next; but that the corn, hay, pumpkins &c, and all crops, which have usually been retained, be considered as belonging to the farms, on which they have been grown. And that the above objects may be carried fully into effect the Referees direct, that the division of the personal Estate shall not take place until the first day of January next, except as to the monies herein before mentioned, and the proceeds of tobacco presently to be sold. — Until which first day of January the personal Estate shall be considered as a single Estate under the care and management of the Administrator, with the above exceptions; and except also the pork to be fatted, which shall be divided when fit to secure, that the next years provision may be properly laid in. The Referees also direct that the Administrator shall not make sale of any of the personal Estate previous to the said first day of January, except the usual saleable crops, unless absolutely necessary for the general good of the Estate; and not then until all the household and kitchen furniture in quality and value, except the articles herein before disposed of, to be allotted to them according to our directions given for that purpose. And that the said Alexander & Henrietta his wife have one third in number and value of all the horses, mules, cattle, sheep, and hogs, and of all other live stock not herein before mentioned. —

And the aforesd Referees have also determined, and do award to James Tilghman to have and hold all those tracts of land, called Rich Neck & Rich Neck Addition, lying & being in Talbot County, and between, and on the waters of the Eastern Bay and St. Michaels River. — And also all those tracts of land called New Port Glasgow and Ellitts Folly Resurveyed, situated in Talbot County, on the waters of St. Michaels River; New Port Glasgow covering the point, known by the name of Deep Water Point, and Ellitts Folly Resurveyed lying just above it. And also all that part of a tract of land, belonging to the Estate of Lloyd Tilghman deceased, called Lostock, situated in Dirty Neck, between the waters of Broad & Harris's
