I think I understood you to say that all the black people were Mannumitted and informed on board. Should do not be Mannumitted it may be well to have the time of service inserted in the Law and at same time declare them to be free after having served said time. —

Yours Respectfully

John Cummings