LOCAL NEWS.

Special Meeting.

The word got out surreptitiously Monday that the Town Council would meet that evening. The JOURNAL hied thereto and found nobody properly seated but the Frostburg Ledger.

The body got into position finally, when the Mayor said Mr. Richmond would attend to all cases except those going to the higher courts for $100.

Mr. Michael moved to reconsider action of Council at last meeting concerning Attorney's salary.

Mr. Hosken intimated opposition on the ground that Mr. Richmond had practically declined the office by rejecting the salary fixed.

Messrs. Michael, Jandorf and Zimmerly spoke successively, but the JOURNAL could not catch even the bent of their remarks.

Mr. Hosken maintained his opposition to the motion.

The Clerk handed the Mayor a letter from Mr. Richmond, but it was not read.

Motion to reconsider and adopt Mr. Richmond's offer was carried.

But this did not finish the discussion. Mr. Jandorf made a speech, to which the Mayor responded by saying he thought "there would be no trouble about Mr. Richmond not performing his duties."

This brought some inaudible remark from Mr. DeWitt, after which the Mayor compared Mr. Richmond's ability with that of some former attorneys of the town. "Mr. Richmond had experience and would not need assistance in big cases. He thought it a measure of economy to pay him more."

The matter of electing the Board of Health coming up, Doctors J. J. Jones and C. C. Jacobs were elected. [The Mayor is ex officio a member.]

Mr. Lammert moved that a salary of $25 each per annum be paid the members.

Discussion by Messrs. Jandorf and Hosken.

Mayor—The Mayor does his portion of the work for nothing. He enjoys the honors, shares the cussing, but has no put in the emoluments.

Mr. Lammert's motion carried, care being taken to have it understood that only the physicians, not the Mayor, are to get the $25 each.

The Mayor brought up matter of ordinances passed since 1885, not in codified list printed that year. He thought the later ordinances should be looked up, printed and pasted in the books.

Mr. Hosken inquired concerning license discriminations against liverymen.

The Mayor showed how the latter were injured by haulers of merchandise, but who on Sunday, when something special was going on, would carry passengers. Ordinance prescribing licenses should state that those issued to teamsters are not to be construed as permitting passenger work.

Mr. Jandorf moved that ordinance committee be instructed to revise Section 2, Chapter 5, of the Town Code, so as to conform to the Mayor's proposed reform. Carried.

Mr. Jandorf made a speech advocating a movement to have the Cumberland and Pennsylvania railroad company remove its Frostburg depot up into town.

The Mayor said the depot should certainly be located in town.

Mr. Michael and the Mayor had a tilt over the feasibility of running a branch of the Georges Creek and Cumberland railroad into town, the latter concluding with the statement—"let the people of Frostburg plank down $6,000 and see if the G. C. & C. road does not come in."

Mr. Jandorf moved the appointment of a committee of two Councilmen to confer with the C. & P. officials with regard to the matter; if result be unfavorable, then to confer with the representatives of the G. C. & C. Carried.

Messrs. Jandorf and Michael were appointed, and a motion by the latter was adopted, adding the Mayor to the Committee as ex officio chairman.

Adjourned.

Religious.

The Allegany Union meeting, programme of which has been herefore published in these columns will begin this evening in the Main street Baptist church. Much interest is felt in these meetings and an interesting occasion is anticipated.

Rev. T. T. Evans, lately of Pittsburg, Pa., has concluded to become the pastor of the Welsh Baptist church, of this place. He has been here several weeks, and his people are much pleased with him.

At a special meeting of the Joint Council of St. Paul's English Lutheran Church, Frostburg, Md., held May 19, 1890, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, Rev. Wm. H. Jordy, who for sometime has been our efficient and much-beloved pastor, has decided to remove from our midst—

Resolved, That we as a Council put on record and express to him our hearty thanks for his untiring labors among us, and our gratitude, that under his ministry so much has been done for the upbuilding of our Church, both in its spiritual and temporal affairs. His faithful preaching of the Gospel has been blest to the good of many souls.—His efforts as a pastor have led to a genuine revival of interest in every department of our church work. Hence we shall regard with kind remembrance and appreciation his labors of love and our prayers shall ever follow him in the future—that God may abundantly bless him in all that pertains to his welfare.

Resolved, That with deep and universal regret, and only at his own earnest solicitation, and in compliance with his own request, we accept his resignation.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to our pastor, placed on record our Church book, and be published in our weekly papers.

JOSIAH FORD,
Secretary.

Dot Vos His Name.

Three Germans came into the JOURNAL office Wednesday morning. The spokesman, addressing the great paper, inquired:

"Do you sell the corporation of this town?"

