his colleague in debate—Mr. Campbell and Mr. Maury of Tennessee, who blacked each others eyes in a pugilistic rencontre—Mr. Biddle of Pennsylvania, who flung an inkstand at the head of a member—and Mr. Fletcher of Massachusetts, who was obliged to eat up ("comma for comma,") certain foul charges against the Administration. Next in rank comes that notorious pimp, Matthew L. Davis; the "Spy in Washington," the libeller of Jefferson, the biographer of Aaron Burr, and chief scribe of the Federal party. He takes his seat in the gallery to record the wise sayings of this bevy of fighting, drinking, scuffling, and slanderous gentlemen, and forwards them to the Courier and Enquirer, edited by James Watson Webb, (the hero of so many unfought duels,) for publication. They are then copied into the Hartford Courant, edited by Dwight, the Secretary of the infamous Hartford Convention, and again into the Herald of this city, whose editor says: "Tom Jefferson was a scoundrel," and that "Jim Madison ought to have been hung."—New Haven Register.

THOMPSONIAN DOCTORS.—The Legislature of Maryland and Delaware have passed laws to enable Botanic Physicians to charge and receive compensation for their services and medicines in the same manner as other physicians are permitted to do.

TO DEMOCRATIC PAPERS.—Democratic papers throughout the Union, would do the party great service if they would publish a list of Whig officeholders under the General Government, or under a democratic state Administration, in their respective districts—and if they will send them to us, we will republish them, so that we shall then see to what extent this horrible proscription, prated about by the Whigs, is carried. Let them copy this article, that the subject may be taken up seriously. We consider the salvation of our party to depend upon a reform in these matters.—Metropolis.

REMARKABLE COINCIDENCE.—All the travellers on their return from Washington tell the same thing, viz: that Mr. Van Buren's re-election is about certain. It is also expected that there will be one more paper money explosion and panic before the election in 1840. The mischief makers must be on their guard. The people are getting tired of panics; and they will tolerate no more suspensions. If the whig party cannot keep alive, without recurrence to the "reign of terror," the people are ready to say, let it explode. [Providence (R. I.) Herald.

Mr. Swartwout, the absconding Collector of Customs, when he was turned out of office, was presented with a service Plate by his whig friends—the merchants. He was afterwards a favourite candidate of the whig party for nomination to Congress. Now, even as then, his whig friends stand by him, and a special committee of whig members of Congress has been sent on to New York, to whitewash his swindling operations, and lay the blame of his defalcation upon the government. Will they succeed?—Buffalo Republican.

DEATH OF HEZEKIAH NILES.—We regret to learn that this event, which his friends have for some time anticipated, took place at Wilmington, Del. yesterday morning. He had been for several years in declining health the result of a life of great labor, as the publisher of the "Register" which has rendered his name immortal.—Balt. Chron.

Died.

Departed this life, on yesterday morning after a lingering illness, Mrs. MARY C., wife of Mr Jacob C. Willson, of this place, in the 35th year of her age. The deceased possessed many noble virtues, endeared by a large circle of friends and acquaintances; she was a pious and affectionate mother of four children that now fall on the entire care of her bereaved husband. The friends and acquaintances of the deceased, are invited to attend the funeral on Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock, without further notice.
