegible] Great Seal of [illegible] is known to have an interest to [illegible] th day of June [illegible] facts. He was once publicly bra[illegible] thousand eight [illegible] Clay himself, in the Fayette circ[illegible] the Indepen[illegible] the sixty first.

[illegible] W. VEAZEY.

We were familiar with the tim[illegible] tory of which Mr Wickliffe un[illegible] narrate, as connected with Mr Ke[illegible] litical career, and we positively d[illegible] tale is throughout a most shameful [illegible] of truth The influence which Mr [illegible] r s maintained in Kentucky co[illegible] to the hour he left it. The fact th[illegible] ed Clay and this poor creature, [illegible] himself, who still hangs on Clay's [illegible] countenance, though he hates the m[illegible] ted to a verdict of the people in [illegible] Kendall, the issue then ma[illegible] same parties, and under the [illegible] which Wickliffe again brings [illegible] misrepresents."

[illegible] OF MAILS.

EASTON, [illegible] th 1837.

[illegible] DEPARTURES.

[illegible] Mail.

Great Performance.—Mr Mew[illegible] Monday and [illegible] ford, England, laid a wager that he [illegible] from Oxford to London and back [illegible] by 9 P M. in six hours and ten minutes [illegible] day on Friday after horses. He performed the [illegible] there Mail and arrive at April, in five hours and [illegible] by 5 P M.

[illegible] Wednesday and Satur-

"Honor to whom Hon[illegible] of the Brooklyn Bank pr[illegible] ston the mail for Anna during the last fortnight, [illegible] arrives there at 6 P [illegible] met with specie; and at no time [illegible] pension of specie payments has [illegible] sed to exchange a five dollar bill. [illegible] AIL.

[illegible] stances it has likewise exchang[illegible] bills of the New York city bank[illegible] day, Friday, and [illegible]

REPLY OF MR. KENDALL TO [illegible] Tuesday and [illegible]

R. WICKLIFFE'S LETTER.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette:

Having observed the tender of your columns as a medium of reply to the strictures of Mr. Robert Wickliffe on my character and conduct, when you gave insertion to his production, I determined at once to avail myself of the offer. Incessant official engagements have until this time prevented the accomplishment of that purpose.

Were the facts of the case, or the character of Robert Wickliffe for reckless mendacity, as well known to the people of the United States as they are to the people of Kentucky, I should deem it unnecessary to pay any attention to his malignant effusion. But as it suits the present objects of a party to circulate his libels where the author is unknown, and often with gratuitous attestations of their authenticity, it is due to myself to place the truth within the reach of those who honestly seek it.

If I could be flattered by falsehood, I might feel satisfied with the allegation that I have been for about twelve years de facto Governor of Kentucky, and about eight years President of the United States!—But conscious of never having possessed or aspired to the influence which has been attributed to me, the ascription of it can only impair my self-esteem, and teach me a lesson of humility.

"One will draw a parallel," [illegible] Wickliffe, between the misfortunes [illegible] tucky from 1817 to 1824, (the p[illegible] Amos held he conscience of our [illegible] and the condition of the U. S. [illegible] has been conscience keeper [illegible] readily account for the [illegible] which now threaten the loss of [illegible] and the bankruptcy of thousand[illegible] citizens."

[illegible] facts will show [illegible]

"A YOUNG WOMAN (a slave,) who [illegible] can be recommended as a house Ser[illegible] She will be hired by the month or for [illegible] Kent remainder of the year; and may be had [illegible] diately. A home in the country will be preferred.

N. B. A Servant who has been accustomed to COOKING, WASHING &c. is wanted for the remainder of the year. Apply to the Editor.

May 30 3w

NEW FIRM.

THE undersigned respectfully informs the public and his customers generally, that he has taken his sons, Alexander and William into partnership with him, so that business will in future be carried on at the old stand under the name and firm of Samuel Mackey and sons, who solicit a share of the public patronage.

SAMUEL MACKEY.

N. B. Those persons indebted to the undersigned on book account for six months or more are requested to make immediate payment.

SAMUEL MACKEY.

June 6, 1837. 4t

JAMES L. MARTIN,

Attorney at Law,

HAS taken the office on Goldsborough St formerly occupied by Wm. Hayward.

