ADDITIONAL LOCAL ITEMS.

The County's Business.—The county commissioners met Monday and approved bonds of the collectors.

J. B. Oder, appointed for the third collection district, declined, and John L. Porter was elected in his stead.

Died—Mrs. Mary Porter, wife of Josiah M. Porter, of Eckhart, died May 9, 1888, aged 45 years. She was born in Monmouthshire, Wales, and came to this county in 1855, where she has since resided. Her husband and eight children survive. She was a most estimable lady, and her death is lamented by a large circle of relatives, connections and friends.

School Affairs.—The new deal has occasioned considerable speculation among the interested.

A law passed by the late Legislature requires that agriculture be taught in the State normal and public schools of the counties.

The trustees have appointed Clayton Purnell principal of Public School No. 1, this place. He will doubtless be confirmed to-day, if action has not been taken already.

Personal.—H. D. Black, of New York, 54 years ago a resident of Frostburg, paid the Journal a call last Saturday and it was good for him to be here. The best of all—he is coming again.

W. W. Picking, of Somerset, Pa., traveling passenger agent of the B. & O. R., came in yesterday to tell the Journal about an excursion to Pittsburg next Thursday, 17th inst. Round trip tickets from Mt. Savage junction $2.95. Train leaving here at 7:20 a. m. connects with B. & O. at junction in time to leave there at 8:10.

Brevities.—Miss E. V. Wilson, daughter of Dr. H. C. Wilson, this place, received Tuesday the elegant silver pitcher drawn at the Joseph's church fair in Baltimore. It is a costly, handsome prize, and the little lady is justly proud of her good fortune.

Henry Kafer, of Ocean, buried an infant child in Allegany cemetery Tuesday.

A two-act drama, entitled "On His Last Legs," is announced for Monday, 21st inst., in Moat's Opera House.

Don't forget the Frost Mansion sale Saturday, 19th inst.

Charles Reichenbach has opened in the former residence of Marx Wineland one of the handsomest saloons in this part of the State. His talk is "a firstclass place and firstclass goods," and they do say he is talking correctly.

Mrs. Jandorf is in New York purchasing new goods for her customers.

John Chambers is opening out in big and handsome shape—two rooms now on Main street and the grocery business growing accordingly.

A number of items crowded out—politics and social.

John Ryan, president of the John Ryan company, type founders, died at his residence in Baltimore Tuesday afternoon, aged 68. He was for many years one of Baltimore's best citizens. A personal and business friend of the Journal, the news of his death brings sadness akin to that which overshadows his stricken family.

The trial of the Hitchins Bros. damage case terminated Wednesday with a verdict of $225 against the town of Frostburg.

Religious.—Rev. E. C. Jessup will preach to-morrow (Sunday) morning at the English Lutheran church on "Life's Reach Possibilities." In the evening he will deliver a short lecture on "The Limitations of Art." The church extends a cordial invitation to all.

Before his sermon Sunday morning, 20th ult., Rev. Father DeWulf, pastor of St. Michael's church, said he felt it his bounden duty to refer to the scandalous behavior of some of the people in Eckhart on the previous Sunday. He said he was mortified to acknowledge that some of these rowdies belonged to his flock. Continuing in calm, conversational tones he said:

I am far from being a fanatic with regard to the liquor question. When a man walks a mile or two miles from his home to the mines, and two or three more underground, labors hard all day and comes home, his clothes all wet, late in the day, thinks a drink will benefit him, let him take it. But let him stop there and keep away from the grog shops in the locality where he lives. I most seriously deprecate these monthly spres such as the community was annoyed by last Sunday. If it were in my power I would not give a stroke of work to such people. For the sake of their wives and children I might give them one or two warnings, but I would never tolerate a third offence and would listen to no entreaties, for these confirmed drunkards cannot expect others to have mercy upon their families if they have none themselves. Persons who sell liquor must keep their places locked up on Sundays and give liquor to no one on any plea. I will use every effort in my power to have these monthly drunkards driven out of this community, especially those of my congregation or who pretend to belong to it. I feel deeply mortified to be called the pastor of a congregation having members who will disgrace the community as some did last Sunday. If such a thing is repeated I warn them that I will leave no stone unturned until I get rid of such people. If a man cannot use liquor in moderation he must leave it alone entirely and take the total abstinence pledge. Hear what the III. Plenary Council of Baltimore says with regard to saloon keepers: "In view of the many and grave dangers and occasions of sin that feed the trade of intoxicating liquors, we solemnly admonish such of the faithful as may be engaged in this business, lawful though it may be in itself, to choose if they can some more becoming way of making a living; otherwise let them at least not sell liquor on Sundays, nor to minors, nor to such as will abuse it.

Worth Knowing.—Mr. W. H. Morgan, merchant, Lake City, Fla., was taken with a severe Cold, attended with a distressing Cough and running into Consumption in its first stages. He tried many so-called popular cough remedies and steadily grew worse. Was reduced in flesh, had difficulty in breathing and was unable to sleep. Finally tried Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption and found immediate relief, using about a half dozen bottles found himself well and has had no return of the disease. No other remedy can show so grand a record of cures as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Guaranteed to do just what is claimed for it. Trial bottle free at I. C. Lambert's Drug Store.

Oh, What A Cough.—Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50 cents, to run the risk and do nothing for your Cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves Croup and Whooping Cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For Lame Back, Side or Chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by I. C. Lambert.

CHAPTER 340.—An Act to provide for the indexing of the records in the office of the county commissioners of Allegany county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the county commissioners of Allegany county be and they are hereby authorized if in their judgment deemed advisable so to do, to procure suitable books for a general index of the records of the proceedings of said office, and have the clerk to said commissioners as soon as practicable thereafter complete said general index.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted, That upon completion of said indexing to the satisfaction of the commissioners of said county they shall levy to said clerk, as other county charges are levied, such sum of money as the indexing of the records prior to the passage of this act, shall amount to at the rate of ten cents a name or item so indexed, provided that the aggregate amount shall not exceed the sum of six hundred dollars.

SECTION 3. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved— ELIHU E. JACKSON, Governor.
GEORGE M. UPSHUR, Speaker House of Delegates.
GEORGE PETER, President of the Senate.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of an act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed January session, 1888.

BIG MISTAKE
CORRECTED!

SOME persons heve reported and others believed that I intend removing from here.

In order to set everyone right I would emphatically say

THIS IS A MISTAKE!

I am here to stay, and have just returned from the eastern markets with the largest, most fashionable, and cheapest stock of

CLOTHING, GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, CARPETS, OILCLOTHS TRUNKS, SATCHELS, HATS AND CAPS,

Ever brought to a single establishment in our county. Moreover, as I am cramped for room to store all my goods, I will sell every article at about 6 per cent. profit—at least for the next thirty days.

I have not time nor space to put all on paper; therefore, I have mentioned but a few articles in order that you may appreciate and realize that all should come—not wait, but come at once and examine goods and prices. No one in want of goods, will leave my store without buying, but you should come right along before the rush begins and the assortment is broken.

☞ All persons coming by rail buying goods of me will have their fare paid both ways.

Don't forget that my place is opposite C. F. Nickel's furniture store—the first clothing store as you come from the depot. Thankful for past favors, I am respectfully,
