And to endeavour to avoid any embarrassing, or prejudicial proposition touching our interests — but I have concluded to depart in the Steamer to day for Baltimore, and to proceed on Monday for Washington for the purpose of conferring with Col: Rodney, in order that he may be prepared to take the field at short notice.

I may remain a week in Washington, and shall be happy in hearing from you there.

Very truly I am, Dear Sir, Your obedient Servant

Littleton Dennis Teackle

P.S. I had intended to have the forwarded writing to you until arriving at Baltimore but having just learned from Mr. Wilson that he would depart for Centreville on to morrow I determined to avail of so favorable an opportunity.

Yrs truly — L. D. T.