Easton, May 9, 1837.

COACH, GIG AND HARNESS

MAKING.

THE Subscribers again return their warmest thanks to their friends and the public of Talbot and the adjacent counties for the support they continue to receive in their line of business, and now respectfully beg leave to inform them that they are always making up of the best materials

Gigs and four wheeled Work, of the Latest Fashions and Patterns. They assure all who see proper to patronize them that they have the very best workmen in their employment and keep constantly on hand materials of the first quality, which will enable them as heretofore to meet all orders for work at the shortest notice. All kinds of REPAIRING DONE in the best manner, and on reasonable terms. They have now finished and ready for sale a number of carriages both new and second hand, which they would dispose of on favorable terms. Their friends and the public are respectfully invited to call and view their assortment and judge for themselves. They would also inform the public that attached to their establishment they have a Silver Plating Shop in operation, where they have in their employment one of the best silver platers and mettal workman from Philadelphia. Those who have any work in that line can have it executed in the neatest and most elegant manner, and at moderate prices

Also, all kinds of

Brass or Tin work Repaired, Keys Brazed &c. &c.

All orders thankfully received and promptly executed by the public's obedient servants

ANDERSON & HOPKINS.

They will give a liberal price for old silver and lead.

June 6 tf (G)

MARYLAND.

Caroline County Orphans' Court, 23d day of May Anno Domini 1837.

ON application of Sally Kelley and William H. Cheezum adm'rs, of Thomas Kelley late of Caroline county, deceased.—It is ordered, that they give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased's estate, and that they cause the same to be published once in each week for the space of three successive weeks, in one of the newspapers printed in Easton.

L. S. In testimony that the foregoing is truly copied from the minutes of proceedings of Orphans' Court of the county aforesaid I have hereto set my hand, and the seal of my office affixed, this 23d day of May, Anno Domini 1837.

Test, Wm. A. FORD, Reg'r. of Wills for Caroline county.

IN COMPLIANCE TO THE ABOVE ORDER

Notice is hereby Given.

I first became an Editor in 1815, and among my first essays, were spirited attacks on the Bank of Kentucky, not because her bank paper was equal to Gold and Silver, as Mr. Wickliffe now asserts, but because, having suspended specie payments during the war, and her notes being at a heavy discount, she was not, in my opinion, doing all in her power to resume payment. When she resumed, [illegible] opposition to her ceased, and my partner, [illegible] business, William Gerard, Esq. was for [illegible] years a Director of that Bank. It [illegible] Bank of the United States, and not [illegible] Party, which destroyed the Bank [illegible] by forcing her to a second sus[illegible] cie payments. The Branche[illegible] Bank in Kentucky were [illegible] the specie of the West a[illegible] as a means of saving [illegible] Bank, then reeling [illegible] of gross mismana[illegible] Bank of Kentu[illegible] questions [illegible] those act[illegible] became [illegible] and [illegible]

NOTICE.

STRAYED from the subscriber's residence in Branches and on the 28th of May last, a RED BUFF and even COW, with a white lock and white [illegible] on her forehead, her ears cropt. Whoever will give any information of the above described Cow shall be liberally rewarded, and receive the thanks of the subscriber.

M. A. VANDEREORD.

June 6 3t

Postponed Sale.

Negroes for Sale.

BY order of the Orphans' Court of Talbot County, will be sold at public Sale on Saturday 24th June, at the front door of the Court House in the town of Easton, the following property, to wit:

One negro man named David about 40 years of age; one ditto, Ennals, about 35; one ditto Charles, about 50; one negro woman named Rose, aged about 40; one ditto, Rachael, about 33; one ditto, Henrietta, about 20; one negro boy named Perry, about 18; one ditto, George, about 11; one negro girl named Amanda, about 9; one ditto, Harriet, about 7, one negro boy named Harrison, about 6; one ditto, Bill, about 12.

A credit of six months will be given, the purchaser giving note with approved security, with interest from the day of sale.—Sale to commence at 10 o'clock A M. Attendance given by WILLIAM ARRINGDALE, Adm'r. of Jas. Ridgaway, dec'd.

May 23 ts

University of Maryland.

A SESSION of the Board of Trustees, of the University of Maryland, will be held at the city of Baltimore, on the 21st day of June next, for the purpose of electing Professors, fill the following vacancies in the Faculty of Physic, viz.

