THE PROSPECT.

It not unusally happens that a victory proves defeat. We hesitate not to predict that the Republican discomfiture in New York will prove a victory. Nothing has occurred like that event for years to arouse and rally the Democratic party. It is rising from its sparky like a strong man after sleep. From Maine to Louisiana, from the Atlantic to the far West, it is rising in its strength, like one man. From every side we receive the most cheering indications of the noble spirit which is stirring the public mind. The faction which is riding on the exultation of temporary success, will ere long receive its final death blow.

In the great State of New York, the people, the true people, are indignant at a result brought about by the apathy of the many and the treachery of the few. They did not suspect the game that was to be played. They have fallen to sleep to a voice which exclaimed "peace, when there was no peace." That the late election is not an expression of the popular sentiment, is incontrovertibly proved by the fact that the Federal vote fell, by many thousands, below that of 1834, when that party experienced a humiliating defeat. This is established, beyond contradiction, by the official returns. The tone of the public mind in the Empire State could not be better. The leading Democratic journals are sounding a cheering note. The indifferent are aroused; the fearful are reassured; the treacherous are destroyed. The people of that great Republican State cannot brook with patience the idea that they are to be chained to the car of Federalism. They will not easily pardon the insulting declaration of one of their representatives, that they have been, until lately, enslaved and redeemed; that they ask pardon of Massachusetts; that great as they are in all the elements of wealth and grandeur, they are only to stand by the side of Massachusetts! But the effect abroad is, if any thing, still more encouraging. The pernicious influence of politics in banking has assumed so formidable a shape, as to excite universal alarm. Everyone, who loves his country, who is concerned in the purity of her institutions, is shocked at the spectacle which has just been witnessed—the act of a great State carried against the wishes and principles of a large majority by a coup de main, oppressed and overwhelmed by a power not known to the Constitution—an influence which should not be political, but exclusively mercantile. Every noble mind, every generous spirit, revolts at the very idea. In this influence there is nothing that appeals to the higher feelings of our nature—nothing which can excite the ardor of patriotism. The extravagancies committed by the mercenary party which has momentarily triumphed, have filled the people with disgust.—Federalism, which has been crushed for forty years, has again dared to show its face, and to hope for the triumph of its doctrines. It has thrown off its hypocritical mask, and revealed itself in its true lineaments. The old cry of "Adams and Liberty" again rings upon the air. The memory of the illustrious Jefferson is insulted—his character defamed—his principles reviled. Democracy is openly scoffed at, and doctrines utterly incompatible with its existence are vehemently proclaimed. But those men who can no longer conceal their contempt for their supposed inferiors, [illegible] with their host. It is not the triumph of a State, which the momentary capture of a State, which can crush and eradicate the principles of Republicanism. They are inborn and [illegible] with the people, who cherish them with fa[illegible] reverence. The people will [illegible] in hopes and instinct [illegible] principles they [illegible] for the moment by [illegible] speculators and intriguers [illegible] are too intelligent, too well [illegible] their real and permanent interests, to [illegible] themselves to become the victims of designing and the hishonest. A knot of intriguers cannot control & enchain this great and free nation.

The Federalists are right to make haste and enjoy a triumph, which, according to one of their organs, comes but once in an age. They do well to fire their guns, and waste their powder, & illuminate their windows, & gascouade amid "wine and wassail." It is the last carouse of a suicide, the drunken revelry of a prisoner on the eve of execution. Soon shall their house of mirth be turned into one of mourning.

WHOOROR! THE PEOPLE TRIUMPH. ANT! GREAT WHIG GAIN!! NEW HOLLAND, AFRICA, ALGIERS—WHOOROR!!

New-Holland has gone for the Whigs by a majority of THREE MILLIONS AND A HALF!! The Whig Nett gain since last year immense.—Returns from New Zeland are most flattering.—By the last returns, our candidate was so far a head you could'nt see him! Whooror!

[Since the foregoing was in type a correspondent from Africa informs us that the Whigs have carried the entire coast by an INCREASED MAJORITY! Great hopes are entertained for the interior. Algiers has done nobly—she is disenthralled. All hail! NOT A SINGLE DEMOCRAT ELECTED IN THE PARTS YET HEARD FROM!!

[If the above is not in the Boston Atlas, we expect it will be.]—Burlington (Vt.) Sentinel.

A NEW SENATOR.—The duty of appointing an U. States Senator, to supply the vacancy occasioned by the death of the Hon. Joseph Kent, will we presume develve upon the Legislature of the State. The whig papers we see are already busy in recommending some one, and some another, favorite for the high station.

It is a matter in which we feel but little interest for under our present blessed Constitution, the minority have the power to create all our officers. But we will say, that however elevated and honorable the station, it can neither ennoble the person who is appointed to it, under our present form of government, or afford to any high minded and honorable man, a cause of gratification. He must go into the Senate, as an interloper, who knows that if the majority of the people, had been consulted he could not have been placed there. But there are men enough to be found in the whig ranks, who will agree to take this or any other station of honor or profit, even if they had to submit to the degradation of being kicked in.

It is well recollected that the Whig Senate of this State, was formed by the electors, representing about one seventh of the population. The whigs elected at the last delegate election, 50 delegates, representing a white population of one hundred and three thousand seven hundred and eighty five, while the Republicans elected 36 delegates, representing a white population of one hundred and eighty seven thousand four hundred and seven. The Senate and House of Delegates, thus composed are to elect the United States Senator, and he is to be passed off, as the representative of the State of Maryland. To take his stand among the other Senators of the Union—like an irredeemable shin-plaster among a handful of golden coin, a fictitious trifle, without value.

