Centre Mills Sept 23 1839

Dear Emory Deacon

I regret to perceive that you have paid no attention whatever to my note addressed you some weeks since the contents of which were perfectly in accordance with your own promise with this difference I did not solicit payment as soon as you promised but informed you my particular want of money to meet a Bank engagement that one I made out to comply with hoping have one more and hope you will feel that interest for me which I would do for you under existing circumstances.

Yours Respectfully

P. Gaufer
