the money, whatever the Exchange may cost you to remit from the U. States to Eng When we left Exchange was very high tis true, but Latter accounts has brought it much of a Consider =able decline - And it seems to be the general im =pression that by August or September next it must be very low - As the U. S. pay the immense remittances Price is now nearly in Cotton, goods & Specie, will by that time have nearly paid to the British Nation her Commercial debt - When Exchange will no longer be in demand & must go down Now it has a tendency per Cent, it would do better than Specie bought at such high rates - If Texas again declines I cannot but think it would be a safe speculation, as it shows would warrant, if now Texas no higher at home than they were when we left - And it is to be hoped there will be a general improvement in every thing - I cannot believe people to be getting as poor of our Country generally are, should be suffer for any length of time, and op= =pressions so crushing upon this Democratic Land I believe on the change, instead of his protege Mr Van Buren - the hero reign'd in New England the Patriotic feelings, tis much as might have been expected - I am sorry to see Mangham so so Changed for the worse - We shall not be able to leave here for a month, and