Order of Publication

John Glenn vs. Alice Totten and Bessie Totten, infant.	No. 3695. In the Circuit Court for Allegany county, Maryland. In Equity.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of a lot of ground situated in Allegany county, Maryland.

The Bill states:

1. That John Glenn, the plaintiff, in said cause, and a certain Bessie Totten, infant the only child and heir at law of William E. Totten, late of Springfield, Ohio, deceased, are seized in fee simple as tenants in common of a lot of ground, consisting of one-half acre, and situated in the town of Lonaconing, Maryland, the interest of the said Bessie Totten, infant, being subject to the dower interest of her the said Bessie Totten's mother, Alice Totten, the widow of the late William E. Totten, deceased.

2. That said property is incapable of division and is not susceptible of partition without loss and injury amongst the parties entitled thereto, and that it would be to the interest, advantage and benefit of the parties entitled thereto to have the same sold and converted into money, and the proceeds arising from said sale to be distributed among the parties entitled thereto according to their respective interests.

3. That the said Alice Totten and Bessie Totten, infant, are non-residents of this State and are now living at Yellow Springs, Green county, Ohio.

4. The Bill prays for a sale of the property and a distribution of the proceeds amongst the parties entitled thereto and for such other and further relief as the plaintiff's case may require, and for an order of publication against the non-resident defendants.

It is thereupon this 29th day of October, 1887, ordered by the Circuit Court for Allegany county, Maryland, in Equity, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Allegany county once in each of four successive weeks before the 5d day of December, 1887, give notice to the said absent defendants of the object and substance of this Bill, warning them to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor on or before the 10th day of March, 1888, next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
