Ship Liberty at Sea
11th Aug 1837

My dear Mother

We are two thousand miles at sea, have not been near Rich; and from the life given you all — two months out. God bless you all, I have only time to write this above, which I leave to any town

John wrote a Row
Robt Lewis

The Ship is now lying in stays waiting for this —