"Sir?"

"Do you sold the corporation of this town?" slapping his hand on the table hard enough to rattle the scissors, spill the ink and curdle the inspiration.

"Is it a license you want?" asked the immense paper.

"Yah—something like dot."

"Then you must find Mr. Spitznas," said the JOURNAL.

"Vere does he live?" asked the spokesman, smiling. No. 2 looked at No. 3 and smiled, which No. 3 returned with compound interest. By this time the risibles of the trio were thoroughly aroused, much to the wonderment of the JOURNAL. Seeing which, No. 3, pointing to No. 2, said—

"Dot vos his name—Spitznas."

And the three went out "mit a big joke on Spitznas."

For the Other Fellow.

The JOURNAL'S Rover fell into blank verse this week a la Washington Thomsonian Sandige. From the corner of Main street and Broadway, looking westward, he writes: To the MINING JOURNAL.

Upon that hill there is a house,
Within that house there is a girl;
Within that girl there is a heart—
It beats and throbs and throbs and beats
Like hell itself—
But not for me.

Death of Mrs. Paul.

Brief reference was made last week to the death on the 14th inst. of Mrs. Mariam M. Paul, nee Neff, wife of Thomas H. Paul of this place, aged 55 years, 11 months and 14 days Mrs. Paul was born at Kutztown, Pa., November 7, 1854, she was married at Reading, Pa., by Rev. J. T. Goodrich. Two children survive, J. T. H. Paul, now manager of the Frostburg iron works, owned by T. H. Paul & Son, and Ella Mariam, wife of Howard Hitchins, of this place. Mrs. Paul was one of the best of her sex She was a true, faithful wife and an affectionate mother. A lady of domestic tastes and accomplishments, her household was constantly blessed in her plans and labors for their confort. While those nearest to her unite in endearing, recollections of her goodness, her neighbors concur in testifying to her virtures as an unfaltering friend. The funeral, largely attended, was conducted Friday of last week by Rev. A. C. Haverstick. Messrs Owen Hitchins, W. H. Koch, C. H. Hamill, C. M. McCulloh, John L. Porter, F. C. Beall, Arthur Baker and J. B. Oder were the pallbearers.

Personal.

Rev. John J. Dillon, pastor of the Catholic church at Long Green, Baltimore county, reached Frostburg Monday afternoon on a visit to his mother, Mrs. C. Lynch. It is needless to say that he is a Frostburg boy who has gone out and already made for himself a name in scholastic and religious circles. Though still young, he is one of the most popular priests in this diocese, and there are few who stand higher at archiepiscopal head quarters.

John Goldsworthy, telegraph messenger of the Western Union company, and general utility official for postmaster Walker, is a great convenience to many people who have discovered in him a rapid, safe, reliable messenger. John runs errands with great celerity, and he is always ready to wait on his friends with a cheerfulness that makes one feel good to patronize him. He receives his fees (which, by the way, ought always to be liberal,) with a smile which, interpreted, means more than "thank you," that is, "come again." The JOURNAL owes this notice to John for his care of the JOURNAL'S perpetual red, white and blue bulletin.

Gone West.

Thomas H. Paul, called home last week by the illness and death of his wife, returned to Sioux city, Iowa, yesterday, to complete arrangements for the removal thence of his machine and engine plant, located at this place. Much as this step is to be regretted by those most interested in the material prosperity of Frostburg, it appears to be certain that Mr. Paul's field of operations here is too contracted for both his ambitions and capabilities. Besides, the superior public spirit of the west affords opportunities and special inducements which do not characterize the municipal feeling of our oriental communities. So that it is natural that a man of Mr. Paul's energy should seek a broader arena and, in his judgment, a more appreciative patronage. In doing so he has ascertained that the people of Sioux city welcome his proposed location in that city in a most substantial manner. From Mr. Paul's outlook the prospect is bright and he enjoys good reason to expect that both himself and his new friends will be gainers by the change. The JOURNAL sincerely hopes so, for Mr. Paul is "all the way up" in machinery and enginery, and no less so in business promptness and accommodation. In a social way he is par excellence. So conspicuous is he as "a good fellow," that his numerous friends here devised a banquet in his honor as a farewell send-off. But the recent sad loss of his wife caused the demonstration to be abandoned. Mr. Paul is seconded by his son, J. T. H. Paul, a young man not far behind his father in mechanical acquirements and skill. With the two Sioux city is fortunate in securing a brace of useful and valuable citizens.

It is used by the most eminent physicians and in hospitals as the best tonic wine known.

Remarkable Rescue.—Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plaintield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking ten bottles, found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at R. G.
