Serious Fall.—John Timmens, a 15-year old son of Joseph Timmens, of this place, fell from a chestnut tree near town last Saturday afternoon and sustained severe injuries. Both arms were broken and it is feared that there are internal injuries of a serious character.

Personal.—Mr. and Mrs. George Hocking and daughter, Lula, and George Collins, of Meyersdale, Pa., spent part of this week with C. H. Walker's family.

Mr. and Mrs. King Delawder, of Oakland, and Dr. T. A. Cross, of Piedmont, W. Va., visited friends here this week.

Miss Lillie Fink, of Johnstown, Pa., is visiting the Misses Shaffer.

Mrs. Dr. Jacobs and daughter, Grace, left Thursday to visit Uniontown and Pittsburg friends.

Dr. J. M. Porter has been quite ill during the two weeks just past. We are happy to say that he is not seriously sick, and that he is convalescent. A nobleman by nature, a physician of long and thorough consecration to a high-born calling, the JOURNAL earnestly hopes his useful life may be prolonged for many years. He is one of the men whom a large mass of this community would not spare.

Mrs. Wm. A. Warner, of Detroit, Mich., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. R. Percy.

Miss Maud Sanner, daughter of Capt. R. R. Sanner, formerly of this place, is visiting friends in Cumberland.

Card of Thanks.

I TAKE this method of returning the heartfelt thanks of myself and family to our friends for their very kind assistance in our recent bitter bereavement. The members of the Baptist church, Allegany, No. 67, and Shenandoah, No. 73, Tribes of Improved Order of Red Men, the farmers and neighbors did all in their power to assist us. To all of them our lasting gratitude is due. My prayer is—may God prosper them all!

Business Change.

I HAVE sold to Mr. I. C. LAMBERT the goodwill, stock and fixtures of my drug store in Frostburg, and cordially commend him to the same partiality my numerous customers have so generously shown to me.

I shall remove from the State within the two months ensuing, during which time I hope to effect settlement with all who are indebted to me and to whom I am indebted.

GEORGE A. WINGERT.

I beg to add to Mr. WINGERT's card the hope that I shall be able to merit the continuance of the patronage he has enjoyed. To this end I shall secure the services of a thoroughly competent druggist at an early date. Meanwhile, Mr WINGERT will remain in the store and give the business his accustomed attention. Spring AND Summer BULLETIN.

IT is just ten days since the arrival of my Spring and Summer Goods, consist of the best made and trimmed, and the largest and cheapest line of

CLOTHING

Ever exhibited in a single store in Western Maryland. They consist of

Tailor-Made Suits

—FOR—

Men, Youths, Boys and Children.

Nobby and Stylish—perfect daisies, in fact—and as my stock is large they will be sold quickly and cheaper than elsewhere, and no mistake. My stock of

Gents Furnishing Goods

Hats, Caps, Trunks and Satchels.

CARPETS, OILCLOTHS

WILL BE SOLD EQUALLY CHEAP.

Don't forget, one and all, I mean business. Come right along, gentlemen, and bring your boys. Patronize home; patronize your merchants, who are with you in good and hard times; who join you in helping your churches and your poor. Besides, it is no use to pay railroad fare to go from home. I guarantee to show you a larger and better selected stock than any other clothing house in this county. Furthermore, from a legitimate standpoint of view, I guarantee each article cheaper than can be sold elsewhere. I ask you only to come and examine my stock and prices. It never was any trouble for me to show goods. You will then be fully convinced of the truth of my statements, both as to the very large stock and extremely low prices. Come early and avoid the rush.
