2d Sheet.

perfectly satisfied to pay the expence as originally proposed, if you think it advisable to take out the patent agreeable to our understanding with Mr Cook & Professor Wheatstone. My engagements for several weeks have been so constant that I have not seen Mr Cooke.

By Mr. Mayey I have sent you Forks 18 large & 18 dessert cost about 4£ - they are put up in a parcel & address to Care of Peabody, Riggs & Co Paris. With the baggage of Mr Mayey they will no doubt pass free of duty.

My friend Metcalfe of Canton, has proposed a plan for a National Bank of which I think favourably. By Mr Mayey I have sent the original to Peabody, Riggs & Co & requested it handed over to you after a copy has been taken for a friend in New York.

Assuring you that it will at all times give me pleasure to hear from you & to give you my best services whenever you have business in this country, I remain

In haste, Yours truly

George Peabody
