WHIG PRINCIPLES.

We are informed that several tailors, or clothing manufacturers of the federal whig party, have reduced the price of making coats, ONE DOLLAR on each coat since the Election! This is a serious blow aimed at the Journeymen Tailors, especially to the adopted citizens of that trade, for their having dared to vote the democratic ticket at the late election. We refrain at this time, from publishing names, having the hope that such despicable political persecution will be repented of.—N. Y. Era.

BROOKLYN.—The average majority in Brooklyn at the recent charter election is 50. Last year it went Federal by 390 majority Democratic gain in one year 340.

ARRIVAL OF THE GREAT WESTERN. SIXTEEN DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

The steam-ship Great Western reached New York at an early hour on Monday morning, after, a very boisterous passage. She left Bristol on her regular day, the 23d March. She brings London and Liverpool accounts to 22d March inclusive, and Bristol to 23d inclusive. From the journals before us we make up the following very interesting summary of intelligence:

BOUNDARY QUESTION.

The England, which left New York on the 2nd of March, arrived at Liverpool on the 19th. She carried out the President's Message relative to the North Eastern boundary, and the "Memorandum," or temporary arrangement, concluded at Washington between the British Minister and Mr. Forsyth, Secretary of State. In short, at the departure of the Great Western, the British government and people were in possession of the worst features of the case; yet they seem to have received it with tolerable equanimity, and to have anticipated no other than a pacific termination of the dispute. The spirit of the government is seen in the annexed paragraph from the London Morning Chronicle, and as for the people, we learn through a British subject who came passenger in the Great Western, that they manifested very little effervescence on the occasion. Even the Times is adverse to war, and proposes a compromise on terms which, if we understand them, Maine would probably be ready to accede to.

The London Morning Chronicle (government paper) of March 21st says,—"The intelligence from the United States, is upon the whole, of a satisfactory character. Notwithstanding the disposition of the citizens of Maine, and the apprehensions which a portion of the American press entertains that some hasty and inconsiderate proceedings of that State may precipitate events, we are strongly disposed to confide in the Central government, without whose approbation it is scarcely possible that a general collision should take place. Where the disposition is so manifestly good, we are justified in anticipating a peaceful issue."

The temporary adjustment of the Boundary dispute appears to have given general satisfaction to the London press, and even the most ultra of the anti-American journals have manifested a degree of moderation on the subject which was hardly expected.

The Herald, it is true, recommends the immediate sending of 20,000 men and 10 sail of the line to the North American coast; and the Standard affirms that no diplomacy but that of cannon and bayonets can be relied on; but the Times—the thunderer of the British press—discourses on the matter in the following moderate and reasonable manner.

We have heard from high and grave authorities in the United States, men whom we believe to have been really conscientious in their allegation, that there could be not a shadow of doubt as to the right of Maine to the whole of the disputed territory; these persons at the same time intimating a strong conviction that the bone contended for was not worth to either country a dozen human lives.

It now appears that, however the joint memorandum of Messrs. Forsyth and Fox may be calculated to avert, (am. God grant it may succeed in doing so), any immediate appeal to violence and bloodshed, the tone of the senators who have spoken upon the subject corresponds minutely with that of the Senate which put aside the arbitration of 1830-31, and insisted that England had no right to the least portion of the soil contended for. Although, therefore, measures humane and considerate have been pursued on this occasion to postponing the armed conflict, and saving the irregular and precipitate effusion of blood, nothing has taken place to encourage the least hope that by any expedient but surrender if the whole subject in dispute, will this country be able to calculate on a more than transient gleam of repose for her provinces in North America.

The proposal of Mr. Webster to take possession of the disputed territory on the 4th of July does not appear to have produced much excitement. It is remarkable that the whole affair had produced no variation in the funds.

The subject of the President's message, and the proceedings of Congress had not, however, been brought before parliament before the departure of the Great Western.

A correspondent of the Bristol Mirror, whose letter is dated London, March 21, says—"In London the news from the United States has not produced the variation of a solitary fraction in the funds. People here seem to treat the idea of a war with America as an absurdity."

DEATH OF A U. S. SENATOR.—By the Logansport Herald, Extra, of the 6th instant, we have news of the death of Gen. John Tipton, late a Senator of the United States from the State of Indiana. At the moment of apparent good health, he was attacked, on the night of the 4th inst., with what was called an apoplexy of the lungs, of which he expired on the afternoon of the day following.

General Tipton was a native of Tennessee, aged about 55, and had during his life, rendered valuable service in different public stations.

DEATH OF A VETERAN.—The Hon. Benjamin Pierce, late Governor of New Hampshire, and father of the present Senator from that state, died at his residence in Hillsborough, on the 1st inst. at the advanced age of 82 years.

