MINING JOURNAL.
A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER.
FROSTBURG, MD., FEBRUARY 11, 1888.

Publications.—The JOURNAL acknowledges with thanks a copy of the Edelweiss Waltzes from G. Kettlewell, composer. This music is published as a compliment to the National Guard of Maryland in handsomer shape and at greater expense than any ever issued in this State. The score is from Messrs. Otto Sutro & Co., the well-known music dealers of Baltimore, and the title page from the press of Messrs. Fiddis, Beatty & Co., it having been the aim of the composer to have all the work done at home; and it is gratifying to note that, from an artistic point of view, it is equal, if not superior, to any production incident to modern times. The portraits on the title page are those of Governor Henry Lloyd, Adjutant General James Howard, Generals Clinton P. Paine, Robert Oper, E. Law Rogers, Joseph Seth, and Col. William H. Love, Secretary of the Staff society.

The frontispiece of the February number of Our Little Ones is a charming illustration entitled "My Valentine." Among the well-written articles are "The Milkman's Horse," "Prince Charles' Lesson," "Helen's Birthday," and many others of equal merit. Russel Publishing Co., Boston, Mass.

It is not usual to credit New York with being a home of the Arts, but A. S. Southworth's sketchy article, "The Sculptors of New York," in Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly for February, will set some at least thinking. If commerce, manufacture and speculation can mulate wealth in this little island, it is dispensed as well, and sculptors have found patrons to enable them to develop their genius. A very timely article is given on the Presidents of the French Republic. These gentlemen do not seem able to serve out their terms as ours do, and hence their number will run up rapidly. They have had as many in sixteen years as we had in thirty. Of all countries in Europe, the one we hear least about is Portugal. She has no Nihilists, no revolutions; she is not going to fight Russia or annex Italy. She does not force people to emigrate. Evidently she is worth a transient look, and Noel Luthyen gives you what you will enjoy, "A Peep into Portugal." A lady whom fortune, fate and matrimony have linked with the army of this great republic tells us, in "A Lady's Account of Army Life in the Far West," how she and those like her manage to live at a fort hundred, five hundred miles from a dressmaker, and a thousand miles from a drygoods store. Mrs. C. Ingersoll Gara gives and illustrates sketches of beautiful scenes near Rochester; and "Convents in the Air" tells of the homes of some strange recluses in Asia Minor. E. Foster gives an enthusiastic account of the Cherokee Nation and its progress, and Professor Edson discusses, in a way that will delight good housewives, "The Milk Supply of Cities." Of the stories, beginning with the wonderful story "Prince Lucifer," "and including "A Quaker Masquerade," "A New Cleopatra," "An Assister of Providence," we need not speak. They commend themselves to all.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT

FROSTBURG, MD., Feb. 7, 1888.

TO THE OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF FROSTBURG LODGE, No. 39, I. O. O. F.—Dear Sirs and Brothers:

WE, your committee, appointed to draft appropriate resolutions expressive of the sense of this Lodge upon the loss by death of brother MORRIS JAMES, beg leave to report and respectfully recommend the adoption of the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, An all wise Providence has seen fit to call our brother, MORRIS JAMES, from time to eternity, thereby depriving a family of a good husband and father and this Lodge of a faithful member; therefore, be it—

Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to this dispensation of the Ruler of the Universe, and are admonished by it of the uncertain tenure of life, our minds are directed to that important injunction "be ye also ready."

Resolved, That in the death of brother MORRIS JAMES this Lodge has lost a consistent member, the community a good neighbor, and the bereaved family a tender husband and kind father.

Resolved, That we hereby express to the widow and orphans our heartfelt sympathy in this their sad bereavement, and while earthly friends may endeavor to assuage their sorrow and relieve their temporal necessities, we would kindly direct them to One who has promised to be a Husband to the widow and a Father to the fatherless for that peace which the world cannot give.

Resolved, That in respect to the memory of our deceased brother our Lodge room be draped in mourning for the space of thirty days, and the members wear the usual badge for the same period.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered on the minutes of this Lodge and a suitable copy presented to the family of the deceased; also a copy furnished the FROSTBURG MINING JOURNAL for publication.

Order of Publication

Thomas Terrel et al., Ex parte. } No. 3720 Equity. In the Circuit Court for Allegany county.

THE object of the petition in the above case is to change the name of Thomas Terrell to Thomas Bath, and of his wife Elizabeth Terrell, to Elizabeth Bath, and also to change the names of their infant children as follows: Kate Terrell, aged 16 years, to Kate Bath; Elizabeth Terrell, aged 13 years to Elizabeth Bath, and Laura Terrell, aged 11 years, to Laura Bath.

The petition states that the parties to this suit reside in Allegany county; that the children are infants, and the reasons for changing said names are as follows:

The father of the petitioner, Thomas Terrell, died in England when said petitioner was a small child, and his mother afterwards married Henry Bath and subsequently emigrated to America, bringing with her the said petitioner, who still being young, was generally called and known by the name of his stepfather, Bath, and of which name his children are now known; that he belongs to a number of fraternal and beneficial societies in all of which he is registered by the name of Bath, and under this name he conducts his business affairs; that on the registration books of this county he appears in his true name, which leads to confusion and trouble, and that the petitioners desire legally to have the name by which they are familiarly known in the community in which they reside.

It is thereupon this 24 day of February, 1888, by the Circuit Court for Allegany county, sitting as a Court of Equity, ordered—

That the petitioners cause a copy of this order, with the object and substance of the petition, to be inserted in some newspaper published in Allegany county once a week for three successive weeks prior to the 27th day of February, 1888, giving notice to whom it may concern to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor on or before the 5th day of March, 1888 to show cause, if any there be, why a decree shall not be passed as prayed.
