Otwell Feby. 28th 1829.

My dear Sir.

I am much indebted to you for the information you have given, respecting the Sale &c. and am pleased to see that you were sustained on the occasion by the Judge. Indeed, it is fortunate, that you got the information in time, to proceed to C. Town. By the Sunday's mail of the 3 ults. I rec.d a letter from Jas. Hendley in behalf of his brother Tom - giving an extract from Mr. Burd's letter, that the Sale would take place at C. Town on the preceeding day - consequently it was too late, for me to act on the intelligence - and am truly glad that matters are no worse. The inference, however, is irresistible that Cummings will not give $10 pr acre - The great probability is - the land must be sacrificed in the end - I am surprized at the declaration of Mr Chew - that Burd has been opposed to a division of the Land - My memory deceives me greatly if in a conversation with Mr Burd the subject was not touched on between us - and a division was thought at
