invitation to visit them and attend the meetings you speak of, that I th. it pleased that some friend th. read to the people at the meetings my answer, in order that all might know the true reason of my declining —

It is alone owing to Carlisle that I did not come and be unwillingness to unite with Dames of Talbot, after five weeks notice, and an adjourned meeting of the representative Cont.s at Easton bough, which gave her a week more, after she found that Talbot & Dames had acted and written it — not to unite them owned a fixed determination not to unite — and it w.d not have done, for the candidate, who is supposed to be brought out by his political friends, to come out with such wisdom that one third of these friends were opposed to it.

With best respects to Mr T I am dear sir
