for many reasons that it was for the interest of the State to employ the hands of A Brown Esqrs and I doubt not they will give full satisfaction in the performance of the duty

We are suffering dreadfully here from the long drought and much fear that the good wheat harvest will not compensate for the loss of Corn and Potatoes

Very truly I remain

Dear Sir

Your friend & servant

H. W. Evans

General Emory.

Poplar Grove

Z. Mans Co