Plantes seems to be to pet - (Tusk) your dog Blop has puppies Robert has selected the finest for you - Old Pale became so dis eased, and such a horrid figure, Mr E had him shot - I did say I would never pet another dog - but yours I will take care of - Albert we do not often hear from - but always to his advantage - - - I believe I have got through home concerns - and there is little or no news in the country - hard times, and the certainty of Harrison's election is all that is talked of - Henry Leighton and Milcah Shaw are to live at Skinner's next year - in the house as it is - not even plastered - it is said Mr Skinner has offered Henry $2000 to build a house - but the Ladies have determined no money of theirs shall be spent on Henry's property until second to him - (very right) - John Charles is to farm on Bowen's Branch - he denies positively the report of his engagement with Sally S - says he has no thoughts of her - Bob thinks it is Elizabeth Tilghman - Sally S is now getting to be so little understood as a Fleet that I suspect she will not find it as easy to marry as she thought - My son paid a long visit in Baltimore last little time - Stedman Tilghman wrote to his Brother William giving him an account of the Whig Convention - says there were many green horns - but he thinks William is counting H De Courcy - in my last were the the greatest of all was Bob Skinner - Horace Edmonson, and the former receipts you sent for - I wrote you that your shirts were been going down Street - they saw Bill Williams standing in the door of a Hatter's Shop - where he was waiting for his hat that was being ironed - he said good Morning gentlemen, shall I sell you a hat to day - Bob S says really Mr Williams I was not aware that you were in business yes says Bill I have been here all winter - I am very sorry says Bob - I did not know it, I bought a hat this morning - but I will go round to Barnum's, and send the Talbot delegation here - they are worst hats - with that Bill W - and Horace shouted - - It is said there never was such a scene in any city in the union as the convention presented - it there were at least 35000 strangers - their Banners, Log Cabins, Music &c were exhaustive and exciting beyond discription - Market and Baltimore Streets were lined with Ladies from top to bottom of the houses - waving their banners and handkerchiefs - every house was opened - to those that the Taverns and boarding houses could not accommodate - Dear Thomas and Thomas were there - as all the young men from this County went - your Father proposed to Robert to go - he says that Dear T was the most delighted mortal he ever saw - indeed all that I have seen say that they never spent so pleasant a time, you will see by the papers I sent you the Orders of the day, and the arrangement - William Hemsley is more cut down than Sam since his death - he deeply feels the loss of his young Sister - he has his Grand Mother and little Girl at home - and does not go about as much as Tom I think is much the same in his habits - Sam then Son - and now think that you are not remembered by your own affect Mother

A M Emory -
