The Odd Fellows Picnic.—Every expectation of a large attendance and hope for a pleasant time were fully realized by those who participated in the Odd Fellows Reunion and Picnic in Frostburg last Saturday. People began to come in early, and the day being all that could be desired, hundreds of arrivals soon swelled into thousands. The early regular train and the specials two hours later brought large contingents, so that by 10 o'clock not less than 3,000 strangers were in town. At this hour the procession, formed at the depot, moved toward the Centennial grounds, the men in line numbering nearly 700. The lodges and musical organizations proceeded in the following order:

German Arion Band.
Frostburg Lodge, No. 49.
Westernport Band.
" Lodge.
Anderson Band.
Piedmont Lodge.
Keyser Drum Corps.
" Lodge.
2d Battalion Band.
Chosen Friends' Lodge, Cumberland.
Savage Mountain Lodge, No. 127, Frostburg.
Heine Lodge, No. 128, Frostburg.
Carriages containing Lodge officers.

At the grounds dancing was indulged by the young, the older portion of the fraternity and its friends intermingling in social chat. The day was thus passed delightfully. The only unpleasant feature of the great occasion was the unavoidable delay of getting away by the wreck of a train at the Westernport crossing catching the C. & P. train on the Piedmont side. The greater portion of the south-bound crowd, therefore, was held here until nearly two o'clock Sunday morning.

The Camp Meeting.—A large crowd was on the ground last Sunday to hear the veteran preacher, Rev. John Lanahan, of Baltimore. The sermon was a masterly effort, filled with sledge-hammer truths delivered with all the unction of an orator in his prime.

Among those who have preached at the camp the Frostburg pastor, Rev. H. S. France, ranks among the foremost.

Another considerable crowd was present on Children's Day—Tuesday.

The camp residence of John J. Keller has been "headquarters for Frostburg." It is the only Frostburg lot thus occupied, but the promise is bright for several "headquarters" next year.

The Baltimore Methodist of last week, speaking of Allegany Grove camp, said:

Only about two months ago did the work actually begin of preparing this new camp meeting for the present services. An expenditure of about $5,000 was necessary—$1,000 for the grove and clearing up, $700 for a tabernacle, $700 for a boarding tent, other sums for preachers' tent, and outbuildings etc. The people of Frederick district, in whose bounds the camp is located, built a cottage for the presiding elder, Rev. G. G. Baker. * * * It is believed that by another year there will be nearly or quite a hundred cottages in the grove, ranging in value from $400 to $500 each. For cottages and for the general purposes of the camp about $10,000 have been expended to date at Allegany Grove.

County News.—A Harrison and Morton club has been organized at Barton, and the following list comprises the permanent officers:

President—J. P. Tibbetts.
Vice-President—John Somerville.
Secretary—E. R. Grant.
Treasurer—James Campbell.
Chairman of the Campaign Glee Club—Anthony Reese.

The house of Samuel Myers, of Eckhart, was subjected last week to some strange visitations. Stones from unseen quarters struck the house and broke the window glass. The laws of gravitation were annulled by rocks coming leisurely up from the ground and striking the windows just hard enough to break the glass. The whole business is a puzzle to the materialistic mind, and even the superstitious cannot account for it.

School Affairs.—Prof. A. A. Doub, the new principal of the Frostburg public school, called on the JOURNAL Tuesday. He is a bright young man, of good address, affable in manner, and fluent in speech, especially on school topics. The JOURNAL ardently hopes he will be able to carry out all his good purposes at No. 1.

Friday of last week the Board of Allegany county School Commissioners decided to open the public schools on Monday Sept. 10, and that the school year for 1888-9 shall consist of three terms and a-half, which will make the school year nine months in length.

Prof. J. E. J. Buckey, ex-principal of Public School No. 1, has been appointed vice-principal at Castle School, Lonaconing.

Assistants will probably be appointed Monday.

Mission by the Rev. Paulist Fathers.—Rev. Fathers A. M. Clark and Walter E. Hopper, of New York, will open a mission in St. Michael's church, this place, on the 16th of September at 10 a. m. This mission will continue one week or more, and everyone is kindly invited by the pastor. The reverend Fathers belong to the order of St. Paul, the Apostle, one of the most celebrated religious communities in the United States, and was instituted by the Very Rev. I. T. Hecker.

Death.—Russell R. Beachy, eldest son of Dr. G. J. Beachy, of Cumberland, died in Pittsburg, Pa., Monday, of typhoid fever, aged 24 years. The young man was well known here, having several years ago kept store for F. C. Beall. The remains were brought to Cumberland, and interment took place Wednesday afternoon.

A BIG MISTAKE CORRECTED!

SOME persons have reported and others believed that I intend removing from here.

In order to set everyone right I would emphatically say

THIS IS A MISTAKE!

I am here to stay, and have just returned from the eastern markets with the largest most fashionable, and cheapest stock of

CLOTHING,
GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS,
CARPETS, OILCLOTHS
TRUNKS, SATCHELS,
HATS AND CAPS,

Ever brought to a single establishment in our county. Moreover, as I am cramped for room to store all my goods, I will sell every article at about 6 per cent. profit—at least for the next thirty days.

I have not time nor space to put all on paper; therefore, I have mentioned but a few articles in order that you may appreciate and realize that all should come—not wait, but come at once and examine goods and prices. No one in want of goods, will leave my store without buying, but you should come right along before the rush begins and the assortment is broken.

☞ All persons coming by rail buying goods of me will have their fare paid both ways.

Don't forget that my place is opposite C. F. Nickel's furniture store—the first clothing store as you come from the depot. Thankful for past favors, I am respectfully,
