Boston Feb 22 1845

Sir, agreeably to your request I lay before the Hon the memorials you left with me in relation to relaying a few miles of out Lumber to Charlestown, I may remark the out Lumber let Plymouth that it cost not more the Lumber of three hundred dollars for the Lumbert upon the low countrey that is hundred more be returned to that Lumber then will however be Lutt the Lumber offered also to that Lumber. In it is seen that application are made every month in the year and are frequently made relative to the road. The board are of opinion that allow ance ought to be made on out Lumber with Great disretion & caution. It ought to be done by Lumber Letting upon Long in Lutt The Lumber of Lumber in of the Lumber
