was taken with a chill, and fever - he went home the next day - and as I have heard nothing from home, hope he has got over it - — Your Father delivered a very handsome address before the State Agricultural Society at Ellicots Mills, in September - he took Lady Clifden and Compromise over to sell but was not successful. William Hemsley kept the latter two on 3 weeks in Baltimore - he says he never in his life saw a horse so admired - but it is a bad season to sale horses —

St Louis —

This is the day of election - it is the opinion that the Whigs will be beaten in this County and Queen Anne's - Thomas Johnston will be elected for Governor - as he and Thomas went through the Shore - the former spent a day at Poplar Grove - I was pleased with him —

There has nothing of importance happened to tele your since I wrote - I hope you got your Shirts, William sent on - Maria Backe has worked you a beautiful pair of slippers - which I suppose I had better keep tile you come on - Ah - My dear Child when tile that horrid war ended - and when shall I be blessed with the sight of you - the weakness of the Mother gives way sometimes when I think of you, and poor Bob - he now exposed to all the horrors of a fatal disease - I dread to see a paper tile anxious for every mail - we have not heard from him for a month - God bless you My Son - your Sister, and the Doctor - Mipy and Ellen Thomas - all desire their best love -

your devoted Mother

Ann Emory

Write often - what do you think Martha Hemsley is going to be married to Alexander Mackey - Richard H, has gone