Frederick Citizen.

From the Washington Globe of the 4th inst.

The second session of the Twenty-fifth Congress commenced to-day. The attendance in both Houses was more numerous than had been anticipated. In the Senate, on motion of Mr. GRUNDY, a message was transmitted to the House of Representatives, informing that body that the Senate had organized, and was ready to proceed to business. A committee was appointed, on motion of Mr. WRIGHT, to join with a committee of the House, and inform the PRESIDENT of their organization, and their readiness to receive any communication that he might think fit to make. A message was received from the House, informing the Senate that a quorum was present, and also of the appointment of a committee to wait on the PRESIDENT, and advise him that they were ready to receive such communications as he might deem proper to make. The ordinary resolution in reference to supplying Senators with newspapers was adopted, and the Senate adjourned.

In the House, one hundred and sixty three members answered to their names. Resolutions similar to those of the Senate were adopted, and an adjournment took place.

BANKS.—A writer in the Philadelphia Pennsylvanian submits for the consideration of the legislature of that State the following proposition for regulating her banks:

"No bank to divide more than 7 per cent. per annum—the surplus to go to the State.

"No bank to issue notes under $10.

"No bank to issue more than 2 1 2 or 3 dollars in notes to one in specie.

"Every bank that shall not resume specie payments within 6 months from January 1, 1838, to forfeit its charter.

"Would not these regulations secure society, which is the first great object, against future suspensions by our local banks?"

DECLARATION OF A RECLAIMED INFIDEL.—Dr John E. Cook, Professor of the Theory and Practice of Physic Transylvania University, though once a member of the infidel corps, thus concludes an Introductory Lecture to a Medical Class.

"I unhesitatingly say, not only that I am perfectly convinced of the truth of the Christian Revilation, from a close and patient examination of its claims on the testimony presented; but I believe that better testimony could not be offered, could not be devised in support of it, and that no man is left unconvinced who has given the subject a thorough investigation unless he is kept from it by a state of mind the most deplorable which we can conceive—a state of enmity against the God that made him the Saviour who redeemed him, leading him to refuse to come to the light because his deed are evil."

The design of this lecture was to show that the study of medicine has no sceptical tendency. [Petersburg Intelligencer.

We regret to learn that in consequence of serious domestic calamities, the Hon. Mr. MOULTON, of the Senate and the Hon. RICE GARLAND, of the House of Representatives, from Louisiana, have been called to their homes. They are now on their way to their families, and will not be able to return before the first of Jan[illegible]

The following highly important intelligence is given in the publication of the 2d:—

"Odd Fellows"—The Natchez Courier speaks of the benevolent exertions of the fraternity of "ODD FELLOWS," during the recent scourge of the yellow fever in that city, in warm terms of approbation.

James Ferris has been found guilty, before the United States Circuit Court at New York of making spurious coins of various denominations—the penalty for which crime is a fine not exceeding $5000, or imprisonment not exceeding ten years.

The federalists are talking about their "fathers of the revolution." One of their fathers about those days, was caught carrying chickens to the British while they laid in Philadelphia and several other things about them times, while our "Democratic fathers of the revolution" out fighting for freedom.—Ohio Statesmen.

ANOTHER RESIGNATION.—Mr. Cuthbert United States Senator from Georgia, has, resigned his seat in the Senate, in consequence of ill health. It is said that Governor Schley, Mr. Spalding and Gen. Watson are candidates to fill the vacancy.

BANK ROBBER CAUGHT.

The celebrated Bank robber, Thurston, who by means of forged checks and bills of exchange swindled the banks last spring in Milledgeville Columbus, Mobile, Charleston, and some of the Northern cities to the amount of about $100,000, has after a long chase been caught by Mr. Thos. Banks of this city. He was taken in Louisville, Ky., at the Theatre, and is now in jail at this place. He is said by those who have seen him to be a most accomplished villain. We have not understood how much of the money has been recovered.

MARYLAND IN ADDITION TO HER PRESENT ROUTES.

The Steam Boat Maryland, will leave Baltimore every Sunday morning at 7 o'clock, for Annapolis, St. Michaels and Wye Landing, alias Powel's Landing, and return to Baltimore, by the same Route, every Monday, leaving Powel's Landing at 8 o'clock, in the morning.

The Boat will pursue the above and her other Routes as heretofore, so long as the weather will permit, that is to say, she will leave Baltimore every Tuesday and Friday mornings, at 7 o'clock for Annapolis, Cambridge and Easton, and return to Baltimore every Wednesday and Saturday, leaving Easton at 7 o'clock, A. M.

THE ADVANTAGES OF THIS NEW ROUTE, will be obvious to the Citizens of St. Michaels and the neighbourhood, the upper part of Talbot, Queen Anns and Delaware, after a short trial. The intercourse between Annapolis and Baltimore and their respective places of residence, will certainly be rendered more expeditious, safe and convenient than any heretofore offered to them. It is to be hoped therefore, encouragement will be given to the owners of the Boat to continue this route.

ADVANTAGES.

So long as the Steam Boat shall continue the above routes, St. Michaels will get the news, &c. from Baltimore and Annapolis, every Sunday and Wednesday, Centreville every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday; Cambridge every Tuesday and Friday; and Easton, every Monday, Tuesday and Friday.

Trustees of the Steam Boat Maryland.