The Chair of Anatomy and Physiology.

The Chair of Surgery, and

The Chair of Chemistry.

By order of the Board,

JOS. B. WILLIAMS, Sec'y.

May 23 4t

DISSOLUTION.

THE partnership heretofore existing under the firm of Ozmon and Shanahan is this day dissolved. All persons indebted to the above firm, will confer a great favor, by calling and settling their accounts, as the Subscribers wish to close the business of the firm, as speedy as possible.

OZMON & SHANAHAN.

April 18th, 1837.

N. B. The business will hereafter be conducted by Samuel Ozmon, at the same stand, directly opposite Mr. Charles [illegible]'s store. The subscriber feels thankful for the liberal support he has received, and begs leave to inform them that he is [illegible] to meet all orders in his line, that may be entrusted to him, with neatness and dispatch. The Subscriber has a first rate Hearse, and no pains will be spared in rendering general satisfaction to that part of his business, he intends in all cases to discharge his duties as undertaker.

New Establishment.

James S. Shanahan,

Cabinet-Maker,

HAS taken the shop on the West side of Washington street, next door to the corner below Dover street, in the large three story brick house, and nearly opposite Mr. John Camper's Store, where he intends carrying on the above business in all its various branches.

HE HAS PROVIDED HIMSELF WITH A GOOD

HEARSE,

And is now ready to execute all orders with neatness and despatch, and no pains will be spared to render general satisfaction, and hopes to share a generous patronage.

April 18 tf (G)

LATEST FASHIONS.

JOHN SATTERFIELD respectfully informs his customers and the public generally, that he has just received his

Spring and Summer

FASHIONS,

and is prepared to execute all kinds of work in his line of business, with neatness and despatch.

Thankful for past favors, he solicits a continuation of the same, and invites gentlemen to call and see his card of fashions, consisting of the latest improvements and most approved styles.

Frock Coats, Dress Coats, Vests, Children's and youth's clothes, and every description of Gentlemen's wearing apparel in all their varieties and fashions, will be cut in a handsome style, warranted to fit and made in a durable and neat manner at the shortest notice.

May 9 tf (G eow3w)

Easton and altimore Packet via

Miles River Ferry.

The Coppered and Copper Fastened

SLOOP JANE

BENJAMIN HORNEY, Master.

WILL commence to run regularly from this place to Baltimore, on Sunday 16th leaving Miles River Ferry, at 9 o'clock, and returning leave Baltimore, on Wednesday, at the same hour; and continue to do so throughout the season. Freights will be received on board, any where on the river or at the ferry.

All orders handed to John Horney, who will attend in Easton every Saturday or with Mr. Peter Tarr, will be punctually attended to.

Passage and fare $2 00.

April 25 8tq

Boot and Shoe Store.

THE subscribers having purchased the Boot and Shoe Store, of Mr. Ennalls Roszell, intend carrying on the above business, in all its various branches, under the firm of

SHEPARD & AUSTIN.

Having just returned from Baltimore, with an additional supply of

BOOTS & SHOES,

And a quantity of first rate

MATERIALS,

The subscribers feel confident from their own personal experience in the above business, to give general satisfaction to all who may give them a call.

Boots and Shoes,

Of all descriptions made in the best and most fashionable manner and at the shortest notice.

All orders will be thankfully received and punctually attended to.

WM. H. SHEPARD,

WM. AUSTIN.

Easton, May 9 6t

WAS committed to the jail of Baltimore city and county, on the 20th day of May ult by W. A. Schaffer, Esq. a Justice of the Peace in and for the city of Baltimore, a negro man, as a runaway, [illegible] Wesley Armstrong; has a scar on his r[illegible] and one on his left leg, height 5 feet 10 [illegible] says he is free and was raised by his m[illegible] in Salisbury, E. S. Md. Had on when committed a pair blue pants, green wamus, [illegible] vest, check shirt, tarpaulin hat, and a pair of shoes.

The owner (if any) of the above [illegible] negro man, is requested to come [illegible] prove property, pay charges, and take him away, otherwise he will be discharged according to law.

D. HERRING, Warden of Baltimore city and county jail.

June 6

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc4925_scm13074-0806