a copy of the list. I took mine from the original in the hand writing of Mr Lovett in J. R. Lockerman's office. If you think proper to mention the matter to A. H. he can probably if he chooses show you my letter containing the list &c. I think he extremely glad to close his business — and I do not know how this matter is to be got over. Mr A. H. ought to surrender his property without difficulty. He said he wanted the guns — his brother Jim wants one. My recollection is that the valuation placed on them was amazingly low. How can W. H. J. get over his Adm.n oath if he does not look to this affair — J. J. estate is entitled to half in the settlement of the Estate. This judg.t can never be closed until some disposition is made of the articles at Sherwood. I must again beg you not to forget to furnish me with the voucher. It seems to me you ought to me with something else besides the carriage. Look and see. I have lost enough by Trust in any event.

Enclosed is an exact copy of the Assignment &c. &c.

I with all our worthy wish at an end — and that there was enough of the circulating medium to meet all demands and gratify all reasonable wants —

Very truly yrs

N. G. Osborn
