vessel according to law to suppose they will have to give bonds for these duties, but indeed the circumstances of the case there is little doubt but that Congress will extend them. — In the Liberty's voyage home you will have had an opportunity of acquiring more Experience than you expected when leaving home. I mean in the way of Insurance, Damage &c. — There are a number of points about this the settlement of which I should like to know. — a statement of the whole will no doubt be made up by an Insurance Broker either in New York or Philadelphia if you can get me a copy of it made, you will oblige me by having it out or sending it to my Brothers whichever may be most convenient to you and I will pay you the Expense of the document. There will no doubt be a General average for the Expense of putting in to Bermuda, discharging refitting the Cargo &c, and I also want to see how the contribution was made to pay the difference between the Freight paid to the Harriet & the freight Earned here, the former I believe having Secured the Cotton 20 a 3000 $. all which will I presume appear in the Insurance Brokers Statement. —