BRITISH DESPATCHES—Mr Kaye, a government messenger from Great Britain, arrived in the Great Western with despatches to the British minister at Washington.

SUICIDE.—The Albany Argus says:—"We learn, with deep regret, that C. G. De Witt, Esq. our late Charge to Guatimala, who has recently returned to this country, on his passage up the river yesterday, (the 12th inst.) cut his throat on board the Rochester, a few miles below Newburg. The act was done in his birth, and was not immediately discovered. He was taken ashore at Newburg, under the charge of his son, and died in a few minutes.

The State bank of Alabama has again suspended specie payments. Before the suspension it is said the directors and a few of their friends accommodated themselves to most of its capital!

NEW WHIG DEFINITION.—Proscription, to remove a man from office after holding it for 20 years.—Trenton Emporium.

Hon. Peter D Vroom, of N. J. has been appointed a vice president of the American Bible Society, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of the Hon. Stephen Van Rensselaer.—[Trenton Emporium.

The private banks at Wetumpka and Selma have suspended specie payments.

BLOWN UP.—The Southwark Savings Bank, and the Pennsylvania Savings Bank, of this city, on Saturday, suspended the redemption of their notes.—Philadelphia Paper.

Doctor Franklin appeared at the French court as American minister in "blue yarn stockings." It soon appeared as though he had been introduced upon this splendid theatre to demonstrate that great genius like true beauty "needs not the aid of ornament" The court were so dazzled by the brilliancy of his mind, that they never looked at his stockings.

A carpenter having met his employer in the street the latter reminded him of the gratitude due for his patronage.

"True," said the mechanic—"but if you had not patronized me so far as to give me a house to build you would have been obliged to live out of doors."

BEFORE AND AFTER ELECTION.—The New Era says that the Federalists have been fawning and flattering round among our Irish fellow citizens for a few days past, in a manner that contrasts most ludicrously with the usual abuse which they lavish upon them; but their object is very well understood, as is apparent from a very shrewd remark made by an Irish mechanic on Saturday last. Having received from a Whig Committee a printed circular addressed to "Patrick Mc., Esq.," he shrugged up his shoulders and observed—"Och, honey, yes, yes; Esquire Patrick before election, but d——d Paddy, after."

GREAT MATCH RACE—$10,000 A SIDE.

Between Boston and Portsmouth.

Two Mile Heats.—This match came off at New Market to day, and was won by Portsmouth in two heats.

First Heat.—Portsmouth got the track, and the start about 12 steps, and won the heat easily—Time, 3 minutes, 50 seconds.

Second Heat.—Both had a fine start, and the heat was all go along on the part of Boston, from the word "GO." At one time he came up and collared Portsmouth, but was soon shaken off and beaten by ten yards —Time 3m. 48s.

This time is the fastest second heat ever run at New Market; the track, too, was rather heavy.

An immense amount of money has been lost on Boston The odds in his favor this morning were 5 to 1.—Petersburg Intelligencer, April 6.

MOST HORRID AFFAIR.—The Chicago Democrat says:—"Just as our paper was going to press, the news of a very distressing murder of a man and his wife on the line of the canal in Will county, reached the city. The man in a wrangle had given serious offence to a few of his fellow laborers, who came to his house, and while he was standing before them trying to explain the difficulty, one of them plunged a bowie knife into his bowels, and ripped him entirely open His wife, in another room, hearing his dying shriek, left the house to give the alarm. But the laborers called her, assuring her that no harm was done to her husband, and that they wanted to see her. She returned, and no sooner had she entered the room than the knife, wet with the blood of her husband, was plunged into her, and she fell dead upon his body, not yet cold. The murderers have been arrested."

LOCO-FOCO'S.—Say what you will about the Loco Foco's, there is no people existing, that are able to surpass them in patriotism, good sense, mirthfulness, keen joking, good character, &c. They always have the winward of the Whigs in every thing where doctrine is concerned, and are sure to beat them at the elections —Boston Post.

The Princess Charlotte Bonaparte, daughter of Joseph Bonaparte, died at Sarzanne, Italy, about the beginning of March.

Died

But their loss was her gain. Mrs. S. had been a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church for a number of years, and rejoiced in that which awaits the righteous. *

☞A. Letter from Mr. Sheldon P. Gilbert, to Dr. Wm. Evans, proprietor of the celebrated Camomile Pills:

Dear Sir—Had the immortal Cowper known the medical qualities of the Camomile Plant, he as well as thousands since (besides myself) would have experienced its wonderful effects on the nervous system. The public utility of Cowper was blighted in the bud, through the natural effect of his nervous debility upon the mental powers, which made it necessary for him to seek relief beneath the rural shade, but the calm retreat gave his physical nature no repose. If some one then had known the secret of concentrating the medical virtues of Camomile, the discoverer would have been immortalized with poetic zeal as the benefactor of suffering man.
