If you do the greatest of favors you can possibly confer on one who you know would do anything in his power to gratify you, may who would derive pleasure in serving you always, at all times you are at liberty to make what statement you please to the Lord Day if you think proper that I shall ever feel grateful to him for his friendship, if he will bring out him me, in the hour of need; this proves a friend indeed. with unbounded confidence in you and a tender of my (?) will, for any service you require

I am in haste

Your Friend

Wm P Stewart

N.B. I to add to all my other difficulties & distresses I this morn received a letter from Charles Lane informing me of the death of Unit Chandler; thus leaving two little boys; my grandchildren, to the care Charities of this world; he has left nothing. I feel more than I can express on their account & only knows what is to become of them. I know not
