Deaths.—James Wilson, of Flintstone, died at that place Friday of last week, aged 66. He was a member of the Maryland House of Delegates at one time, and always a popular and highly respected citizen. He was an uncle of Dr. H. C. Wilson, of this place.

Brevities.—B. Stern, now making a business tour of the oriental cities of the United States, expects to have a stock of goods here next week that beats all. He asked the JOURNAL to put folks on their guard against making purchases before he gets back.

The immense demand for extra copies of the JOURNAL means that many people who need the paper do not take it. Fortunately we anticipated the rush and so far have been able to supply all comers and orders. But don't pay 5 cents when, by subscribing, it will be furnished at less than 3.

Marx Wineland has gone east to buy goods, goods, goods. He returns word to the JOURNAL that "he who buys before his clothing gets here will make a big mistake."

A little electric light talk going.

Joseph Bear is among those who joined in a hegira eastward for a new stock of clothing. Joe is a rustler.

Corns.—The JOURNAL has learned that—

Corns are of two kinds—vegetable and animal. Vegtable corn grows in rowses; animal corns grow on toeses. There is the unicorn, capricorn, field corn, and the corn that feels the most. It is said, we believe, that gophers like corn; but persons having corns do not like to "go fur" if they can help it. Corns have kernels, and some colonels have corns. The doctor says corns are produced by tight boots and shoes, which is probably the reason why when a man is tight they saw he is corned. If a farmer manages well he gets a good deal of corn on an acre, but we know of a farmer that has one corn that makes the biggest acher on his farm. Folks that have corns sometimes send for the doctor, and if the doctor is corned it would be better if they had not sent for him.

They should do as the JOURNAL did Thursday when it employed Prof. Alfred J. Henesy, chiropodist, of Philadelphia, to remove four ot the worst squatter sovereigns that ever staked off lots on a man's foot. The operation was quick and painless—not 33⅓ per cent. of the hurt that one of these hateful excrescences inflict when they intimate that the weather is about to change to damp and raw. Get him to remove your bad weather bureau when he calls.

Journalistic.—Among the items left over last week was a complimentary reference to the Cumberland News upon its advent to the eighteenth year. It is not too late to say that the JOURNAL rejoices over the assurances given in the News' own modest mention of the fact that it is firmly founded, and that its future was never more auspicious of success and usefulness.

The accomplished editor of the Cumberland Times, John W. Avirett, spent last Sunday in Frostburg, the guest of Mrs. A. M. Devecmon. Like all discriminating visitors, he early became enamored of our salubrious atmosphere, charmed with our pellucid water, captivated by our magnificent scenery, and infatuated with our loveable ladies. Under these circumstances the JOURNAL hopefully expects to see him often, and hereby bids him perpetual welcome to the metropolis.

Two issues of a neat little paper named St. Joseph's Echo have reached the JOURNAL. It is a monthly, published by the St. Joseph's Literary Association, of Baltimore, and commands chief notice because Rev. J. J. Dillon, son of Mrs. C. Lynch, of this place, leads the list of five editors. He is one of the pastors of St. Joseph's church, now holding a fair. In this connection we learn from the Echo that—

Mr. Edward Browning, brother of Senator Browning, of Garrett county, visited the fair last week.

And from the history of St. Joseph's church:

The first secular clergyman appointed to the pastorship was the Rev. Michael Slattery, then engaged in missionary duties at Frostburg, Allegany county, Md. He assumed charge of the church in June, 1869, and held the position until his death in 1876.

Robert McDonald, of the Cumberland News, and Miss Eleanor Humbird, of Cumberland, were married Thursday evening, 12th inst. The JOURNAL, as a benedict, welcomes Robert to fraternity in the highest and oldest degree known among men.
