Willis' Market &c. was taken by a detach ment of K co. and they sent a notice of it to the Comdg Offr of Co K. through the Adjutant. And I believe they have been duly ch in the roll of Co K. — The Adjutant can prob= ably give you a copy of the paragraph, so that you may account for it in the Return I do not recollect the amt. charged. —

Well. I suppose, you were perfectly delighted, to get out of the clutches of Gen C. — This great man does not appear to have wrought such wonders, yet, as some might have antici= pated. And others may think, he has done more. His own Regiment, are not sorry that he is not with them.

Where is Fort Harrison, at Punta Rosa or Cape Sable, to which you thought he was most explicable, in collecting, that it is my hard fortune in the [illegible] to draw from names alone

There is no Indian news here, the last we heard of Col Garland, he was going to raise the Savannah, trying to overtake a party of Indians, going in that direction, whom it is suspected, have been negotiated with by other emissaries, and I believe the Col, was apprehensive that, he would get no story, there — The Creeks have I believe been decept an approached, and resolved almost unapproachable. We learning a system of defensive operations against the settlements, against all danger, while the rumors, "with talks from influential men" to us, words are [illegible] but [illegible] suppose so, for we don't see signs, now.

It is more than believed that the gallant of the 8th will not be so fortunate as he and to eat his Christmas dinner in a settled Country, wishes are strong, this way but it won't keep pace with the

All our friends here are I believe fine my regards to any of my friends, write and give me items, now & then. The last news that I have from Q. Padre very success= ful venture in the Glades

Yours truly
