ADDITIONAL LOCAL ITEMS

Personal.—John L. Thomas, of Cumberlanp, will soon remove to Baltimore, to begin his duties as State organizer of the Prohibition party.

The Lonaconing Review says Miss Emma Porter, of that place, "is visiting Frostburg friends."

Henry Mayer, of Gehauf & Mayer, furniture dealers and undertakers, has returned from his purchasing tour and is now ready to serve the public with anything within range of their lines. Mr. Mayer reports a very successful trip, particularly in a business sense.

Miss Annie Livengood, of Charleston, W. Va., who has been visiting friends here, returned home Thursday.

Deputy internal revenue collector W. R. Getty was in town Tuesday.

Miss May Frey is very ill with inflammatory rheumatism.

Mrs. O. J. Moat is reported ill in Florida.

N. M. Dean and W. J. Gooding are in Pittsburg.

A child of Michael Riley, at Ocean, aged 4 months, died on the 2d inst., and was interred here on the 4th.

C. M. McCulloh has returned from Iowa.

Improvements.—The meat store of Engle's Sons has been improved by a new floor, lowered to street level and a new glass front.

The "Palace Grocery" has a new glass front in prospect. The proprietor, John Chambers, contemplates adopting the modern fashion of full-page illustrations of goods, with Main street as the outlook. Outside of his newspaper correspondence he is not a bad man. He is quite enterprising and active, and is said to be a gentleman who at bottom enjoys considerable religion.

His neighbor, Joseph Jandorf, an old and popular merchant, is also stricken with the glass front fever, and will at an early day re-model his large building accordingly.

The JOURNAL trusts and believes all these improvements will pay the owners.

Found Dead in Bed.—Joseph Eberly, an old and well known citizen of this place, was found by his family dead in his bed Tuesday morning. He was in apparent good health on Monday; was on the street and cast his vote at the municipal election. His son, Charles, came from the west in time to attend the funeral at 4 p. m. Thursday. Mr. Eberly was 71 years old. His wife and several adult children survive. The family were much shocked by his death.

Publications.—Henry Jandorf, of this place, has accepted the agency for the "Story of Labor," by John C. Simonds. This is the best work of its kind published. It gives the complete history of Labor—its past and present condition and hope for the future in all nations, with engravings of all the leading men connected therewith. It is the only work with which Mr. Powderly is identified, having written the preface commending the manner in which it is gotten up.

The Peak Sisters.—This immensely popular family of girls, as announced in our advertising department, will appear here on the 19th inst. The assurances of a novel and elegant entertainment are most favorable, and from authorities entitled to thorough credence. The JOURNAL is pleased, therefore to give it complete endorsement by enjoining all lovers of the good and the beautiful to see the famous sisters.

Married.—At the parsonage of the M. E. Church, South, Thursday evening, April 7, 1887, by Rev. H. S. France, Mr. GEORGE C. ARNOLD and Miss LILLIE M. ATKINSON, both of this vicinity.

Theatrical.—Perhaps the best performance ever given in Frostburg was that by Mattie Vickers last Monday evening in Ravenscraft's Opera House. A full house was delighted by a star company.

Journalistic.—The Cumberland News entered its seventeenth year last Monday. It is a good paper, worthy of the support it receives, and we hope to chronicle many more and even brighter anniversaries.

TALK AT POMPEY.

VALE SUMMIT, April 7, 1887.

To the MINING JOURNAL.

Jacob Winters, of Davis mountain, has been quite ill for some time, caused by falling from a railway trestle between this place, and Lonaconing.

John Pryle, of this place, sick for several months past, we are glad to state, is out again.

Jacob Loar, sr., of Loarville, is on the sick list also.

Miss Maggie Orr, of Barton, has been visiting at George Cole's this week.

Michael Pryle, of this place, engaged at work in Pittsburg, for quite a while, returned home Tuesday.

Mr. Baker, of Mt. Savage, has been visiting friends at this place this week.
