Rev. James M. Nourse, of Alexandria, Va., will preach at the Presbyterian church to-morrow (Sunday) morning at 10½ o'clock and evening at 7½.

The revival services at the M. E. church have been attended with very gratifying results. Up to Thursday 32 persons have professed faith, and the good work goes on.

Personal.—James S. Grant, of Asheville, N. C., was among Frostburg friends Monday and Tuesday. He looks well. The JOURNAL regrets losing that good story on "Tar river, Bunkum county, North Carliny," but James S. must come again.

Mrs. H. P. Hartley, formerly of Latrobe, Pa., but now of Rochester, visited C. H. Walker this week.

Mrs. J. P. Wilson, of Lonaconing, was with Frostburg friends Wednesday.

Among the visitors from Cumberland Sunday were Messrs. Jack Boose and Albert Charles.

Rev. W. B. Dorsey, of Piedmont, W. Va., was in the neighborhood of these headquarters last Monday and Tuesday.

Misses Helen and Rose Percy are visiting friends in Baltimore.

County commissioner Stern is quite ill.

Mrs. Edward Donahue, Misses Christina and Lizzie Brown and Clara Johnson, and Messrs John and William Brown took advantage of the excursion to Pittsburg, Thursday, to make a visit to that city.

Miss Annie E. Williams, of this place, is organizing a music class in Lonaconing. She is deservedly a great favorite among young people down there.

H. W. Wagner, of Morgantown, W. Va., is here for a stay of several weeks.

George E. Pearce, of Piedmont, W. Va., was among Frostburg friends Thursday.

Mrs. Nelson Beall, lately returned, is enthusiastic over the pleasures of wintering in the South.

W. R. Percy is out again.

A. Stewart is recovering.

A Compliment.—The Annapolis Republican gives expression to the following personal:

Hon. John N. Benson, who represented Allegany county in the House of Delegates last winter, is one of the young and progressive politicians of the State. It was his first trip to Annapolis in the capacity of legislator, but he showed marks of strength and ability as a worker on the floor of the House that promises a future for him. His popularity at home was evinced by carrying his county (which is set down as at least 500 Republican majority) by a majority of 250. His fearless and successful action in fighting the canal bill in the interest of his constituents has made him stronger than ever at home. He also showed his hand here in the fight against the redistricting bill. Mr. Benson, it seems to us, will be an easy 'first' in the next Legislative race in his county.

Deaths and Burials.—Mrs. Barbara Jack, wife of Thomas Jack, this place, died Monday.

The remains of Mrs. Terry Woods, of Lonaconing, were interred in the Catholic cemetery, this place, Thursday.

Morris White, an old resident of Eckhart, died in that place Tuesday.

Mrs. Mollie Sloan, wife of James Sloan, of Hoffman, died Wednesday.

Andrew Hartig, of this place, died this morning, aged 42 years. He was a quiet, industrious, prosperous citizen, probably without an enemy. His wife and five children survive.

BIG MISTAKE

CORRECTED!

SOME persons heve reported and others believed that I intend removing from here.

In order to set everyone right I would emphatically say

THIS IS A MISTAKE!

I am here to stay, and have just returned from the eastern markets with the largest, most fashionable, and cheapest stock of

CLOTHING, GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, CARPETS, OILCLOTHS TRUNKS, SATCHELS, HATS AND CAPS,

Ever brought to a single establishment in our county. Moreover, as I am cramped for room to store all my goods, I will sell every article at about 6 per cent. profit—at least for the next thirty days.

I have not time nor space to put all on paper; therefore, I have mentioned but a few articles in order that you may appreciate and realize that all should come—not wait, but come at once and examine goods and prices. No one in want of goods, will leave my store without buying, but you should come right along before the rush begins and the assortment is broken.

☞ All persons coming by rail buying goods of me will have their fare paid both ways.

Don't forget that my place is opposite C. F. Nickel's furniture store—the first clothing store as you come from the depot. Thankful for past favors, I am respectfully,

May 12 M. WINELAND.
