Rec.d this 1st day of February 1839 of Col.
John Telghman the sum of Seventeen dollars and forty five cents, being the balance in full of two claims which have been due to me in my own right and as administrator of Thos. Hensley dec.d — first for three hundred dollars with interest loaned by Thomas Hensley and assigned from Judge Chambers as administrator of Wm.
Hensley dec.d, and for a like sum with interest advanced by Thomas Hensley on his own account; and both claims being advanced prior to the year 1826 in part payment for the purchase of the life or of Alexander Hensley in the farm called Spenwood, and which claims are encumbered in an agreement entered into by Henrietta M. Hensley (now H. M. Telghman) for payment to the respective parties making advances for said purchase.
