LOCALS IN MINION.

Publications.—Frank Leslie's Sunday Magazine for April is redolent with the breath of spring, which is soon to break all over the land. Here we have picture and poem, song and story, carrying with them the graceful recognition of re-awakening Nature. As usual with this magazine, there are many profusely illustrated articles, for instance, "Missionary and Social Life Among the Japanese," is an article of to-day, and its illustrations are of the present. The ninth and last of the late Mr. Powell's "Leaves from my Life," treats of Talfourd and Rev. Robert Montgomery, and with it is given a portrait of Mr. Powell himself. A new serial story by Mary Linskill, entitled "In Exchange for a Soul," opens the number and promises to be a strong romance. There are several beautiful full page engravings and this number will be generally recognized as an excellent one.

"Allan Quartermain; or, a Frowning City," the new story by the author of "She," increases in interest in Demorest's Monthly for April, and promises to rival its predecessor in wonderful adventure. The other contents of the April number of Demorest's are equally interesting. Enterprise is shown on every page of this family magazine. Not only are the best authors secured, but selections are made so as to make up a magazine giving information upon every point relative to the household. A lady possessing its valuable aid does not even have to buy her dress patterns for herself and children, as they are furnished free and in any size required. The small subscription price ($2) saves hundreds of dollars in waste and worry and furnishes reading matter that interests the whole family. Published by W. Jennings Demorest, 17 East 14th street, New York.

The April number of Our Little Ones brings the breath of Spring with it. Its bright, entertaining stories and pretty illustrations are sure to please the little folks. Russell Publishing Co., 36 Bromfield St., Boston, Mass.

Babyhood for April is particularly interesting and valuable to young mothers and to parents generally. Its leading article on "Habitual Constipation and its Domestic Management," by Dr. Louis Starr, Professor of Diseases of Children in the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania, is a practical discourse on the causes, relief and prevention of this distressing condition so common among young children. It contains several lists of diet adapted to the powers of digestion of different ages of babies, the peculiar value of each article of food being pointed out. "Sore Throats" is discussed by Dr. Jerome Walker, who gives the methods of examining the throat, and its appearance in the several diseases affecting it, as well as the course of treatment to be pursued. In the department of "Nursery Problems" careful advice is given upon "Late Teething," "Excessive Nose-Bleeding," "Colic Accompanying Nursing," "Grinding the Teeth," etc., and in the "Mother's Parliament," such matters as "Circumcision," "Temper in Babies," "Caring for the Finger-Nails," "Arsenic in Wall-Paper, "Flour Balls," etc., are discussed by the mothers themselves. 15 cents a number; $1.50 a year. Babyhood Publishing Co., 5 Beekman St., New York.

I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well." Since which time he has used it in his family for all Coughs and Colds with best results. This is the experience of thousands whose lives have been saved by this wonderful Discovery.
