ESTIMATE OF EXPENSES AT THE PARSONAGE SEMINARY.

Boarding for the Winter session, beginning October 1st, and ending April 15th,	$48 94½
Tuition for the same period,	27 53
Boarding for the summer session, beginning May 1st, and ending August 31st,	31 05½
Tuition for the same period,	17 47
	$125 00

THE price of fuel consumed in the school rooms will, at the end of the Winter session, be equally divided among the members of the school. It is believed that the charge for each will not exceed one dollar and twenty-five cents.

STUDENTS are required to provide their own bedding, washing, mending, and candles for study.

THEY can be accommodated with these things on the premises, and when desired, will be furnished at the following prices:

Bedding and washing for the Winter session	$7 34
Ditto for Summer session,	4 66
Mending for Winter session,	1 80
Ditto for Summer session,	1 20
Candles for study for Winter session,	2 44
Ditto for Summer session,	1 56

FOR Boarding, &c. payment is expected at the beginning, or at farthest, by the middle, and for tuition, at any time between the middle and end, of each session.

THE PRINCIPAL keeps on hand a supply of class books, which he furnishes to his students at the lowest city prices. As it may, however, be more agreeable to some to provide books and stationery for themselves—which he would prefer, as it would relieve him of much trouble and expense—the following list of books used in his Seminary, is subjoined as a guide to them in doing so.
