MINING JOURNAL.

A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER.

FROSTBURG, MD., DECEMBER 17, 1887.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL ITEMS

County News.—Rev. C. J. Forsyth has resigned the pastorate of the Barton Presbyterian church.

The president of the American coal company, Gardner P. Lloyd, died at Orange, N. J., Wednesday. He was also treasurer of the Georges Creek and Cumberland railroad company. In 1866 he succeeded to the presidency of the American company by the retirement of the first president, M. B. Bramhall, the latter suggesting Mr. Lloyd, then secretary of the company, as his successor. Mr. Lloyd was a thorough business man, upright in all his dealings and altogether an amiable gentleman.

LOCALS IN MINION.

Brevities.—Johann Tauber's Columbus clock will be shown in Ravenscraft's Opera House Thursday, Dec. 22, and run four days. This is the clock exhibited here about eight years ago. It has been enlarged since and immensely improved. All should see it.

Notice Stern & Co's new advertisement. The JOURNAL should have said this last week. Also F. C. Beall's.

Organized.—The county commissioners-elect organized Monday as follows:
President—Samuel J. Edwards.
Clerk—Howard M. Fuller.
Attorney—Jasper N. Willison.
The salary of the clerk was reduced from $800 to $600; of the attorney from $400 to $200.
The board adjourned to meet Jan. 2, 1888.

Religious.—The second Sunday in January is fixed for the M. E. Church jubilee.

W. H. Villiers, a candidate for the ministry, is endeavoring by exhibition of stereopticon views to secure money to pay for his education in some religious college. The subjects are biblical, historical and comical, accompanied by lectures by Mr. V. The exhibition will be given Monday evening next in the M E. Church, South.

Personal.—John W. Nash, of Minneapolis, Minn., spent the week here with his mother. He was one of the committee soliciting the selection of his city for the next national republican convention, and stopped here on his return from Washington, D C. He is one of Frostburg's rising young representatives in the West. He takes great interest in Masonry, and we shall next week show how he has risen very nearly to the top round.

A. S. ABELL & CO. Publishers.

THE BALTIMORE WEEKLY SUN continues to preserve its position, maintained for many years, as a model Family Newspaper. During the past year, in order to accommodate the great variety of matter seeking admission to its columns, it has been found necessary to issue a supplement almost every week, presenting a home newspaper unequaled for freshness and variety. Its literary features are selected with discriminating taste and with special reference to the entertainment and instruction of the family circle. Its Agricultural and Veterinary Departments, edited by specialists, have been of great value to the Farmer, while its Fashion Articles, Household Recipes, etc., have continued to be be a source of weekly interest and instruction to ladies. The latest news up to the hour of publication is given in its correspondence and telegraphic dispatches, while its editorials, besides discussing current events in an impartial spirit, afford much wholesome advice and suggestion on social, economic and other topics. The proceedings of Congress, the Maryland and other Legislatures, the National Political Conventions, and the Presidential and Congressional election are among the important features that will be promptly and copiously presented in its columns during 1888.

Full Commercial, Financial, Cotton, Cattle Market and Stock Reports up to the hour of going to press.
